Quetes Textes Dauteurs Italoquebécois:

Quêtes, 1983 The Anthology of Italian-Canadian Writing Joseph Pivato, 1998 The more than fifty authors represented come from across Canada and have backgrounds in all regions of Italy Ancient Memories, Modern Identities Filippo Salvatore, 1999 Ancient Memories Modern Identities stands for pagan peasant memories in a postmodern urban North America Second and third generation authors young by adoption but old in their vision express the phenomenon of migration as both a physical displacement and indelible memory 1985-2005, vingt années d'écriture migrante au Québec Université Michel de Montaigne Bordeaux 3. LAPRIL. Laboratoire pluridisciplinaire de recherches sur l'imaginaire appliquées à la littérature, 2007 Adjacencies Domenic A. Beneventi, Licia Canton, Lianne Moyes, 2004 This collection of essays provides a forum in which Canadian ethnicity and literature are explored from a broad range of perspectives It reveals the many ways in which minority writers not only create a sense of community and ethnic specificity but also open avenues of discourse to adjacent communities Immigrant and Ethnic-Minority Writers since 1945, 2018-07-17 This study analyses how immigrant and ethnic minority writers have challenged the understanding of certain national literatures and have markedly changed them In other national contexts ideologies and institutions have contained the challenge these writers pose to national literatures Case studies of the emergence and recognition of immigrant and ethnic minority writing come from fourteen national contexts These include classical immigration countries such as Canada and the United States countries where immigration accelerated and entered public debate after World War II such as the United Kingdom France and Germany as well as countries rarely discussed in this context such as Brazil and Japan Finally this study uses these individual analyses to discuss this writing as an international phenomenon Sandra R G Almeida Maria Zilda F Cury Sarah De Mul Sneja Gunew Dave Gunning Kristina Iwata Weickgenannt Martina Kamm Liesbeth Minnaard Maria Oikonomou Wenche Ommundsen Marie Orton Laura Reeck Daniel Rothenb hler Cathy J Schlund Vials Wiebke Sievers Bettina Spoerri Christl Verduyn Sandra Vlasta Literature and the Nation Brook Thomas, 1998 Deux littératures francophones en dialogue Martin Doré, Doris Jakubec, 2004 Contient une bio bibliographie des collaborateurs dont de nombreux vaudois p 367 370 In Italics Antonio D'Alfonso, 1996 Poet and novelist Antonio D Alfonso has been writing essays and giving in depth interviews for twenty years This collection contains the most important of these texts which have been reworked into a coherent entity D Alfonso discusses the importance of ethnic awareness which he places at the antipodes of territorial nationalism for which ethnicity is too often mistaken The themes raised in this eclectic book relate to general culture language literature film and publishing he founded Guernica Editions in 1978 Though it is the Italian perspective which the author prefers to call Italic that is favored the themes and concepts developed are applicable to other cultures and countries In Italics is a polemical and unblushing defense for the individual s right to a collective Imaginary no matter which country one lives in Canada on the Threshold of the 21st Century C.H.W. Remie, J.-M. Lacroix, 1991-08-22 This collection contains a selection of papers presented at the very first All European Canadian Studies Conference that took place in The Hague October 24-27, 1990. This unique meeting took place for the first time in the history of Canadian Studies. The focus of the papers is on the future rather than the past and it took place at a moment in time when Canada went through major crises that raised serious doubts about the country's future. The papers of this volume explore the main issues and problems that Canada faces. The volume contains sections on demography, environmental problems, economic transformations, Canadian identity, political power structure, aboriginal issues, and Canada's international relations. As a whole, the book takes stock of where Canada stands and where it is going.

