Lai, 2025-11-04 Asia's legendary playwright director Stan Lai has written one of the unique works of our time explaining that the mysterious act of creativity is actually a traceable function of mind and there is a path to learn creativity through unlearning many of our habits picked up in life His special map as well as tailor made exercises lays out an awe inspiring yet practical guide from a lifetime of creative work revered in Asia by artists and business leaders alike Through his extensive experience the greatest living Asian playwright shows us how to cultivate a creative app that works within us Matthieu Ricard says Stan Lai teaches us how to see and how to do Praised by Jack Ma Ang Lee and other luminaries this book is a rewrite by the author of his book that is the most prominent work on creativity in China having sold over 700 000 copies Robert Wilson calls the work foundational support for arts and culture Stan Lai is uniquely qualified to write on creativity because he not only has four decades of creative experience widely acclaimed as the greatest playwright in the Chinese language but is also a dedicated educator Shannon Jackson calls the work A must read from an internationally renowned artist Can creativity be taught Most of the books and training in this area deal with skills for jumpstarting alternative thinking brainstorming and other exercises but do not deal with creativity itself They don't tackle the obvious question What is creativity and how can I get it As one of the world's leading artists Lai explains that the reason we don't think creativity can be taught is that we don't really understand what happens in the mysterious process By slowing down the moment of inspiration Lai lets us see exactly the elements involved in this complex process that lasts only an instant Then he shows you how to prepare for this moment through his unique Map of Creativity This is a whole path of training in creativity which he explains clearly and humour and compassion and tailor made exercises Travis Preston says Stan Lai guides us to the center of the creative moment and the ultimate unity of the spiritual and physical worlds Creativity is a milestone in understanding and learning the creative act Born in America raised in Taiwan with a career spanning the Chinese diaspora Lai believes that we are all born creative but the source to creativity has been blocked by life How to take down the barriers that are blocking the source from us is a task of unlearning many things that have become habits and put us into a so called non creative mode Taking his cue from his Buddhist training that wisdom and method are both needed for success in any endeavour he explains how wisdom has mysteriously vanished from education systems all over Most teaching in creativity focuses on method which one learns in one's art But we need another type of training more urgently the training for wisdom which can only happen in the domain of life To do you must first be To discover your creativity you must first discover yourself Octavian Saiu says This book is not a manual but a statement of belief an enduring message about how each of us can go beyond our limits

The Road Goes on Forever Jake Hessman, 2010-08 If you had complete freedom from all obligations both personal and financial and thousands of options lying ahead of you how would you decide which one to pursue This is the position Chris Coupland finds himself in on a frigid New Year's morning when his relationship with Hope ends abruptly From loss and confusion through success and reconciliation his choices and the resulting journey may surprise you Avoiding demons and chasing dreams his search for Hope or even just hope will be the catalyst for the change he never knew he needed His challenge now is to decide which path to take and whether to take that path alone or with someone

The Annual Biography and Obituary for the Year ..., 1820

That's the Way It Is Molly Stringer, 2016-03-23 Memories flood my mind as I reminisce how my journey has been a lifetime of happenings that speak to my soul with lessons that can be applied to our daily lives These memories are conjured up at odd and sometimes inconvenient times As I sat in church last Sunday and the pastor began his message my mind captured a thought of bygone days that spoke loud and clear to my mind and I scrambled in my bag for a pen and paper to put my thoughts down Brother Tim must have thought he had really said something profound and he did but I did not write that down It is my hope that all who read my memories and the lessons that I glean from them will take them to heart and identify with them and feel happiness insight and perhaps laughter as they share my memories and truths

South of Tradition Trudier Harris, 2010-04-15 With characteristic originality and insight Trudier Harris Lopez offers a new and challenging approach to the work of African American writers in these twelve previously unpublished essays Collectively the essays show the vibrancy of African American literary creation across several decades of the twentieth century But Harris Lopez's readings of the various texts deliberately diverge from traditional ways of viewing traditional topics South of Tradition focuses not only on well known writers such as Zora Neale Hurston Ralph Ellison James Baldwin and Richard Wright but also on up and coming writers such as Randall Kenan and less known writers such as Brent Wade and Henry Dumas Harris Lopez addresses themes of sexual and racial identity reconceptualizations of and transcendence of Christianity analyses of African American folk and cultural traditions and issues of racial justice Many of her subjects argue that geography shapes identity whether that geography is the European territory many blacks escaped to from the oppressive South or the South itself where generations of African Americans have had to come to grips with their relationship to the land and its history For Harris Lopez south of tradition refers both to geography and to readings of texts that are not in keeping with expected responses to the works She explains her point of departure for the essays as a slant an angle or a jolt below the line of what would be considered the norm for usual responses to African American literature The scope of Harris Lopez s work is tremendous From her coverage of noncanonical writers to her analysis of humor in the best selling The Color Purple she provides essential material that should inform all future readings of African American literature

Stolen Limelight Margaret E. Gray, 2022-05-15 Who has not in a favored moment stolen the limelight whether inadvertently or by design The implications of such an act of display its illicitness its verve its vertiginous reversal of power its subversiveness are explored in this book Narrative crafting and management of such scenarios are studied across canonical novels by Gide Colette Mauriac and Duras as well as by African Francophone writer Oyono and detective novelist Japrisot As manipulated within narrative acts of display position a viewer or reader from whom response from veneration or desire to repugnance or horror is solicited but this study demonstrates that display can also work subversively destabilising and displacing such a privileged spectator As strategies of displacement these scenarios ultimately neutralise and even occult the very subject they so energetically appear to solicit Powered by gendered tensions this dynamic of display as displacement works toward purposes of struggle resistance or repression

The Phenomenology of Love and Reading Cassandra Falke, 2018-05-31 The current revival of interest in ethics in literary criticism coincides fortuitously with a revival of interest in love in philosophy The literary return to ethics also coincides with a spate of neuroscientific discoveries about cognition and emotion But without a philosophical grounding this new work cannot speak convincingly about literature's relationship to our ethical lives Jean Luc Marion's articulation of a phenomenology of love provides this philosophical grounding The Phenomenology of Love and Reading accepts Jean Luc Marion's argument that love matters for who we are more than anything more than cognition and more than being itself Cassandra Falke shows how reading can strengthen our capacity to love by giving us practice in love's habits attention empathy and a willingness to be overwhelmed Confounding our expectations literature equips us for the confounding events of love which Falke suggests are not rare and fleeting but rather constitute the most meaningful and durable part of our everyday life
