Curating and Re-Curating the American Wars in Vietnam and Iraq Christine Sylvester, 2019-03-04 We have long saved and curated objects from wars to commemorate the war experience These objects appear at national museums and memorials and in war novels and memoirs Through them we institutionalize narratives and memories of national identity power and purpose This book asks whose vantage points on the American wars in Vietnam and Iraq are available and where for public consumption it also considers whose war experiences are not represented are minimized or ignored in ways that advantage contemporary militarism In looking at how professional curators ordinary civilian curators and veteran and civilian writers exhibit the American wars in Vietnam and Iraq Sylvester shows that war authority is widely dispersed and nonconsensual By looking beyond official renditions of a war scholars policymakers and other citizens are able to grasp war as a violent rather than abstractly heroic mode of politics

Memory Is Another Country Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen, 2009-08-25 2010 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The act of remembering is a means of bringing the past alive and an imaginative way of dealing with loss It has been the subject of much recent scholarship and is of particular relevance at a time of widespread transnational migration This book is a valuable and original contribution to the field of diaspora studies Based on in depth oral narratives of forty Vietnamese women it deals with themes both universal and specific to this diaspora divergent memories in families the significance of homeland the return to Vietnam cross cultural relationships intergenerational tensions and the issues of silence and unspoken trauma among Vietnamese refugees It is the first study to apply memory and trauma theories to a substantial base of oral narratives by Vietnamese women in the West Nguyen argues that understanding of these narratives provides not only an insight into the way Vietnamese women have
