Quiet Night And A Perfect End:

The Irish Ecclesiastical Record, 1912      Prayer as Night Falls Kenneth Peterson, 2013-10-01 This beautiful book allows you to experience and participate in the last of the daily cycle of fixed hour prayer Compline Kenneth Peterson has sung Compline at St Mark's Episcopal Cathedral in Seattle since the mid 1960s and tells the story of the history and themes of the office woven together with reflections from his own spiritual journey Links are included to musical selections that illuminate the book's chapters A comprehensive look at this ever popular contemplative prayer service at the end of the day      Arts of Dying D. Vance Smith, 2020-04-03 People in the Middle Ages had chantry chapels mortuary rolls the daily observance of the Office of the Dead and even purgatory but they were still unable to talk about death Their inability wasn't due to religion but philosophy saying someone is dead is nonsense as the person no longer is The one thing that can talk about something that is not as D Vance Smith shows in this innovative provocative book is literature Covering the emergence of English literature from the Old English to the late medieval periods Arts of Dying argues that the problem of how to designate death produced a long tradition of literature about dying which continues in the work of Heidegger Blanchot and Gillian Rose Philosophy's attempt to designate death's impossibility is part of a literature that imagines a relationship with death a literature that intensively and self-reflexively supposes that its very terms might solve the problem of the termination of life A lyrical and elegiac exploration that combines medieval work on the philosophy of language with contemporary theorizing on death and dying Arts of Dying is an important contribution to medieval studies literary criticism phenomenology and continental philosophy      The Anchoress Robyn Cadwallader, 2024-03-26 A medieval English teenager tries to escape her troubles by becoming a religious recluse in this sensuous and richly imagined debut Geraldine Brooks So beautiful so rich so strange I loved this book Elizabeth Gilbert England 1255 Sarah is only seventeen when she chooses to become an anchoress a holy woman shut away in a small cell measuring seven by nine paces at the side of the village church Fleeing the grief of losing a much loved sister as well as the pressure to marry she decides to renounce the world with all its dangers desires and temptations and commit herself to a life of prayer But when she starts hearing the voice of the previous anchoress whispering to her seemingly from the stones themselves it soon becomes clear that even the thick unforgiving walls of Sarah's cell cannot protect her as well as she had thought An absorbing story of faith desire shame fear and the human need for connection The Anchoress by Robyn Cadwallader is a haunting and compelling novel both quietly heartbreaking and thrillingly unpredictable Praise for The Anchoress The book that the whole literary world can't stop talking about Marie Claire Australia A considerable achievement Sarah Dunant The New York Times Book Review      The Power of Meaning Emily Esfahani Smith, 2017-01-10 In a culture obsessed with happiness this wise stirring book points the way toward a richer more satisfying life Too many of us believe that the search for meaning is an esoteric pursuit that you have to travel to a distant monastery or page through dusty volumes to discover life's secrets The truth is there are untapped sources of meaning all around us right here right now To explore how we can craft lives of meaning Emily Esfahani Smith synthesizes a kaleidoscopic array of sources from psychologists sociologists philosophers and neuroscientists to figures in literature and history such as George Eliot Viktor Frankl Aristotle and the Buddha Drawing on this research Smith shows us how cultivating connections to others identifying and working toward a purpose telling stories about our place in the world and seeking out mystery can immeasurably deepen our lives To bring what she calls the four pillars of meaning to life Smith visits a tight knit fishing village in the Chesapeake Bay stargazes in West Texas attends a dinner where young people gather to share their experiences of profound loss and more She also introduces us to compelling seekers of meaning from the drug kingpin who finds his purpose in helping people get fit to the artist who draws on her Hindu upbringing to create arresting photographs And she explores how we might begin to build a culture that leaves space for introspection and awe cultivates a sense of community and imbues our lives with meaning Inspiring and story driven The Power of Meaning will strike a profound chord in anyone seeking a life that matters
