Loving The Church Scriptural Meditations For The Papal Household:

Loving the Church Raniero Cantalamessa, 2005 In these reflections on the Letter to the Ephesians Fr Cantalamessa preacher to the papal household asks a critical question How can we read And Christ loved the Church Eph 5 25 without asking the question And I Do I love the Church The twentieth century was a time of theological ferment focusing attention on the nature of the Church But the author wonders Was there a proportionate growth in love for the Church Do we love the Church Do we understand its nature Do we weep over its sins or merely criticize Are we building up or tearing down Fr Cantalamessa explores the Church as building body bride and mother and also examines the family the domestic church in this inspirational meditation on the meaning of Church for each of us The Politics of Conjugal Love Conor Sweeney, Brian T. Trainor, 2019-06-27 Does the New Testament teach that a wife must submit to her husband as head If so does it have a lasting value beyond the cultural milieu in which it was first articulated The Politics of Conjugal Love takes a fresh approach to this classic issue in theological anthropology paying specific attention to the role of theological hermeneutics in its interpretation Conor Sweeney and Brian T Trainor contend that both subordinationist and anti subordinationist readings of headship and submission miss the mark Their alternative is a baptismally specified trinitarian reading in which headship and submission appear as modes intrinsic to both life in Christ and the love proper to the highest mode of trinitarian love
