Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and Other Internal Security Laws,1975 Emergence of Africa in International Politics Taufiq Ahmad Nizami,1993 Contributed articles Production Relations, Class and Black Liberation Clarence J. Munford,1978-01-01 Marxism, Science, and the Movement of History Alan R. Burger,Hyman R. Cohen,David H. DeGrood,1980 Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn. Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul. This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes. Contents: Racial Attitudes, Racism and Poverty, Hate Groups, Racial Justice, Racism and Politics, Race Discrimination, Racial Identity, Racism Around the World. The Black Muslim Manifesto Lukman,2009-05 The Black Muslim Manifesto is the compilation of over ten years of essays addressing events of historical, contemporary and ideological significance. Debates between the author and others who contested some of his positions form the basis of several chapters. The essays not only provide Lukman's reflections on some of the most critical issues of the past decade, they also include a critical analysis of American history, a critique of Malcolm X, a biographical sketch of Kwame Ture partly based on the author's personal relationship with him. Lukman's understanding of the religion of Islam, particularly as it relates to the post 9/11 world, commentaries on Lebanon, Sudan, Gaza, the ascendancy of Obama etc. There are countless opinions offered concerning every topic addressed in the Manifesto, however, that which makes the Manifesto unique is its uncompromising Black revolutionary Islamic perspective. This is a perspective that is totally missing from the ideological discourse in America, on either the left or the right. The climate of fear engendered by George W.'s fatwa that you are either with us or you are with the terrorists has sent Muslim leadership in America scurrying behind the mantra Islam is peace. The fact that Bush codified his fatwa with the Patriot Act has left this brand of leadership cowering in fear. Those who wish to pass themselves off as Black leadership are no better than their Muslim counterparts. The Manifesto takes the unabashed position that the Obamamania which has been signed onto by most recognized Black leadership is no more than a corporate controlled deception. It is a deception designed for international as well as domestic consumption. The American ruling class is faced with the browning of America. They are also confronted with an increasingly non-white anti-American global population. According to the Manifesto, Obamaism represents the apotheosis of neo-colonialism. Are the views expressed in the two preceding paragraphs controversial? Of course they are, and they are reflective of the spirit of the book. That is precisely what makes the Manifesto unique. The uniqueness of the book is part of the appeal of the Manifesto. An embattled Muslim world will find a voice in the Western Hemisphere who champions their cause.

Followers of the teachings of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad will see that Elijah Lives in its pages Revolutionary thinkers will find a book written in the spirit of George Jackson's Blood in my Eye And of course liberals reformists accommodationists and assimilationists will be horrified But that is precisely the type of debate all intellectuals should welcome Cumulative Index, 1972-1975, to Published Hearings, Studies, and Reports of the Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and Other Internal Security Laws of the Committee on the Judiciary, United States Senate United States.
