Questioning Back Joseph S. O'Leary, 2016-08-31 This is the first of three essays in fundamental theology along with Religious Pluralism and Christian Truth 1996 and Conventional and Absolute Truth 2015 which attempt to reassess the status of Christian doctrinal language within the contemporary regime of truth In light of Heidegger's overcoming of metaphysics it revisits the age old tension between Athens and Jerusalem between the metaphysical structures of the Greek mind and the texture of the biblical events of revelation and salvation A deconstructive reading that traces this tension in classical Christian texts continued in later studies including Christianisme et philosophie chez Origene Editions du Cerf 2011 clears the ground for a step back to biblical realities as they are apprehended in contemporary consciousness

Reading the Bible Theologically Darren Sarisky, 2019-01-17 Theological interpretation of the Bible is one of the most significant debates within theology today Yet what exactly is theological reading Darren Sarisky proposes that it requires identification of the reader via a theological anthropology an understanding of the text as a collection of signs and reading the text with a view toward engaging with what it says of transcendence Accounts of theological reading do not often give explicit focus to the place of the reader but this work seeks to redress this neglect Sarisky examines Augustine's approach to the Bible and how his theological insights into the reader and the text generate an aim for interpretation which is fulfilled by fitting reading strategies He also engages with Spinoza showing that theological exegesis contrasts not with approaches that take history seriously but with naturalistic approaches to reading Hosting the Stranger: Between Religions Richard Kearney, James Taylor, 2011-03-10 Hosting the Stranger features ten powerful meditations on the theme of interreligious hospitality by eminent scholars and practitioners from the five different wisdom traditions Jewish Christian Hindu Buddhist and Islamic By gathering thinkers from different religious traditions around the same timely topic of what it means to host the stranger this text enacts the hospitality it investigates facilitating a hopeful and constructive dialogue between the world's major religions

Non-Metaphysical Theology After Heidegger Peter S. Dillard, 2016-06-20 Using Martin Heidegger's later philosophy as his springboard Peter S Dillard provides a radical reorientation of contemporary Christian theology From Heidegger's initially obscure texts concerning the holy the gods and the last god Dillard extracts two possible non metaphysical theologies

a theology of Streit and a theology of Gelassenheit Both theologies promise to avoid metaphysical antinomies that traditionally hinder theology After describing the strengths and weaknesses of each non metaphysical theology Dillard develops a Gelassenheit theology that ascribes a definite phenomenology to the human encounter with divinity This Gelassenheit theology also explains how this divinity can guide human action in concrete situations remain deeply consonant with Christian beliefs in the Incarnation and the Trinity and shed light on the Eucharist and Religious Vocations Seminal ideas from Rudolf Otto and Ludwig Wittgenstein are applied at key points Dillard concludes by encouraging others to develop an opposing Streit theology within the non metaphysical Heideggerian framework he presents A Story of Shalom Philip A. Nagao,1989-03-07 The Madhyamika philosophy of Nagarjuna articulates the basic Mahayana insights in two themes the identity of emptiness dependent co arising and the two truths In The Foundational Standpoint of Madhyamika Philosophy Gadjin M Nagao one of the foremost Buddhist scholars in the world presents an in depth interpretation of this foundational philosophy of Mahayana Buddhism In this book the author has culled data from Sanskrit Tibetan Chinese Japanese and Western sources a rare feat which only a few scholars are capable of accomplishing The translation is faithful readable and masterful Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto,2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault s de centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self transformation The author s original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault s concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology

Through the Dark Field Susie Paulik Babka, 2017-01-13 Theological discourse in the West has consistently valued the word over the image Aesthetics which discerns the criteria and value of the beautiful and what pleases the senses is the discipline that prioritizes sensual intelligence over the rational this book advocates a reconsideration of the doctrine of the incarnation through an aesthetics of vulnerability in which the ethical optics of attention to the vulnerable other becomes the standpoint in which to ponder the significance of God became human Relying on such diverse thinkers as Emmanuel Levinas Maurice Blanchot Karl Rahner and Masao Abe Susie Paulik Babka explores visual art images and poetry as theological sources designating what Blanchot called a region where impossibility is no longer deprivation but affirmation

God's Ways with the World Daniel Hardy, 2005-01-01 This book is devoted to recovering the truth and vitality of Christian faith by attempting to trace the ways of God with the modern world Professor Hardy contends that the profundity of God s interaction with the world despite centuries of valuable contemplation can best be understood by addressing those aspects of human thought which often give modern life its vitality These are the very features with which theology has tended to lose touch but which here are explored as areas in which the character and purposes of God may be manifest Following the example of the great eras of theological understanding in the past this book seeks a new and deeper synthesis of faith theology and other disciplined forms of life and thought to recover the dynamic of God s life and work in and from them As it does so it concentrates on the heartlands of Christian faith worship the Triune God and the activity of God in the world in language and cultures in cosmology and the human being in society and the form of the Church and in the forms of human understanding scientific historical cultural religious and theological The result is an uncompromising study which attempts to show the possibilities for a theology which becomes more fully realised by discovering and following the ways of God with the modern world
