Queer Things about Egypt 1911 Douglas Sladen, 2014-03 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1911 Edition Queer Things about Egypt Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen, 1911 The Homoerotics of Orientalism Joseph A. Boone, 2014-03-25 One of the largely untold stories of Orientalism is the degree to which the Middle East has been associated with deviant male homosexuality by scores of Western travelers historians writers and artists for well over four hundred years And this story stands to shatter our preconceptions of Orientalism To illuminate why and how the Islamicate world became the locus for such fantasies and desires Boone deploys a supple mode of analysis that reveals how the cultural exchanges between Middle East and West have always been reciprocal and often mutual amatory as well as bellicose Whether examining European accounts of Istanbul and Egypt as hotbeds of forbidden desire juxtaposing Ottoman homoerotic genres and their European imitators or unlocking the homoerotic encoding in Persian miniatures and Orientalist paintings this remarkable study models an ethics of crosscultural reading that exposes with nuance and economy the crucial role played by the homoerotics of Orientalism in shaping the world as we know it today A contribution to studies in visual culture as well as literary and social history The Homoerotics of Orientalism draws on primary sources ranging from untranslated Middle Eastern manuscripts and European belles lettres to miniature paintings and photographic erotica that are presented here for the first time The Literary Year-book Frederick George Aflalo, Joseph Jacobs, Herbert Arthur Morrah, Henry Gilbert, Basil Stewart, Mark Meredith, 1921 Bulletin of the Library Company of Philadelphia Library Company of Philadelphia, 1903 Emotional Cities Joseph Ben Prestel, 2017 Emotional Cities offers an innovative account of the history of cities in the second half of the nineteenth century Analyzing debates about emotions and urban change it questions the assumed dissimilarity of the history of European and Middle Eastern cities during this period The author shows that between 1860 and 1910 contemporaries in both Berlin and Cairo began to negotiate the transformation of the urban realm in terms of emotions Looking at the ways in which a variety of urban dwellers from psychologists to bar maids framed recent changes in terms of their effect on love honor or disgust the book reveals striking parallels between the histories of the two cities By combining urban history and the history of emotions Prestel proposes a new perspective on the emergence of different yet comparable cities at the end of the nineteenth century Hebrewisms of West Africa Joseph J. Williams, 1999 In this massive work Joseph J Williams documents the Hebraic practices customs and beliefs which he found among the people of Jamaica and the Ashanti of West Africa He initially examines the close relationship between the Jamaican and the Ashanti cultures and the folk beliefs He then studies the language and culture of the Ashanti of whom many Jamaicans have descended by comparing them to well known and established Hebraic traditions William s findings suggest stunning similarities And he challenges the reader by concluding that Hebraic traditions must have swept across negro Africa and left its influence among the various tribes While Williams presents a strong case his evidence including hundreds of quoted sources also builds a strong case for the reverse that an indigenous continent wide belief system among African people stands at the very root of Hebrew culture and Western religion First published in 1931 and long out of print today s reader will find Hebrewisms a valuable resource for understanding the cultural unity of African people Bulletin Trenton Free Public Library (Trenton, N.J.),1909 Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1907-1911 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1914 Street Sounds Ziad Fahmy,2020-08-25 As the twentieth century roared on transformative technologies from trains trams and automobiles to radios and loudspeakers fundamentally changed the sounds of the Egyptian streets The cacophony of everyday life grew louder and the Egyptian press featured editorials calling for the regulation of not only mechanized and amplified sounds but also the voices of street vendors the music of wedding processions and even the traditional funerary wails Ziad Fahmy offers the first historical examination of the changing soundscapes of urban Egypt highlighting the mundane sounds of street life while listening to the voices of ordinary people as they struggle with state authorities for ownership of the streets Interweaving infrastructural cultural and social history Fahmy analyzes the sounds of modernity using sounded sources as an analytical tool for examining the past Street Sounds also reveals a political dimension of noise by demonstrating how the growing middle classes used sound to distinguish themselves from the Egyptian masses This book contextualizes sound layering historical analysis with a sensory dimension bringing us closer to the Egyptian streets as lived and embodied by everyday people Writes of Passage James Duncan,Derek Gregory,2002-01-31 Writes of Passage explores the interplay between a system of othering which travelers bring to a place and the real geographical difference they discover upon arrival Exposing the tensions between the imaginary and real Duncan and Gregory and a team of leading international contributors focus primarily upon travelers from the 18th and 19th Centuries to pin down the imaginary within the context of imperial power The contributors focus on travel to three main regions Africa South Asia and Europe wit the European examples being drawn from Britain France and Greece Tea on the terrace Kathleen L. Sheppard,2022-08-09 Tea on the terrace takes the reader on a journey up and down the Nile with famous archaeologists and Egyptologists Spending time with these fascinating men and women at their hotels and on their boats the book reveals that a great deal of archaeological work took place away from field sites and museums Arriving in Alexandria travellers such as Americans Theodore Davis Emma Andrews and James Breasted and Britons Wallis Budge Maggie Benson and Howard Carter moved on to Cairo before heading south for Luxor the site of the Ancient Egyptian city of Thebes The book follows them on their journey listening in on their conversations and observing their activities Applying insights from social studies of science it reveals that hotels in particular were crucial spaces for establishing careers building and strengthening scientific networks and generating and experimenting with new ideas Combining archaeological tourism with the history of Egyptology and drawing on a wide array of archival materials Tea on the terrace takes the reader behind the scenes of familiar stories showing Egyptologists activities in a whole new light Sale Catalogues American Art
