

A romantic couple is shown from the chest up, embracing and looking down at each other. The woman has long blonde hair and is wearing a black top. The man has dark hair and is wearing a dark jacket. They are standing in front of a blurred background of Parisian architecture, including a church with a blue dome and a red-roofed building. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of a sunset or sunrise.

Love's Grateful Striving M. Jamie Ferreira, 2001-06-07 Soren Kierkegaard s Works of Love 1847 a series of deliberations on the commandment to love one s neighbor has often been condemned by critics Here Ferreira seeks to rehabilitate Works of Love as one of Kierkegaard s most important works He shows that Kierkegaard's deliberations on love are highly relevant to some important themes in contemporary ethics including impartiality duty equality mutuality reciprocity self love sympathy and sacrifice Ferreira also argues that Works of Love bears on issues peculiar to a religious ethic such as the role of God as middle term and the possibility of preserving the aesthetic dimensions of love in a religious ethic of relation

On Love and Charity Saint Thomas Aquinas, 2008-07 Among the great works of Thomas Aquinas the Commentary on the Sentences of Peter Lombard has suffered almost total neglect among translators Such neglect is surprising considering that the massive Commentary more than 4 000 pages in the last printed edition is not only Aquinas's first systematic engagement with all the philosophical and theological topics on which he expended his energy over the span of a short career but is also characterized by an exuberance and elaborateness seldom found in his subsequent writings Although Chenu had already drawn attention decades ago to the importance of studying this youthful tour de force for a fuller understanding of Thomas's more mature work the Commentary on the Sentences has remained a closed book for many modern students of Thomistic and medieval thought because of its relative inaccessibility in English or in Latin The present volume containing all the major texts on love and charity makes available what is by far the most extensive translation ever to be made from the Commentary with the added benefit that the better part of the translation is based on the as yet unpublished critical edition of the Leonine Commission The collection of texts from all four books has a tight thematic coherence that makes it invaluable to students of Thomas's moral philosophy moral theology and philosophical theology In addition the inclusion of parallel texts from Aquinas's first Parisian Commentary as well as from his second Roman attempt at a commentary the recently rediscovered Lectura Romana makes this edition all the more valuable for those who wish to track the internal development of Thomas's thinking on these matters The new availability of so many rich passages from the Commentary on the Sentences will encourage and facilitate use of a magnificent resource that deserves to be better known The printed volume is supplemented by a web based document containing a fuller introduction webnotes and a bibliography To reach this supplementary information click here

ABOUT THE TRANSLATORS Peter A Kwasniewski is associate professor of philosophy and theology at Wyoming Catholic College and editor of Wisdom's Apprentice Thomistic Essays in Honor of Lawrence Dewan O P Thomas Bolin O S B is a monk at the Monastero di San Benedetto in Norcia Italy Joseph Bolin is adjunct professor of philosophy at the International Theological Institute in Gaming Austria and adjunct instructor of Latin for the Austrian Program of the Franciscan University of Steubenville

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK The present volume contains by far the most extensive English translation from the Scriptum to date The translators of On Love and Charity have aimed to give a translation which is neither too literal nor too liberal trying to find the golden mean between an unintelligibly Latinised or an enjoyable but unfaithful English version This impressive volume will be of a great help for those wishing to study Aquinas and the issue of love in more depth

B Toth Ephemerides Theologicae Lovanienses Works of Love Søren Kierkegaard, 2013-04-21 The various kinds and conditions of love are a common theme for Kierkegaard beginning with his early Either Or through The Diary of the Seducer and Judge William's eulogy on married love to his last work on the changelessness of God's love Works of Love the midpoint in the series is also the monumental high point because of its penetrating illuminating analysis of the forms and sources of love Love as feeling and mood is distinguished from works of love love of the lovable from love of the unlovely preferential love from love as the royal law love as mutual egotism from triangular love and erotic love from self giving love This work is marked by Kierkegaard's Socratic awareness of the reader both as the center of awakened understanding and as the initiator of action Written to be read aloud the book conveys a keenness of thought and an insightful poetic imagination that make such an attentive approach richly rewarding Works of Love not only serves as an excellent place to begin exploring the writings of Kierkegaard but also rewards many rereadings