Contrasts Joseph Pivato, 1991. This historic collection, the first of its kind, is devoted to the discussion of Italian Canadian writers publishing in English, in French, or in Italian. These critical essays include analyses of some important writing: F. G. Paci's Black Madonna, the poetry of Mary di Michele and Pier Giorgio Di Cicco, the plays of Marco Micone, Gens du Silence and Addolorata, the novels of Maria Ardizzi, and many other titles. The ten contributors make significant additions to the study of Canadian literature. D. C. Minni examines the short story of Alexandre Amprimoz, and Sante Viselli considers Italian Canadian poetry. Roberta Sciff Zamaro analyses Black Madonna. Robert Billings' Fathoms by Michèle's verse. Frank Paci considers the task of the novelist. Fulvio Caccia's essay on the literary languages of Quebec is controversial, as are Filippo Salvatore's arguments on the writer and politics. Antonio D'Alfonso speculates on future developments among the more than one hundred Italian Canadian writers. In addition to editing the collection, Joseph Pivato introduces the volume with a long essay on ethnic history and literary criticism in Canada, includes another essay on Italian language writers, and concludes with a detailed bibliography and an index.

Mary Melfi William Anselmi, 2007. Expanding on her analysis of the Canadian literary canon, this collection of essays offers an in-depth look at accomplished writer Mary Melfi. Focusing on a variety of genres from poetry and the novel to drama and the modern fairy tale, this volume expertly establishes the timeless relevance of Melfi's work. Featured contributors include Domenico D'Alessandro, Lise Hogan, and Marino Tuzi, who explore issues such as her emphasis on displacement, irony, ethnicity, class, and gender.

The Other Shore Antonio D'Alfonso, 1988. A notebook without beginning, without end, only a flowing towards being, a growing contradictions and explanations.

Italies imaginaires du Québec Élisabeth Nardout-Lafarge, 2003.

Pier Giorgio Di Cicco Joseph Pivato, 2011. Before Pier Giorgio Di Cicco was made Poet Laureate of Toronto in 2004, 2007, he was instrumental in the establishment of Italian Canadian literature as a phenomenon in Canadian culture. He achieved this through his own impressive list of publications such as The Tough Romance (1979) and Virgin Science (1986). The essays in this volume examine Di Cicco's publications in this pluralistic social context. The contributors include Linda Hutcheon, Mary di Michele, George Elliott Clarke, Domenic Beneventi, Licia Canton, Joshua Lovelace, Stacey Gibson, Jim Zuccheri, Clea McDougall, and Joseph Pivato. There is also an interview and a useful bibliography.

Les Lettres québécoises, 1992.

Echo Joseph Pivato, 2003. This collection of essays explores the literature of Italian immigrants in Canada and their children by focusing on the central role that themes of migration hold in their work Addressing topics such as the oral roots of Canadian immigrant writing the changing place of women in works of the Italian diaspora and the persistent difficulties of translation this work provides an international perspective on some of the most pressing questions in the study of literature today In addition to Canadian works the work of immigrant writers from Australia and other countries is also considered producing nuanced observations of cultural differences and affinities

Literary Pluralities Christl Verduyn, 1998-12-16 Literary Pluralities is a collection of essays on the connections between literature and society in Canada focusing on the topics of race ethnicity language and cultures The essays explore a nexus of related issues including the dynamics between race ethnicity class gender and generation Canadian multiculturalism and its meaning within Aboriginal and Quebec communities the politics of language the new field of life writing and international dimensions of the debates Together they present a valuable picture of Canadian and Quebecois cultural and literary criticism at the century's end Contributors include Himani Bannerji George Elliott Clarke Kateri Akiwenzie Damm Hiromi Goto Sneja Gunew Jean Jonaissant Smaro Kamboureli Eva Karpinski Janice Kulyk Keefer Myrna Kostash Lucie Lequin Nadine Ltaif Arun Mukherjee Enoch Padolsky Nourbese Philip Joseph Pivato Armand G Ruffo Tamara Palmer Seiler Drew Hayden Taylor Aritha van Herk Ma r Verthuy and Christl Verduyn This is a co publication of Broadview Press and the Journal of Canadian Studies
