Peterson, 1999-11-17 Best selling authors Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson offer encouragement to pastors Pastors are strategically placed to counter the culture No other profession looks so inoffensive but is in fact so dangerous to the status quo Their weapon A gospel that is profoundly countercultural But standing firm in today's world isn't easy Powerful forces both subtle and obvious attempt to domesticate pastors to make them in a word unnecessary In this book two of today's most respected authors help pastors recover their gospel identity and maintain a pure vision of Christian leadership Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson reconnect pastors with the biblical texts that will train them as countercultural servants of the gospel Marva Dawn looks to Paul's letter to the Ephesians for instruction for churches seeking to live faithfully in today's world In turn Eugene Peterson explores Romans 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus drawing from them the correct view of pastoral identity

Redeeming the Text Charles Martindale, 1993 This book applies some of the procedures of modern critical theory in particular reception theory deconstruction theories of dialogue and the hermeneutics associated with the German philosopher Gadamer to the interpretation of Latin poetry Charles Martindale argues that we neither can nor should attempt to return to an original meaning for ancient poems free from later accretions and the processes of appropriation more traditional approaches to literary enquiry conceal a metaphysics which has been put in question by various anti-foundationalist accounts of the nature of meaning and the relationship between language and what it describes From this perspective the author examines different readings of the poetry of Virgil Ovid Horace and Lucan in order to suggest alternative ways in which those texts might more profitably be read Finally he focuses on a key term for such study translation and examines the epistemological questions it raises and seeks to circumvent
