Quest For Understanding Arabic And Islamic Studies In Memory Of Malcolm H Kerr:

Quest for Understanding Samir Seikaly, Ramzī Ba'labakkī, Peter Dodd, 1991 This is an exploration of the Muslim past and the Arab present It was written in memory of Malcolm Kerr who was shot allegedly by the Islamic Jihad in Beirut in 1984 Kerr was a highly respected scholar of Middle East studies Quest for Understanding Malcolm H. Kerr, 1991 This is an exploration of the Muslim past and the Arab present It was written in memory of Malcolm Kerr who was shot allegedly by the Islamic Jihad in Beirut in 1984 Kerr was a highly respected scholar of Middle East studies Islamic Art and Archaeology in Palestine Myriam Rosen-Ayalon, 2016-09-16 Despite political upheavals under Muslim domination in the Middle Ages Palestine was a center of great artistic activity recognized for its incredible dynamism Its unique contribution to the Islamic macrocosm however never became the subject of extensive study Numerous archeological excavations on this relatively small geographic area reveal the existence of extremely well preserved monuments of high architectural quality and exceptional religious value This is what Myriam Rosen Ayalon exposes in this thorough introduction to Palestinian Islamic art and archeology In chronological order she presents here for the first time the multifaceted and long lasting achievements of Islamic art in Palestine filling the gap of years of neglect on the subject Religion and State L. Carl. Brown, 2001-08-20 If Westerners know a single Islamic term it is likely to be jihad the Arabic word for holy war The image of Islam as an inherently aggressive and xenophobic religion has long prevailed in the West and can at times appear to be substantiated by current events L Carl Brown challenges this conventional wisdom with a fascinating historical overview of the relationship between religious and political life in the Muslim world ranging from Islam's early centuries to the present day Religion and State examines the commonplace notion held by both radical Muslim ideologues and various Western observers alike that in Islam there is no separation between religion and politics By placing this assertion in a broad historical context the book reveals both the continuities between premodern and modern Islamic political thought as well as the distinctive dimensions of modern Muslim experiences Brown shows that both the modern day fundamentalists and their critics have it wrong when they posit an eternally militant unchanging Islam outside of history They are conflating theology and history They are confusing the oughtand the is he writes As the historical record shows mainstream Muslim political thought in premodern times tended toward political guietism Brown maintains that we can better understand present day politics among Muslims by accepting the reality of their historical diversity while at the same time seeking to identify what may be distinctive in Muslim thought and action In order to illuminate the distinguishing characteristics of Islam in relation to politics Brown compares this religion with its two Semitic sisters Judaism and Christianity drawing striking comparisons between Islam today and Christianity during the Reformation With a wealth of evidence he recreates a tradition of Islamic diversity every bit as rich as that of Judaism and Christianity Nasser at War L. James, 2006-10-02 From his 1956 Suez triumph to the 1967 defeat President Nasser of Egypt dominated the Arab revolution Drawing on new Arabic material this history casts a fresh light on Nasser's era and legacy of conflict and provides an essential background to developments in the contemporary Arab Arabic Theology, Arabic Philosophy Richard M. Frank, 2006 In the course of his career Professor Richard M Frank world of the Catholic University of America produced a hugely significant corpus of works on the intellectual activity in Classical Islam known as Kalam which he argued should be rendered as speculative theology He also wrote on the Qur an on the Arabic and Syriac philosophical tradition and argued vigorously for a new reading of the famous religious scholar and theologian al Ghazali d 1111 as a devotee of the cosmology of Ibn Sina d 1037 In this volume fourteen scholars many of them contemporaries of Professor Frank engage with his legacy with important and seminal works which take some of his ideas as their points of departure The book is divided into six sections the Qur an Paths to al Ash ari Al Ash ari and the Kalam Christian Falsafa Avicenna and Beyond and Al Ghazali on Causality There are major articles on Qur anic emendations and Arabia and Late Antiquity on the Arabic Plotinian Tradition on Syriac Philosophical Vocabulary and an important reading of the Greek Arabic translation movement in terms of the practical and exact sciences There are seminal studies of atomism with valuable translations of complex theological passages previously untranslated of the Christian philosophy of Yahya ibn Adi of a late Mu tazili argument for the existence of God and a hitherto unedited section on optics by Ibn Mattawayh These are complemented by important close readings of Avicenna's epistemology and