The Pain of Knowledge Yair Auron, 2019-01-22 Violation of the rights of a human being and indifference in the face of suffering jeopardize the very existence of human society The Holocaust is the most extreme example of such violations and the greatest moral failure mankind has experienced Confronting the Holocaust as well as genocide may contribute to understanding the importance of humanistic and democratic values and help construct tools for making moral judgments That is why courses on the study of genocide and the Holocaust have become part of the curricula of educational institutions in the United States and elsewhere This book asks how the moral messages of the Holocaust and genocide can best be transmitted The Pain of Knowledge deals not with historical events but with possible ways of learning about these events and their significance It attempts to examine and deal critically with some of the profound dilemmas at the core of Holocaust and genocide issues in education The underlying purpose of this book is to expose the reader to sometimes antithetical and at other times complementary views concerning the teaching of these subjects both in Israel and elsewhere in the world This book will contribute to the teaching of the Holocaust and genocide and encourage readers to examine these issues from a broad perspective Among the subjects dealt with in The Pain of Knowledge are how societies crystallize their collective memories historical processes and changes in the teaching of the Holocaust in Israel during different periods of time commemoration of Holocaust Martyrs and Heroes Remembrance Day journeys of Israeli youth to sites connected with the Holocaust in Poland attitudes of Israeli adolescents toward the Holocaust attitudes of Israeli Arabs toward the Holocaust general world attitudes toward the Holocaust teaching

Stuckey,2010-04-30 Old Stories Retold explores the ways modern Chinese narratives dramatize and embody the historical sense that links them to the past and to the Chinese literary tradition Largely guided by Walter Benjamin s discussions of history G Andrew Stuckey looks at the ways Chinese narrative engages a historical process that pieces together fragments of the past into new configurations to better serve present needs By examining intertextual connections between separate texts Stuckey seeks to discover traces of an original whether it be thought of as the past history or tradition when it has been rewritten in modern and contemporary Chinese fiction Old Stories Retold shows how the articulation of the past into new historical configurations disrupts accepted understandings of the past and as such can be intentionally pitted against modernist historical knowledge to resist the modernist ends that this knowledge is mobilized to achieve The American
