Queering the Field Gregory F. Barz, William Cheng, 2020 Drawing on ethnographic research and often deeply personal experiences with musical cultures Queering the Field Sounding out Ethnomusicology unpacks a history of sentiment that veils the treatment of queer music and identity within the field of ethnomusicology. The thematic structure of the volume reflects a deliberate cartography of queer spaces in the discipline spaces that are strongly present due to their absence are marked by direct sonic parameters or are called into question by virtue of their otherness. As the first large scale study of ethnomusicology's queer silences and queer identity politics Queering the Field directly addresses the normativities currently at play in musical ethnography fieldwork analysis performance transcription as well as in the practice of musical ethnographers identification participation disclosure observation authority. While rooted in strong narrative convictions the authors frequently adopt radicalized voices with the goal of queering a hierarchical sexual binary. The essays in the volume present rhetorical and syntactical scenarios that challenge us to read in prescient singular ways for future queer writing and queer thought in ethnomusicology.

Queer Episodes in Music and Modern Identity Sophie Fuller, Lloyd Whitesell, 2002 Through the hidden or lost Stories of composers scholars patrons performers audiences repertoire venues and specific works this volume explores points of intersection between music and queerness in Europe and the United States from 1870 to 1950 a period during which dramatic changes in musical expression and in the expression of individual sexual identity played similar roles in washing
