When the World Laughs William V. Costanzo, 2020 When the World Laughs is a book about the intersection of humor history and culture It explores how film comedy one of the world s most popular movie genres reflects the values and beliefs of those who enjoy its many forms its most enduring characters and stories its most entertaining routines and funniest jokes What people laugh at in Europe Africa or the Far East reveals important truths about their differences and common bonds By investigating their traditions of humor by paying close attention to what kinds of comedy cross national boundaries or what gets lost in translation this study leads us to a deeper understanding of each other and ourselves Section One begins with a survey of the theories and research that best explain how humor works It clarifies the varieties of comic forms and styles identifies the world's most archetypal figures of fun and traces the history of the world's traditions of humor from earliest times to today. It also examines the techniques and aesthetics of film comedy: how movies use the world's rich repertoire of amusing stories, gags, and wit to make us laugh and think. Section Two offers a close look at national and regional trends. It applies the concepts set forth earlier to specific films across a broad spectrum of sub-genres, historical eras, and cultural contexts, providing an insightful comparative study of the world's great traditions of film comedy.

Storytelling in World Cinemas Lina Khatib, 2012-05-29 Storytelling in World Cinemas Vol 1 Forms is an innovative collection of essays that discuss how different cinemas of the world tell stories. The book locates European, Asian, African, and Latin American films within their wider cultural and artistic frameworks, showing how storytelling forms in cinema are infused with influences from other artistic, literary, and oral traditions. This volume also reconsiders cinematic storytelling in general, highlighting the hybridity of national forms of storytelling, calling for a rethinking of African cinematic storytelling that goes beyond oral traditions and addressing films characterised by non-narration. This study is the first in a two-volume project, with the second focusing on the contexts of cinematic storytelling.

A Short History of Film Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2013-02-15 A Short History of Film Second Edition provides a concise and accurate overview of the history of world cinema, detailing the major movements, directors, studios, and genres from 1896 through 2012. Accompanied by more than 250 rare color and black and white stills, including many from recent films, the new edition is unmatched in its panoramic view, conveying a sense of cinema's sweep in the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries as it is practiced in the United States and around the world. Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster present new and amended coverage of the industry, in addition to updating the birth and death dates and final works of notable directors. Their expanded focus on key films brings the book firmly into the digital era and chronicles the death of film as a production medium. The book takes readers through the invention of the kinetoscope, the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars, and ultimately the computer-generated imagery of the present day. It details significant periods in world cinema, including the early major industries in Europe, the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s, and the French New Wave of the 1960s. Attention is given to small independent efforts in developing nations and the more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States, the significant filmmakers of all nations, and the effects of censorship and regulation on production everywhere. In addition, the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts. Engaging and accessible, this is the best one-stop source for the history of world film, available for students, teachers, and general audiences alike.

Contemporary Lusophone African Film Paulo de Medeiros, Livia Apa, 2020-12-13 Offering a range of critical perspectives on a vibrant body of films, this collection of essays engages with questions specific to the various cinemas and films addressed while putting forward an argument for their inclusion in current debates on world cinema. The collection brings together 11 chapters by recognized scholars who analyze a variety of films and videos from Angola Cape Verde Guin Bissau and Mozambique It also includes an interview with Pedro Pimenta one of the most distinguished African film festival organizers Drawing on various theoretical perspectives the volume strives to reverse the relative invisibility that has afflicted these cinemas arguing that most if not all Lusophone films are transnational in all aspects of production acting and reception The initial three chapters sketch broad comparative overviews and suggest theoretical approaches while the ensuing chapters focus on specific case studies and discuss a number of key issues such as the convergence of film with politics the question of gender and violence as well as the revisiting of the period immediately following independence Attention is given to fiction documentary films and recent short alternative video productions that are overlooked by more traditional channels The book stresses the need to pay attention to the significance of African film and Lusophone African film in particular within the developing field of world cinema Bringing together general overviews historical considerations detailed case studies and focused theoretical reflections this book is a significant volume for students and researchers in film studies especially African Lusophone cultural studies and world cinema

A Short History of Film, Third Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2018-03-30 With more than 250 images new information on international cinema especially Polish Chinese Russian Canadian and Iranian filmmakers an expanded section on African American filmmakers updated discussions of new works by major American directors and a new section on the rise of comic book movies and computer generated special effects this is the most up to date resource for film history courses in the twenty first century

Decolonizing Communication Studies Kehbuma Langmia, 2022-03-18 This volume examines the effects of the decolonization of communication studies It shows that the discipline has undergone a rapid paradigm shift since the launching of the Ferment in the Field special edition of the Journal of Communication in which scholars were called upon to rethink the field because of the crisis it was facing

