Testament Habakkuk wrestled with the seeming triumph of the wicked questioning God's justice. The Lord's response was not an immediate resolution of evil but an invitation to trust in his righteousness and sovereignty. This principle finds its ultimate fulfillment in Christ through whom justification is received by faith alone. The Apostle Paul inspired by the Holy Spirit expounds on this truth in his letters making it clear that righteousness is not attained by works of the Law but by faith in Jesus Christ. Martin Luther upon grasping this truth sparked the Reformation restoring the biblical doctrine of salvation by grace through faith. Faith is not a one-time event but a continual posture of trust. It is the means by which the righteous live day by day in reliance on God's promises, strength, and guidance. This faith is not blind optimism but firm confidence in the character of God who is faithful to his word. This work seeks to explore the depth and implications of this foundational truth. What does it mean to be just in the eyes of God? How does faith shape the believer's life? How does this principle provide hope in uncertain times? As we examine Scripture may we be reminded that faith is both the beginning and the essence of the Christian life. May this study strengthen your walk with God, deepen your trust in his promises, and inspire you to live as one who is truly justified by faith. Words to Live By Moses A. Akingbade, 2011-02 What Men Live By Leo

Tolstoy, 2024-05-09 This philosophical parable rooted in biblical truths offers a profound meditation on the essence of human existence, positing love as the fundamental force that sustains life. It stands as a didactic exploration of spiritual values, challenging materialistic pursuits in favor of a life guided by compassion and interconnectedness. What Men Live By or in Russian was published in 1881. This philosophical parable, sometimes known by its German title Wovon die Menschen leben, delves into the spiritual and eternal values that underpin human life, drawing directly from biblical principles. The story recounts the experience of Semyon, a poor shoemaker who discovers a naked stranger, Mikhailo, by the roadside and, despite his own destitution, brings him home. Mikhailo, who is an angel sent by God to collect a woman's soul, but returns without it, out of pity becomes Semyon's apprentice. God then tasks Mikhailo with answering three questions: What is in people? What is not given to people? and What do people live by? Through his observations, Mikhailo ultimately comprehends that humans do not subsist on selfish self-interest but on cooperation and, above all, on love, which resides within them. This work, part of Tolstoy's folk tales and People's Reading project, reflects his intense turn to religious questions from 1879 onwards, emphasizing neighborly love and non-resistance to evil. This critical reader's edition presents a modern translation of the original manuscript, crafted for the modern reader with clean, contemporary language and simplified sentence structures that clarify his complex Russian phrasing and specific antiquated references. Supplementary material enriches the text with autobiographical, historical, and linguistic context, including an afterword by the translator on Tolstoy's personal history, impact, and intellectual legacy; an index of the philosophical concepts he employs, emphasizing Existentialism and influence by Schopenhauer; a comprehensive chronological list of his published writings; and a detailed timeline of his life, highlighting the personal relationships that shaped his philosophy. The long exile, and other stories (What men live by ; Yermak, the
