New Trends in Audiovisual Translation Jorge Díaz Cintas, 2009-04-15 New Trends in Audiovisual Translation is an innovative and interdisciplinary collection of articles written by leading experts in the emerging field of audiovisual translation (AVT). In a highly accessible and engaging way, it introduces readers to some of the main linguistic and cultural challenges that translators encounter when translating films and other audiovisual productions. The chapters in this volume examine translation practices and experiences in various countries, highlighting how AVT plays a crucial role in shaping debates about languages and cultures in a world increasingly dependent on audiovisual media. Through analysing materials which have been dubbed and subtitled like Bridget Jones's Diary, Forrest Gump, The Simpsons or South Park, the authors raise awareness of current issues in the study of AVT and offer new insights on this complex and vibrant area of the translation discipline. Yale French Studies, 1983 Alliances and Treaties with Indigenous Peoples of Québec Camil Girard, Carl Brisson, 2024-05-29T00:00:00-04:00 In the context of the recognition of the Maliseet of Viger First Nation (MVFN) now Wolastoqiyik Wampanapikuk by Canada 1987 and Québec 1989, we propose to examine how and why this nation was forgotten. The story is set in a long-term perspective and in the broader context of the official recognition of Indigenous Peoples in Canada 1982 of Indigenous Nations in Québec 1985 and 2000 and of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples 2007. A Brief History of Women in Quebec Denyse Baillargeon, 2014-09-09 A Brief History of Women in Quebec examines the historical experience of women of different social classes and origins, geographic, ethnic and racial, from the period of contact between Europeans and Aboriginals to the twenty-first century to give a nuanced and complex account of the main transformations in their lives. Themes explored include demography such as marriage, fecundity and immigration, women's work outside and inside the home including motherhood education from elementary school to post secondary and access to the professions the impact of religion and government policies and social and political activism including feminism and struggles to attain equality with men Early chapters deal with New France and the first part of the nineteenth century and the remaining are devoted to the period since 1880 an era in which women s lives changed rapidly and dramatically The book concludes that transformation in the means of production women s social and political activism including feminism and Quebec nationalism are three main keys to understanding the history of Quebec women Together the three show that women s history far from being an adjunct to general history is essential to a full understanding of the past Originally published in French with the title Brève histoire des femmes au Québec Ayer Directory of Publications, 1881 Mason Wade, Acadia and Quebec Mason Wade, 1991 Essays written by the controversial but significant historian Mason Wade provide his last important work on the Maritimes Also included is a biography of Wade an analysis of his enduring importance as an historian and a select bibliography *The IMS ...
