Racism And Cultural Diversity In The Mass Me:

'Sleepwalking to segregation'? Nissa Finney,Ludi Simpson,2009-01-21 In the context of renewed debates about diversity and cohesion this book interrogates contemporary claims about race and migration It demonstrates that many of the claims are myths presenting evidence in support of and in opposition to them in an accessible yet academically rigorous manner The book combines an easy to read overview of the subject with innovative new research It tackles head on questions about levels of immigration the contribution of immigrants minority self segregation ghettoisation and the future diversity of the population The authors argue that the myths of race and migration are the real threat to an integrated society and recommend that focus should return to problems of inequality and prejudice

Bilingualism and Multiculturalism in

Greek Education Nikos Gogonas,2010-04-16 Bilingualism and Multiculturalism in Greek Education investigates the factors affecting language maintenance shift among second generation Albanian and Egyptian migrant pupils in Athens Using a combined quantitative and qualitative methodology it explores the influence of three sets of variables on language maintenance These are a ethnolinguistic vitality defined by the demography status and institutional support of each group in Greece as well as migrant and Greek pupils perceptions regarding these factors b migrant parents attitudes to language maintenance and their role in language transmission in the home and c the attitudes of teachers and the institutional approaches of mainstream Greek education to linguistic and cultural diversity Results indicate that knowledge of Greek is common among today s children of Albanian and Egyptian immigrants and preference for that language is dominant bilingualism varies slightly between Albanian and Egyptian second generation pupils with Egyptians being more dominant in the parental language due to their higher degree of identification with their ethnic group in comparison to the Albanian pupils the school context plays a significant role in the ability of second generation youths to achieve and maintain bilingual fluency
