Grammatical Gender in Interaction Angeliki Alvanoudi, 2014-11-06 In Grammatical Gender in Interaction Cultural and Cognitive Aspects Angeliki Alvanoudi explores the relation between grammatical gender in person reference culture and cognition in Modern Greek conversation The author investigates the cultural and cognitive aspects of grammatical gender by drawing on feminist sociolinguistic and non linguistic approaches cognitive linguistics research on linguistic relativity studies on person reference in interaction and conversation analysis The study presented in this book shows that the use of grammatical gender contributes to the routine achievement of sociocultural gender in interaction and that grammatical gender guides speakers thinking of referents as female or male at the time of speaking

Transgender Identities in the Press Angela Zottola, 2021-01-28 Winner of the PROSE Award 2022 for Language Linguistics For many people newspapers are a key source of information on many topics including issues related to gender and sexuality Applying a broad range of corpus linguistic methods Transgender Identities in the Press critically explores the linguistic cues and patterns used by the print media in their representation of trans people Through close analysis of a corpus of articles collected from English language newspapers from the UK and Canada Angela Zottola focuses on the semantic categories of representation associated with transgender identities Exploring a set of key terms this book examines the semantic prosody and the language choices that each term is invested with using Critical Discourse Analysis to investigate how the way the press represents this topic influences readers and their understanding of the major debates Using a mixture of quantitative and qualitative methods Transgender Identities in the Press casts light on the complex picture of press language during a period of social change and increasing awareness Highlighting both efforts to represent this community in an inclusive and non discriminatory way and areas where there is need for improvement this book illustrates a variety of issues from a critical and social perspective Falling into the Lesbi World Evelyn

Blackwood,2010-09-13 Falling into the Lesbi World offers a compelling view of sexual and gender difference through the everyday lives of tombois and their girlfriends femmes in the city of Padang West Sumatra While likening themselves to heterosexual couples tombois and femmes contest and blur dominant constructions of gender and heterosexuality Tombois are masculine females who identify as men and desire women their girlfriends view themselves as normal women who desire men Through rich in depth and provocative stories author Evelyn Blackwood shows how these same sex Indonesian couples negotiate transgressive identities and desires and how their experiences speak to the struggles and desires of sexual and gender minorities everywhere Blackwood analyzes the complex and seemingly contradictory practices of tombois and their partners demonstrating how they make sense of Islamic transnational and modern state discourses in ways that seem to align with normative gender and sexual categories while at the same time subverting them The childhood and adolescent narratives of tombois and femmes offer bold new insights into a social process that is rarely addressed in anthropological lesbian gay or transgender studies We see how tombois and femmes come to view themselves as boys and girls respectively through their interactions with family and community and how as teenagers tombois learn that masculinity needs its opposite feminine women By contrast femmes notice shifts in their desires as they develop long term relationships with tombois The book reveals the complexity of tomboi masculinity showing how tombois enact both masculine and feminine behaviors as they move between the anonymity and vulnerability of public spaces and the familiarity of family spaces Falling into the Lesbi World demonstrates how nationally and globally circulating queer discourses are received and reinterpreted by tombois and femmes in a city in Indonesia Though less educated than many internet savvy activists in major urban centers their identities are clearly both part of yet different than global gay models of sexuality In contrast to the international LGBT model of modern sexualities this work reveals a multiplicity of sexual and gender subjectivities in Indonesia arguing for the importance of recognizing and validating this diversity in the global gay ecumene AsiaPacifiQueer Fran Martin,Peter Jackson,Mark McLelland,Audrey Yue,2010-10-01 This interdisciplinary collection examines the shaping of local sexual cultures in the Asian Pacific region in order to move beyond definitions and understandings of sexuality that rely on Western assumptions The diverse studies in AsiaPacifiQueer demonstrate convincingly that in the realm of sexualities globalization results in creative and cultural admixture rather than a unilateral imposition of the western values and forms of sexual culture These essays range across the Pacific Rim and encompass a variety of forms of social cultural and personal expression examining sexuality through music cinema the media shifts in popular rhetoric comics and magazines and historical studies By investigating complex processes of localization interregional borrowing and hybridization the contributors underscore the mutual transformation of gender and sexuality in both Asian Pacific and Western cultures Contributors are Ronald Baytan J Neil C Garcia Kam Yip Lo Lucetta Song Hwee Lim J Darren Mackintosh Claire Maree Jin Hyung Park Teri Silvio Megan Sinnott Yik Koon Teh Carmen Ka Man Tong James Welker Heather Worth and Audrey Yue
