Drag Vistas and Visions Mark Edward, Stephen Farrier, 2025-07-24. This third and final volume in Edward and Farrier's groundbreaking trilogy spotlights the vibrant spectrum of drag as an art form, identity category and political force. Drawing on practice research and interdisciplinary approaches, the volume captures drag's continual capacity to challenge critique and create. Drawing from a range of academic disciplines including critical disability studies, media philosophy, linguistics, the book celebrates the many faces and possibilities of drag as a cultural and performance form. The contributions include chapters that are assertively activist, deeply reflective and thought provoking. This third volume goes in search of new conversations through the exploration of critical drag studies. Unlearning Shame Devon Price, PhD, 2024-02-06. Learn to identify and combat Systemic Shame, the feeling of self-hatred and disempowerment that comes from living in a society that blames individuals for systemic problems with this invaluable resource from the social psychologist and author of Unmasking Autism. Stop doomscrolling and read this book. You'll feel better, I promise. Celeste Headlee, journalist and bestselling author. Systemic Shame is the socially engineered self-loathing that says we are solely to blame for our circumstances. It tells us that poverty is remedied by hard-working people pulling themselves up by their bootstraps, that marginalized people are personally responsible for solving the problem of their own oppression, and that massive global crises like climate change can be solved with individual action Feeling overwhelmed That s your problem too The more we try and ultimately fail to live up to impossible societal standards of moral goodness the more shame we feel and the more we retreat into isolation and despair Social psychologist Dr Devon Price knows firsthand the destructive effects of Systemic Shame he experienced shame and self hatred as he grappled with his transgender identity feeling as if his suffering was caused by his own actions rather than systems like cissexism And it doesn t just end with internal feelings of anguish It causes us to judge other people the same way we fear being judged which blocks us from seeking out the acceptance and support we need and discourages us from trying to improve our communities and our relationships In Unlearning Shame Dr Price explores how we can deal with those hard emotions more effectively tackling the societal shame we ve absorbed and directed at ourselves He introduces the antidote to Systemic Shame expansive recognition an awareness of one s position in the larger social world and the knowledge that our battles are only won when they are shared He provides a suite of exercises and resources designed to combat Systemic Shame on a personal interpersonal and global level through rebuilding trust in yourself in others and in our shared future By offering a roadmap to healing and a toolkit of actionable items Unlearning Shame helps us reject hopelessness and achieve sustainable change and personal growth
