

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a beach at sunset. The sky is a warm, golden yellow, and the sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright reflection on the wet sand. A small, dark seashell lies on the sand in the lower right quadrant. The title 'Quiet Reflections' is written in a large, elegant, dark brown script font with a white outline, positioned in the upper half of the image.

Quiet Reflections Selected Poems:

Quiet Reflections Carmen Boitel Adams, 1971      The Selected Poems of Po Chü-I Juyi Bai, 1999 The quintessential Chinese poet translated by David Hinton recipient of the Harold Morton Landon Translation Award      The Collected Poems of Robert Creeley, 1975-2005 Robert Creeley, 2008-06-03 The subtlest feeling for the measure that I encounter anywhere except in the verses of Ezra Pound William Carlos Williams It is a study how Creeley lands syntax down the alley and his vocabulary pure English to hit meters and rhymes all of which are spares and strikes Charles Olson Robert Creeley has created a noble body of poetry that extends the work of his predecessors Pound Williams Zukofsky and Olson and provides like them a method for his successors in exploring our new American poetic consciousness Allen Ginsberg His succinctness is like the unfettered flashing of a diamond John Ashbery Robert Creeley was one of the great giants of 20th Century American poetry This collection is his monument Paul Auster American poetry is unimaginable and happily unknowable without Creeley Andrei Codrescu author of it was today new poems Creeley is a touchstone for me a measure of what poetry is He is a genius of the sensorium as Kerouac was and a master of the ear as is Miles Davis He is a carver in space like Van Gogh Michael McClure There is no poetry more vivid immediate or telling than Robert Creeley's His Collected Poems extends the achievement of Dickinson Whitman and Williams into postwar America Creeley's excavation of particular words images and sentiments resonate beyond the pages of this book into the fabric of everyday life This is American invention at its best as necessary as the air we breathe and the ground we walk on Charles Bernstein It isn't what a poet says that counts as a work of art William Carlos Williams once wrote it's what he makes with such intensity of perception that it lives with an intrinsic movement of its own to verify its authenticity I can't think of another contemporary poet whose acute sensitivity to the particular event of making and in poetry making includes breaking each written line is as consummately fine tuned as Robert Creeley's Susan Howe He was the main support in the old house of poetry the main beam C D Wright Brown University alumni newsletter There is no poet like Creeley His multiple subjectivities and magic syllables have kept us curious and honest Never a false step never a less than tender heart for the sound and the brilliant cognitive often fierce power therein What a glorious long life in writing These late poems keep the brilliant tempo We are very lucky he is still so much among us Anne Waldman Robert Creeley transformed the momentary spontaneous music of being alive into a profoundly enduring American art brilliant necessary impeccably scored He made it new for always Peter Gizzi      Poems from my window Joy Chippindale, Joy has always been a creative spirit As a child she filled her world with dance music and writing putting on impromptu performances and finding meaning in words far beyond her years A deep thinker from the start she carried this love of creativity into adulthood weaving it into her life as a Mum both sharing and writing poetry with her two children from the moment they were old enough A few years ago she moved to a smallholding in Yorkshire With sheep grazing in the fields and goats roaming the land she got a sense of connection and calm she had never experienced before

Walking in the fresh air witnessing the steady cycle of the seasons and feeling the grounding presence of the animals around her Then came the diagnosis stage 4 osteoporosis and shortly after a terrible fall that forced her into stillness leaving her unable to move as freely as before Confined to her home she found herself spending hours by the window watching the land she had once walked so easily At first the quiet was frustrating But in that stillness something shifted She returned to poetry pouring her emotions onto the page and in writing she found healing Now with her husband and three beloved cats by her side she has rebuilt her life around the things that truly matter family movement and peace Through Yoga and Pilates she has strengthened her body through poetry and mindfulness she has strengthened her spirit and mind Her journey has been one of transformation resilience and deep reconnection with herself with nature and with the quiet beauty of life as it is
