Christotainment Shirley R. Steinberg, Joe L., Joe L. Kincheloe, 2018-04-17 For more than two thousand years Christian expansion and proselytizing was couched in terms of defending the faith Until recently in the United States much of that defense came in the form of reactions against the liberal influences channeled through big corporate media such as popular music Hollywood movies and network and cable television But the election of Ronald Reagan as a Hollywood President introduced Christian America to the tools of advertising and multimedia appeals to children and youth to win new believers to God's armies Christotainment examines how Christian fundamentalism has realigned its armies to combat threats against it by employing the forces it once considered its chief enemies the entertainment media including movies television music cartoons theme parks video games and books Invited contributors discuss the critical theoretical frameworks of top selling devices within Christian pop culture and the appeal to masses of American souls through the blessed marriage of corporatism and the quest for pleasure Fargo Rock City Chuck Klosterman, 2012-12-11

The year is 1983 and Chuck Klosterman just wants to rock But he's got problems For one he's in the fifth grade For another he lives in rural North Dakota Worst of all his parents aren't exactly down with the long hairstyle which rocking requires Luckily his brother saves the day when he brings home a bit of manna from metal heaven SHOUT AT THE DEVIL Motley Crue's seminal paean to hair band excess And so Klosterman's twisted odyssey begins a journey spent worshipping at the heavy metal altar of Poison Lita Ford and Guns N Roses In the hilarious young man growing up with a soundtrack tradition FARGO ROCK CITY chronicles Klosterman's formative years through the lens of heavy metal the irony deficient genre that for better or worse dominated the pop charts throughout the 1980s For readers of Dave Eggers Lester Bangs and Nick Hornby Klosterman delivers all the goods from his first dance with a girl and his eye opening trip to Mandan with the debate team to his list of essential albums and his thoughtful analysis of the similarities between Guns n Roses Lies and the gospels of the New Testament

Chuck Klosterman and Philosophy Seth Vannatta,2012 Since he burst on the world with his heavy metal memoir Fargo Rock City in 2001 Chuck Klosterman has been one of the most successful novelists and essayists in America His collections of essays Sex Drugs and Cocoa Puffs and Chuck Klosterman IV A Decade of Curious People and Dangerous Ideas have established Klosterman not only as a credible spokesman for intelligent purveyors of popular culture His writings and regular columns in Spin Esquire The New York Times Magazine and other venues about music sports and modern culture have sometimes become themselves touchstones in popular culture The success of his card based game Hypertheticals 50 Questions for Insane Conversations has demonstrated that Klosterman can connect with his fans and readers even off the printed page As he writes in his contribution to this book Klosterman enjoys writing about big unwieldy ideas as they circulate in culture in people in music and in sports The twenty two other philosophers writing alongside Klosterman couldn't agree more They offer their own take on the concepts and puzzles that fascinate him and take up many of Chuck's various challenges to answer brain twisting hypertheticals or classic ethical quandaries that would arise if say Aristotle wandered backstage at a Kiss concert
