A Theological Commentary to the Midrash: Song of Songs Rabbah Jacob Neusner, 2001 This theological commentary to the Rabbinic Midrash explores a simple proposition in three parts I The reading of Scripture by principal parts of the Rabbinic Midrash is formed by compositions and composites that are animated by a cogent theological system II These primary components of the Midrash compilations further are in part aimed at systematic demonstrations of theorems of a theological character III While forming a principal part of a large theological structure and system each document is unique This commentary in its concluding chapter presents what is common to the animating theology of Rabbinic Judaism in all its documentary components and what is unique to Song of Songs Rabbah Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2021-10-01 The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history literature and religion and eventually the theology as revealed in the historical documents themselves Under this premise Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult often unasked or neglected questions about the nature background and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details Comparative Hermeneutics of Rabbinic Judaism, The, Volume Six Jacob Neusner, 2000 Systematic account of the hermeneutics of comparison and contrast of Rabbinic Judaism comparison and contrast of Rabbinic Judaism Comparative Hermeneutics of Rabbinic Judaism, The, Volume Seven Jacob Neusner, 2000-01-01 Systematic account of the hermeneutics of comparison and contrast of Rabbinic Judaism The Hermeneutics of the Rabbinic Category-formations Jacob Neusner, 2001 This work sets forth a theory of how Rabbinic Halakhic category formations are articulated One can now reconstruct the processes of thought that yield for the Halakhic category formations the hermeneutics that govern the selection of data for a given category formation and determines how those data are to be interpreted Not only so but that theory encompasses three guite distinct sources for the definition and articulation of a given category formation Scripture a hermeneutics generic to all Halakhic category formations and a hermeneutics particular to the category formation at hand Presented in the shank of this book are sample studies that show how the distinction between generic and particular hermeneutics for a Halakhic category formation accounts for the character of the Halakhah as spelled out by the Mishnah Tosefta Yerushalmi Bavli which is to say the Halakhah in its initial and normative statement Contours of Coherence in Rabbinic Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2023-01-30 This book shows that the disputes that characterize Rabbinic writings in the formative age underscore the coherence of Rabbinic Judaism It is in three separate monographs The first shows that disagreements concern secondary and tertiary issues They therefore reinforce the primary norm by identifying as moot only trivial details The second demonstrates alternatively that Halakhic disputes articulate unresolved conflict over generative principles Sometimes in the presentation of topics of the law disputes not only indicate the range of consensus but bring to expression conflicting alternatives theories that claim equal validity but contradict one another Third in some presentations of the law and in all presentations of theology where disputes occur disputes simply gloss details in the application of accepted principles They form a part of the exercise of legal or theological exeges filling in gaps with alternative facts The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004142312