his Metaphysics together with a major new survey of the Avicennan tradition in the madrasas of the Islamic East The volume ends with two discussions of the perennial question of al Ghazali s theory of causality In addition the volume contains an autobiographical piece by Professor Frank and a complete bibliography of his published works In Synchrony with the Heavens, Volume 1 Call of the Muezzin David King, 2004-02-01 This is the first investigation of one of the main interests of astronomy in Islamic civilization namely timekeeping by the sun and stars and the regulation of the astronomically defined times of Muslim prayer The study is based on over 500 medieval astronomical manuscripts first identified by the author now preserved in libraries all over the world and originally from the entire Islamic world from the Maghrib to Central Asia and the Yemen The materials presented provide new insights into the early development of the prayer ritual in Islam They also call into question the popular notion that religion could not inspire serious scientific activity Only one of the hundreds of astronomical tables discussed here was known in medieval Europe which is one reason why the entire corpus has remained unknown until the present A second volume also to be published by Brill deals with astronomical instruments for timekeeping and other computing devices

Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr.,2023-07-25 Egypt is the world's oldest continuous country with a recorded past of over 6 000 years Often invaded conquered and occupied by foreign armies Egypt has never lost its identity. The Egyptians of today although they have changed their language once and their religion twice descend mainly from the Egyptians who built the Giza Pyramids and the Temple of Karnak who served Alexander the Great and his heirs who submitted to Augustus Caesar and raised much of the grain that fed the Roman Empire who started Christian monasticism and the veneration of the Virgin Mary and who advanced and sustained Muslim learning in what is now the world's oldest functioning university. It was and is one of the most important countries in the world Historical Dictionary of Egypt Fifth Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Egypt illustrates how the Byzantine Islamic transition was a much slower and gradual process than previously thought and that it involved regional variability different types of populations and diverse settlement patterns Based on the results of hundreds of excavations including Avni s own surveys and excavations in the Negev Beth Guvrin Jerusalem and Ramla the volume reconstructs patterns of continuity and change in settlements during this turbulent period evaluating the process of change in a dynamic multicultural society and showing that the coming of Islam had no direct effect on settlement patterns and material culture of the local population The change in settlement stemming from internal processes rather than from external political powers culminated gradually during the Early Islamic period However the process of Islamization was slow and by the eve of the Crusader period Christianity still had an overwhelming majority in Palestine and Jordan Egyptian Pottery Volume 4 Anna Wodzinska, 2009-12-31 This is the fourth volume in a four book set covering all Egyptian pottery ranging from the earliest Fayum A ceramics to pottery made in Egypt today organized by historical periods The manuals are quick identification guides as well as starting points for more extensive research For each period ceramic types are illustrated with a line drawing accompanied by a description that includes information on the pot s material manufacturing techniques surface treatment and shape Color plates of representative ceramic types are included to give the clearest sense of the color composition and surface treatment All four volumes provide an extensive list of suggested readings as well as a bibliography for each period Introductory chapters in each book discuss the basics of pottery manufacture and analysis Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East A Bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results The first volume published in 1992 covered publications which appeared between 1965 and 1987 The second volume brings the bibliography further up to date listing publications between 1988 and 1992 and adds some 260 titles which were published up through 1987 As in the first volume Islamic Astronomy and Geography David A. King, 2022-02-13 This volume of 12 the majority of the titles are annotated studies mainly published during the past 15 years begins with an overview of the Islamic astronomy covering not only sophisticated mathematical astronomy and instrumentation but also simple folk astronomy and the ways in which astronomy was used in the service of religion It continues with discussions of the importance of Islamic instruments and scientific manuscript illustrations Three studies deal with the regional schools that developed in Islamic astronomy in this case Egypt and the Maghrib Another focuses on a curious astrological table for calculating the length of life of any individual The notion of the world centred on the sacred Kaaba in Mecca inspired both astronomers and proponents of folk astronomy to propose methods for finding the gibla or sacred direction towards the Kaaba their activities are surveyed here The interaction between the mathematical and folk traditions in astronomy is then illustrated by an 11th century text on the gibla in

