Michael Saren,2013-05-13 Rejecting the managerially driven structures normally imposed on the subject Saren explains marketing from the perspective of the pivotal figure in the process the consumer He addresses readers as active consumers and producers of marketing and therefore already well equipped to appreciate the rationale and practice behind the process Critically examining the wide range of products businesses technologies information services ads packaging and branding Saren utilizes everyday images and phenomena to draw out the conceptual foundations of marketing in its social and cultural context that we all experience By taking this alternative approach linking the abstract concepts to the everyday world the reader already knows Marketing Graffiti explains marketing as consumers experience it as active participants in it reflecting the variety in the bricollage subject that is marketing Public Relations Jacquie L'Etang,Magda Pieczka,2006

This important volume will stimulate debate about the boundaries definitions functions and effects of public relations The editors are Lecturers in Public Relations at the Stirling Media Research Institute University of Stirling Scotland Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 The British National Bibliography

Arthur James Wells,2006 The Communicating Company Hartmut Hübner,2007-03-21 Most research on corporate communication has concentrated on positivist approaches leading to a limited view This book reviews extant corporate communication theory from discourse and strategy as practice perspectives expanding the picture by more communicational aspects It proposes an integrative framework of alternative corporate communication as a key contribution to corporate communication theory Exploring Professional Communication Stephanie Schnurr,2013 This book will provide a comprehensive overview of the field of professional communication from an applied linguistics perspective and introduce core concepts and approaches to this key field of academic enquiry Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1996-06

The Oxford Handbook of Organizational Identity Michael G. Pratt,Majken Schultz,Blake E. Ashforth,Davide Ravasi,2016 The topic of organizational identity has been fast growing in management and organization studies in the last 20 years Identity studies focus on how organizations define themselves and what they stand for in relation to both internal and external stakeholders Organizational identity OI scholars study both how such self definitions emerge and develop as well as their implications for OI leadership and change among others We believe there are at least four inter related reasons for the growing importance of OI OI addresses essential questions of social existence by asking Who are we and who are we becoming as a collective It is a relational construct connecting concepts and ideas that are often viewed as oppositional such as us and them or similar and differen OI is also nexus concept serving to gather multiple central constructs also represented in this Handbook Finally OI is inherently useful as knowing who you are is the foundation for being able to state what you stand for and what you are promising to others no matter their relation with the organization The Handbook provides a road map to the OI field organized in over 25 chapters across seven sections Each chapter not only offers a broad overview of its particular topic each also advances new knowledge and discusses the future of research in its area of focus

The Impact of Agroforestry-based Soil Fertility Replenishment Practices on the Poor in Western Kenya Place, Frank,Adato, Michelle,Hebinck, Paul,Omosa, Mary,2005 It is widely accepted that food production benefits from agricultural research but whether that research benefits the poor is less certain In 2000 the World Agroforestry Centre and the International Food Policy Research Institute began examining the impact of soil fertility replenishment technologies on the poor in western Kenya This report is one of seven case studies that comprise a broader IFPRI managed study designed to determine how agricultural research is benefiting poor people The goal of this broader study is to identify the conditions under which agricultural research reduces poverty and to improve the targeting of research to the changing needs of the poor The study develops methods for evaluating the impact of agricultural research on poverty in the context of different agricultural technologies and within different country social and institutional settings It also establishes a foundation that allows agricultural research centers to assess the impact of their work identify research priorities and guide technological design to increase future impact on poverty Youth, Identity, and Digital Media

David Buckingham,2007-11-30 Contributors discuss how growing up in a world saturated with digital media affects the development of young people s individual and social identities As young people today grow up in a world saturated with digital media how does it affect their sense of self and others As they define and redefine their identities through engagements with technology what are the implications for their experiences as learners citizens consumers and family and community members This addresses the consequences of digital media use for young people s individual and social identities The contributors explore how young people use digital media to share ideas and creativity and to participate in networks that are small and large local and global intimate and anonymous They look at the emergence of new genres and forms from SMS and instant messaging to home pages blogs and social networking sites They discuss such topics as girl power online the generational digital divide young people and mobile communication and the appeal of the digital publics of MySpace considering whether these media offer young people genuinely new forms of engagement interaction and communication Contributors Angela Booker danah boyd Kirsten Drotner Shelley Goldman Susan C Herring Meghan McDermott Claudia Mitchell Gitte Stald Susannah Stern Sandra Weber Rebekah Willett Colonialism in Question Frederick

Cooper,2005-06-06 In this closely integrated collection of essays on colonialism in world history Frederick Cooper raises crucial questions about concepts relevant to a wide range of issues in the social sciences and humanities including identity globalization and modernity Rather than portray the past two centuries as the inevitable movement from empire to nation state Cooper places nationalism within a much wider range of imperial and diasporic imaginations of rulers and ruled alike well into the twentieth century He addresses both the insights and the blind spots of colonial studies in an effort to get beyond the tendency in the field to focus on a generic colonialism located sometime between 1492 and the 1960s and somewhere in the West Broad ranging cogently argued and with a historical focus that moves from Africa to South Asia to Europe these essays most published here for the first time propose a fuller engagement in the give and take of history not least in the ways in which concepts usually attributed to Western universalism including citizenship and equality were defined and reconfigured by political mobilizations in colonial contexts Identity of Cities and City of Identities Ali

Cheshmehzangi,2020-04-21 This book explores the hybridity of urban identities in multiple dimensions and at multiple scales how they form as catalysts and mechanisms for urban transitions and how they develop as city branding strategies and urban regeneration methods Due to rapid globalisation the notion of identity has become scarcer more fragile and inarguably more important Given the significance of place and displacement for contemporary everyday life and the continuous advancement of technologies identifying relations and values that define humans and their environments in various ways has become crucial Divided into seven chapters this book provides extensive coverage of urban identity an often overlooked topic in the fields of urbanism urban geography and urban design It approaches the topic from a novel dual perspective by exploring cities with tangible commonalities and shared strategies for refining their identities and by highlighting cities and urban environments characterised by multiple identities Based on a decade of research in this field the book provides a multi disciplinary perspective on urban identity In addition to comprehensive information for students it offers a key reference guide for urbanists urban designers and geographers architectural and urban practitioners decision makers and governing bodies involved in urban development strategies

The Age of Identity Dennis Shirley, Andy Hargreaves, 2023-10-30 There is more to all of us than what meets the eye A perfect storm is upon us and educators are in the middle of it Identity issues often incite and divide us but they are actually our way out of the storm No one should be oppressed or have to hide who they are and young people need to be prepared for a future where they can learn to live together and help others belong In their beautifully written book Dennis Shirley and Andy Hargreaves brilliantly show how we can and must engage with young people's identities in their fullness and complexity Rooted in classical and contemporary theories of identity extensive research and in sheer common sense their book takes us from bitterness to belonging and includes Examples of how schools seek to address identity and belonging Strategies to deal with the raging identity controversies in our schools and societies Charts and graphics to help build inclusive professional communities Constant invitations to readers to apply ideas to their own work
