Questions of Identity in Detective Fiction Anita Higgie,Linda Martz,2009-03-26 With essays by an international group of scholars Questions of Identity in Detective Fiction delves into the ways in which this genre given its status as popular yet marginalized literature allows for the exploration of a wide range of meanings Contributors examine how the genre both mirrors and focuses the personal sexual ethnic spiritual how it interfaces with national literatures and histories and how the generic identity of detective fiction has evolved over time Chapters include discussions of novels and short stories from American Argentine British Canadian French German and Japanese national literatures ranging from the mid 19th century to the early 21st century

The Marriage Question Clare Carlisle,2023-08-15 Named one of the ten Best Reviewed Nonfiction Books of 2023 by Literary Hub A startling new portrait of George Eliot the beloved novelist and a rare philosophical mind who explored the complexities of marriage In her mid thirties Marian Evans transformed herself into George Eliot an author celebrated for her genius as soon as she published her debut novel During those years she also found her life partner George Lewes writer philosopher and married father of three After eloping to Berlin in 1854 they lived together for twenty four years Eliot asked people to call her Mrs Lewes and dedicated each novel to her Husband Though they could not legally marry she felt herself initiated into the great experience of marriage this double life which helps me to feel and think with double strength The relationship scandalized her contemporaries yet she grew immeasurably within it Living at once inside and outside marriage Eliot could experience this form of life so familiar yet also so perplexing from both sides In The Marriage Question Clare Carlisle reveals Eliot to be not only a great artist but also a brilliant philosopher who probes the tensions and complexities of a shared life Through the immense ambition and dark marriage plots of her novels we see Eliot wrestling in art and in life with themes of desire and sacrifice motherhood and creativity trust and disillusion destiny and chance Carlisle s searching new biography explores how marriage questions grow and change and joins Eliot in her struggle to marry thought and feeling Includes black and white images

Fact in Fiction Joan Rockwell,2023-07-14 First published in 1974 Fact in Fiction states that literature does not reflect or arise from society but is as much a functioning part of it as any social structure institution or set of norms The author shows that however fantastic the content of fiction it is a representation of social fact not the mere random issue of private fantasy Because of this there is a regular and discernible pattern in which literature is related to other strands in the social web which makes it possible to read back from fiction to other social fact An explanation is put forward for the normative power of fiction from its origins in the apparent human necessity to communicate abstract concepts in terms of narrative accounts of human action This book will be of interest to students of literature sociology and history Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L. Pylodet, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Karl Brown, Helen E. The Philosophy of Fear Ami Harbin, 2025-09-04 Philosophers reflect on the significance of fear both in the history of Eastern and Western Philosophy and at the intersections of contemporary philosophy and other disciplines The collection edited by Ami Harbin is divided into two parts Part I begins with reflections on the centrality of fear in Confucian ethical political thought and in the ancient Greek philosophy of Aristotle before turning to the reflections on fear in medieval and twentieth century philosophy

Part II presents contemporary philosophical work that expands the variety of approaches to fear building connections with work in cognitive science neuroscience psychiatry developmental psychology and U S history Fear as an emotion though always present in the history of philosophy and one of the key points of contact between philosophy and other empirically informed disciplines has received surprisingly little concerted attention within philosophy This is the first collection from contemporary philosophers with the express goal of reflecting on fear in the history of philosophy and collecting perspectives on fear from philosophers engaged in interdisciplinary research

Somebody's Darling: A Novel Larry

McMurtry, 2018-10-02 The personal and professional struggles of McMurtry's lively protagonist Jill Peel a director in 1970s Hollywood takes on new resonance in the twenty first century Forty years ago Larry McMurtry journeyed from the sprawling ranches of his early work to the provocative Sunset Strip creating a Hollywood fable that is both immediate and relevant in today's dynamic cultural climate One would never guess that Jill Peel is still on the verge of stardom Jill won an Oscar shortly after her fresh faced arrival in 1950s Hollywood then for the next twenty years battled away every Tinseltown producer who tried to hire her and get her into bed Now middle aged she's determined to create more movie magic by directing a cast of raunchy eccentrics including Joe Percy an aging womanizing screenwriter and ex football player Owen Oarson eager to sleep his way to leading man stardom Teeming with biting humor and intriguing characters that mirror the scandals of modern day Hollywood Somebody's Darling is a timeless story about a fiercely capable woman who dares to challenge the realities of a deceptively seductive Babel
