It advocates theories underpinning reflective parenting, mentalizing attachment and neuroscience as essential for building resilience and security in young people, which is crucial through the storm and stress of adolescence. Chapters are filled with everyday relatable scenarios and practical advice on pressing issues such as self-harm, social media and gaming risk and ASD. Questions You Can't Ask Your Mama About Sex Craig Gross, 2009-08-30 This is not your typical birds and the bees discussion. Inside this book is an exploration of the real questions you have about sex and your sexuality, all the ones you're too afraid to ask out loud, especially to your parents. Shudder. Drawn from actual questions and with totally honest answers about what is and isn't okay to look at, think about and do, this book breaks down what God really has to say about keeping your clothes on. Let's face it, the sex talk you got and the messages you hear at church aren't always that helpful when it comes to what is really going through your mind or bothering you elsewhere in real life. And asking those questions is not exactly easy when you want a real answer instead of "You'll go blind." But in these pages, no topic is off-limits and the answers you'll see are a real discussion of what you want to know and exactly what the Bible does and does not say on the topic or even what it means if you've already experimented. From pre-marital sex to masturbation to the temptations of porn and what it means to be a technical virgin and questions about homosexuality. Questions You Can't Ask Your Mama About Sex is a go-to handbook for the things you need to know but don't want to ask out loud. Questions You Can't Ask Your Mama About Sex comes from authors with decades of experience on the topics of relationships and sex who have been featured on The TODAY Show, Good Morning America, The Daily Show, Anderson Cooper 360 as well as in The New York Times and Buzzfeed. It uses a straight-forward approach to answer over 50 questions teens have asked, goes beyond how far is too far to look at the nuances and real things you wonder about and face, done through straight-forward and honest discussion.

Griffin, 2021-08-03 Today's teenagers are the most anxious, creative and diverse generation in history, which can make it hard for us to relate. And while every teenager is a walking bundle of questions, three rise above the rest: Who am I? Where do I fit? What difference can I make? They need caring adults willing to lean in with empathy, practice listening and gently point them in the direction of better answers. They are enough because of Jesus; they belong with God's people and they are invited into God's greater story. In this book, which is based on new landmark research from the Fuller Youth Institute and combines in-depth interviews with data from 1,200 diverse teenagers, Kara Powell and Brad M.
