Loyalty on the Frontier, Or Sketches of Union Men of the South-West A. W. Bishop, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from Loyalty on the Frontier or Sketches of Union Men of the South West With Incidents and Adventures in Rebellion on the Border While on duty at Elkhorn Tavern Arkansas in November 1862 the preparation of the following pages was begun We had no particular object in view certainly no thought of authorship but as facts accumulated they suggested a project and a plan and as our leisure would admit we wrote away At Pea Ridge our conveniences were limited The only bouse at the Post was the old Elkhorn Tavern two apartments and a lean to that served as a kitchen Into this last we retreated whenever we could even for half an hour at a time and taking position at one end of a tabic while our contraband cook kneaded away at the other endeavored to bring our thoughts into line Our sanctum let in the light from above very freely so much so that in rainy weather we were compelled to suspend operations altogether At such a time we would go into the camps or send for particular men gathering thus the experiences that we have attempted to relate Ordered to Prairie Grove a few days after the battle we endeavored to prosecute our plan there and to some extent succeeded Coining finally to Fayetteville we took up our quarters at a private house Having access now to a choice library to which we are indebted for an occasional quotation and to Webster s Unabridged to settle our orthography we continued the sketches The President s proclamation of January 1 1863 declared Arkansas in rebellion About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
