Trance-Migrations Lee Siegel, 2014-10-08 Part non fiction part short fiction part memoir part essay Trance migrations is both an entertaining and informative read and a thoroughly original and creative experiment in metafiction Combining great erudition with sophisticated word play and bawdy humor it alternates sections containing stories both fictional and non fictional to be read by the reader to her or himself with sections of stories to be read aloud to a listener In the latter cases Siegel intends that the listener actually go into a hypnotic trance out of which the reader will eventually awaken her or him In this way the narrative form of the book performs a hypnotic induction script out of which the listener awakens to find that it is impossible to tell what really happened just as in hypnosis the line between fact and fiction is irremediably blurred Siegel uses hypnosis and the dynamic between hypnotist and hypnosand as a way of exploring other power dynamics between lovers between writer and reader or listener between masculine colonial culture and the feminized East between God or gods and mortals and ultimately between memory historical and personal and constantly shifting meaning The book is above all about reading as a hypnotic experience Through stories based on motifs and characters from both Indian mythology and from real life notably Abbe Faria a Goan Catholic monk who gained notoriety in the early nineteenth century with demonstrations of magnetism in Paris and James Esdaile a Scottish surgeon for the East India Company who experimented with mesmerism as a surgical anesthetic in Calcutta Siegel epitomizes and elucidates the psychological and political dynamics of a fascination with a mysterious Orient and reveals the anxieties embedded in such fascination