Transoxania The last three studies deal with an account of the geodetic measurements sponsored by the Caliph al Ma m n in the 9th century a world map in the tradition of the 11th century polymath al B r n alas corrupted by careless copying and a table of geographical coordinates from 15th century Egypt The Origins of the Lebanese National Idea Carol Hakim, 2013-01-19 In this fascinating study Carol Hakim presents a new and original narrative on the origins of the Lebanese national idea Hakim's study reconsiders conventional accounts that locate the origins of Lebanese nationalism in a distant legendary past and then trace its evolution in a linear and gradual manner She argues that while some of the ideas and historical myths at the core of Lebanese nationalism appeared by the mid nineteenth century a coherent popular nationalist ideology and movement emerged only with the establishment of the Lebanese state in 1920 Hakim reconstructs the complex process that led to the appearance of fluid national ideals among members of the clerical and secular Lebanese elite and follows the fluctuations and variations of these ideals up until the establishment of a Lebanese state The book is an essential read for anyone interested in the evolution of nationalism in the Middle East and beyond One Family's Response to Terrorism Susan Kerr van de Ven, 2010-03-19 On January 18 1984 Malcolm Kerr president of the American University of Beirut and a respected scholar of Middle East politics was shot in the back of the head as he stepped out of an elevator on his way to work At the time the chaos of Lebanon's civil war made it impossible to investigate who had carried out the killing and why Seventeen years later armed with new information concerning the assassination and supported by the Anti Terrorism Act passed by Congress in 1996 his family came to a painful consensus that nonviolent justice through the rule of law was a duty they could not ignore Disturbing revelations emerged as the author explored U S government intelligence U S district court records Malcolm Kerr's unpublished papers and the recollections of journalists diplomats academics and former Hizballah hostages who lived through the violence of 1980s Lebanon The family s team of lawyers built a clear case against the Islamic Republic of Iran culminating in a trial before a judge of the U S District Court One Family's Response to Terrorism A Daughter's Memoir is a stunning portrait of the intimate way in which violence pulls lives apart of an American family caught on the stage of Middle East politics and of the moral choices required in seeking justice Roman Berytus Linda Jones Hall, 2004 A comprehensive history of Roman Berytus from its founding as a Roman military colony in the reign of Augustus to its development as one of only three centers for the styudy of law in the rule of Justinian Patronate And Patronage in Early And Classical Islam Monique Bernards, John Abdallah Nawas, 2005 This book deals with patronate and patronage wal of early and classical Islam Though Webster's Third has the term mawla the concept remains very difficult to come to grips with Fourteen contributions by renowned scholars analyze the social and cultural phenomenon of wal from various angles As a whole the book conveys what we presently know about patronate and patronage during the first four centuries of Islam Inasmuch as the contributors have used different methods from a close rereading of primary sources to the application of social theory and quantitative analysis the book additionally offers an overview of methodologies current in the

Petersen, 2013-11-01 For over sixty years the state of Israel has proved adept at practising clandestine diplomacy about which little is known as one might expect These hitherto undisclosed episodes in Israel's diplomatic history are revealed for the first time by the contributors to this volume who explore how relations based upon patronage and personal friendships as well as ties born from kinship and realpolitik both informed the creation of the state and later defined Israel's relations with a host of actors both state and non state The authors focus on the extent to which Israel s clandestine diplomacies have indeed been regarded as purely functional and sub ordinate to a realist guest for security amid the perceived hostility of a predominantly Muslim Arab world or have in fact proved to be manifestations of a wider acceptance political social and cultural of a Jewish sovereign state as an intrinsic part of the Middle East They also discuss whether clandestine diplomacy has been more effective in securing Israeli objectives than reliance upon more formal diplomatic ties constrained by inter national legal obligations and how this often complex and at times contradictory matrix of clandestine relationships continues to influence perceptions of Israel's foreign policy
