Question Of Europe:

European Integration and the Nationalities Question John McGarry, Michael Keating, 2006-09-27 A highly topical examination of the effect of European integration on relations between states and minority nations This new collection brings together the leading specialists in the field and covers a wide range of cases from Northern Ireland in the West to Estonia and Latvia in the East and Cyprus in the South East The contributors assess how European integration has affected the preparedness of states to accommodate minorities across a range of fundamental criteria including enhanced rights protection autonomy the provision of a voice for minorities in the European and international arena and the promotion of cross border cooperation among communities dissected by state frontiers The comprehensive chapters stress the importance of the nationality question and the fact that contrary to the hopes and beliefs of many on the left and right it is not going to go away Beginning with an introductory essay that summarizes the impact of European integration on the nationalities question this accessible book will be of strong interest to scholars and researchers of politics nationalism ethnic conflict and European studies

The Arab and Jewish Questions Bashir Bashir, Leila Farsakh, 2020-12-15 Nineteenth century Europe turned the political status of its Jewish communities into the Jewish Question as both Christianity and rising forms of nationalism viewed Jews as the ultimate other With the onset of Zionism this question migrated to Palestine and intensified under British colonial rule and in the aftermath of the Holocaust Zionism's attempt to solve the Jewish Question created what came to be known as the Arab Question which concerned the presence and rights of the Arab population in Palestine For the most part however Jewish settlers denied or dismissed the question they created to the detriment of both Arabs and Jews in Palestine and elsewhere This book brings together leading scholars to consider how these two questions are entangled historically and in the present day It offers critical analyses of Arab engagements with the question of Jewish rights alongside Zionist and non Zionist Jewish considerations of Palestinian identity and political rights Together the essays show that the Arab and Jewish questions and the Israeli Palestinian conflict in which they have become subsumed belong to the same thorny history Despite their major differences the historical Jewish and Arab questions are about the political rights of oppressed groups and their inclusion within exclusionary political communities a question that continues to foment tensions in the Middle East Europe and the United States Shedding new light on the intricate relationships among Orientalism anti-Semitism Islamophobia colonialism and the impasse in the Israeli Palestinian conflict this book reveals the inseparability of Arab and Jewish struggles for self determination and political equality Contributors include Gil Anidjar Brian Klug Amal Ghazal Ella Shohat Hakem Al Rustom Hillel Cohen Yuval Evri Derek Penslar Jacqueline Rose Moshe Behar Maram Masarwi and the editors Bashir Bashir and Leila Farsakh

Europe and the Other and Europe as the Other Bo Stråth, 2010 This book contributes to the debate on what Europe means by demonstrating the complexities and contradictions inherent in the concept They are seen most clearly when Europe is viewed from a long historical perspective During the closing decades of the twentieth century Europe emerged as one of the main points of reference in both the cultural and the political constructs of the global community An obsession with the concept of European identity is readily discernible This process of identity construction provokes critical questions which the book aims to address At the same time the book explores the opportunities offered by the concept of Europe to see how it may be used in the construction of the future The approach is one of both deconstruction and reconstruction The issue of Europe is closely related in the book to more general issues concerning the cultural construction of community The book should therefore be seen as the companion of Myth and Memory in the Construction of Community which is also published by PIE Peter Lang in the series Multiple Europes The book appears within the framework of a research project on the cultural construction of community in modernisation processes in comparison This project is a joint enterprise of the European University Institute in Florence and the Humboldt University in Berlin sponsored by the Bank of Sweden Tercentenary Fund

Rebuilding European Democracy Richard Youngs, 2021-09-09 In recent years serious concerns emerged over the state of European democracy Many democracy indices are reporting a year on year drift towards less liberal politics in the countries of the European Union Polls regularly suggest that the voters are coming to question democratic norms more seriously than for many decades Here Richard Youngs assesses these risks as many analysts journalists and politicians stressed the danger of Europe descending into an era of conflict driven by xenophobic nationalism and nativist authoritarians slowly dismantling liberal democratic rights In 2020 the Covid 19 pandemic has intensified these fears There is another side of the democratic equation however Youngs argues that governments EU institutions political parties citizens and civil society organisations have gradually begun to push back in defence of democracy With each chapter Youngs shows how many governmental political and social actors have developed responses to Europe s democratic malaise at multiple levels Europe s democracy problems have been grave and far reaching Yet a spirit of democratic resistance has slowly taken shape This book argues that the pro democratic fightback may be belated but it is real and has assumed significant traction with various types of democratic reform underway including citizen initiatives political party changes digital activism and EU level responses Commerce ,1920

Natalia Chaban, Martin Holland, 2008-05-22 A central problem for the European Union is said to be that of the politics of identity. Within this the concept of the EU's international identity requires exploration in terms of how it is both constructed and represented globally. To address this issue this book identifies measures and compares public awareness and perceptions of the EU within the Asia Pacific region. It deals with the under researched issue of the public perception of the EU outside the Union and the role of the media in shaping such perceptions. It builds on what has been described as the EU's communication deficit a phenomenon which has typically been explored as an internal EU dynamic but has yet to be applied to the EU's external relations. The volume presents findings from a systematic research project designed to measure the EU's external communication deficit and to raise the level of its awareness in other regions through three perception levels. The study of EU images in news mass media production. A survey of general public perceptions and attitudes on the EU. A survey of the elite perceptions of the EU. Drawing on research from New Zealand Australia South Korea and Thailand this book will be of interest to students and researchers of politics communication studies European studies and Asian studies. What is Europe? Anna Triandafyllidou, Ruby Gropas, 2015-11-02 Europe is imbued with a multitude of social cultural economic and political meanings. The authors of this comprehensive text present an authoritative yet accessible introduction to understanding Europe today moving beyond accounts of European integration to provide a holistic and nuanced study of contemporary Europe and its historical development. This book explores evolving definitions of Europe from antiquity to the Cold War right through to Europe in the midst of the Eurozone and global financial crises. By examining the different roles and meanings that Europe has held inside and outside of the continent including the European Union's branding of Europe the text grounds its analysis in an understanding of Europe's plural. Chapters explore concepts of Europe as civilization Europe as progress Europe as unity and Europe as diversity. How do Europeans think of themselves and their respective national identities in a multicultural and multi ethnic age? How has modernity and the pre and post industrial values of Europe affected the Europe of now and what are the political legacies of Europe? To what extent are notions of social solidarity shared across the continent? This is the first text to systematically answer these questions and others in order to better determine what is Europe.
