Queer Dutchman:

The Queer Dutchman Castaway on Ascension Jan Svilt, 1978 A Dutch Castaway on Ascension Island in 1725 Alex Ritsema, 2010-09-13 On 5 May 1725 a Dutch ship's officer Leendert Hasenbosch was set ashore on the desert island of Ascension in the South Atlantic Ocean as a punishment for sodomy. He tried to survive on turtles and birds but found very little water on the barren island. He wrote a diary. He probably died after about half a year. In January 1726 British mariners found his tent, diary and other things and brought the diary to England. In 1726 a first English version of the diary of the Dutch castaway was published. Other versions followed in 1728, 1730 and 1976. Who was the castaway? The truth was disclosed by the Dutch historian Michiel Koolbergen in 1953. In 2002, in a posthumously published book in Dutch. With the support of Michiel Koolbergen's family and publisher, this new book discloses the truth in English. This book is the second edition with some improvements compared to the original edition of 2006. This book is illustrated with line drawings, both historic ones and by the Dutch artist Anneke de Vries.

The American Byron John W. M. Hallock, 2000 Hailed in the mid 19th century as the most important American poet of the period, Fitz Greene Halleck was dubbed the American Byron and had a large general readership despite his work's infusion of homosexual themes. This biography portrays him as a prophet of the literary and sexual revolution.

Dutchman's Flat Louis L'Amour, 2004-03-02 TURN HOME RIDER In this land the place you leave behind might not be there when you get back. At least not the way you knew it. Tack Gentry of the G Bar Chat Lock of Dutchman's Flat and Ward McQueen of the Tumbling K knew how it felt to struggle against men who were trying to take from them what they believed in. For the bad, rush in when the good leave and men will choose to fight not just over drunken threats, gambling losses and honor but for land, friendships, family and even love. A struggle magnificently captured in these eleven great stories written and handpicked by the incomparable Louis L'Amour himself.

Bending Over Backwards Lennard J. Davis, 2002-09 This text re-examines issues concerning the relationship between disability and normality in the light of postmodern theory and political activism. It argues that disability can become the new prism through which postmodernity examines and defines itself.

The Burgher and the Whore Lotte van de Pol, 2011-03-31 Amsterdam was after London and Paris the third largest city in early modern Europe and was renowned throughout Europe for its widespread and visible prostitution. Delving deep into a wide range of sources but making particular use of the transcripts of thousands of trials, The Burgher and the Whore reconstructs Amsterdam's whoredom in detail. The colourful and fascinating descriptions of the prostitutes, their bawds, their clients and the police shed new light on the cultural, social and economic conditions of the lives of poor women in a seafaring society. Lotte van de Pol explores how the vice trade was embedded in Amsterdam's society, economy and judicial system and how legislation and policing were shaped by misogynist attitudes.