African Film Josef Gugler, 2003 In African Film Re imagining a Continent Josef Gugler provides an introduction to African cinema through an analysis of 15 films made by African filmmakers These directors set out to re image Africa their films offer Western viewers the opportunity to re imagine the continent and its people As a point of comparison two additional films on Africa one from Hollywood the other from apartheid South Africa serve to highlight African directors altogether different perspectives Gugler s interpretation considers the financial and technical difficulties of African film production the intended audiences in Africa and the West the constraints on distribution and the critical reception of the films

Sonic Space in Djibril Diop Mambety's Films Vlad Dima, 2017-01-09 An analysis of the Senegalese film director s work from the perspective of sound The art of Senegalese director Djibril Diop Mambety s cinema lies in the tension created between the visual narrative and the aural narrative His work has been considered hugely influential and his films bridge Western practices of filmmaking and oral traditions from West Africa Mambety s film Touki Bouki is considered one of the foundational works of African cinema Vlad Dima proposes a new reading of Mambety s entire filmography from the perspective of sound Following recent analytical patterns in film studies that challenge the primacy of the visual Dima claims that Mambety uses voices noise and silence as narrative tools that generate their own stories and sonic spaces By turning an ear to cinema Dima pushes African aesthetics to the foreground of artistic creativity and focuses on the critical importance of sound in world cinema Vlad Dima's close readings of Mambety's films sing His are smart critically sound interpretations of aesthetically rich and thematically resonant works This book will surely be of interest to anyone studying movie soundtracks but it will also interest those who care about the affective dimensions of sound and audition particularly in the global South Noah Tsika author of Nollywood Stars This sophisticated and in depth analysis aptly demonstrates Vlad Dima's grasp of the contentious issues surrounding Mambety's film legacy as well as the overall perspectives on the degree to which Third Cinema and revolutionary filmmaking fit within an analysis of the Senegalese director's oeuvre James E Genova author of Cinema and Development in West Africa Postcolonial African cinema David Murphy, Patrick Williams, 2019-01-04 This is the first introduction of its kind to an important cross section of postcolonial African filmmakers from the 1950s to the present Building on previous critical work in the field this volume will bring together ideas from a range of disciplines film studies African cultural studies and in particular postcolonial studies in order to combine the in depth analysis of individual films and bodies of work by individual directors with a sustained interrogation of these films in relation to important theoretical concepts Structurally the book is straightforward though the aim is to incorporate diversity and complexity of approach within the overall simplicity of format Chapters provide both an overview of the director's output to date and the necessary background personal or national cultural or political to enable readers to achieve a better understanding of the director's choice of subject matter aesthetic or formal strategies or ideological stance They also offer a particular reading of one or more films in which the authors aim to situate African cinema in relation to important critical and theoretical debates This book thus constitutes a new departure in African film studies recognising the maturity of the field and the need for complex yet accessible approaches to it which move beyond the purely descriptive while refusing to get bogged down in theoretical jargon Consequently the volume should be of interest not only to specialists but also to the general reader

African Women's Unique Vulnerabilities to HIV/AIDS L. Fuller, 2008-10-27 This is an in depth look at the biomedical socio cultural economic legal and political and educational vulnerabilities faced by the population that is most vulnerable to the risk of contracting HIV AIDS African women Stories from the Fireplace Tekletsadik Belachew, 2020-12-22 This book is an interdisciplinary theological exploration of Haile Gerima's cinema an Ethiopian filmmaker and storyteller who successfully translated African folkloric orality and wove other indigenous art forms into the language of cinema Gerima's five decades legacy of Pan African cinema embodies symbolic resistance against Afro pessimistic and stereotypical mis representations both manifestations of neo colonialism In response he uses camera as a weapon to resist exotic otherness and alienation invented by conventional cinema Through an alternative moving pictures he depicted dignified images of Africa towards decolonising cinema and liberating the mind His memory films achieves archiving the stories of the people of African descent Gerima who stands in par with great African film griots such as Ousmane Sembene the father of African cinema and Med Hondo deserves further interdisciplinary reflections Gerima's Triangular cinema and imperfect cinema are inspired from indigenous values and cultural products such as holy icons and fireplace stories His works foster asserting identity of the self maintaining the right to difference and embracing ubuntu like human personhood They are essential acts in the 21st century Like theology cinema alters a way of life human experiences imaginations and narrative identity This book engages with the works and thoughts of Gerima towards re imaging Africa through cinematic narratives in being and becoming an African
