Rabuka Of Fiji The Authorised Biography Of Majorgeneral Sitiveni Rabuka:

Rabuka of Fiji John R. Sharpham,2000 The SAGE Encyclopedia of War: Social Science Perspectives Paul Joseph,2016-06-15 Traditional explorations of war look through the lens of history and military science focusing on big events big battles and big generals By contrast The SAGE Encyclopedia of War Social Science Perspective views war through the lens of the social sciences looking at the causes processes and effects of war and drawing from a vast group of fields such as communication and mass media economics political science and law psychology and sociology Key features include More than 650 entries organized in an A to Z format authored and signed by key academics in the field Entries conclude with cross references and further readings aiding the researcher further in their research journeys An alternative Reader s Guide table of contents groups articles by disciplinary areas and by broad themes A helpful Resource Guide directing researchers to classic books journals and electronic resources for more in depth study This important and distinctive work will be a key reference for all researchers in the fields of political science international relations and sociology Globalisation and Governance in the Pacific Islands Stewart Firth,2006-12-01 The Pacific Islands are feeling the effects of globalisation Free trade in sugar and garments is threatening two of Fiji s key industries At the same time other opportunities are emerging Labour migration is growing in importance and Pacific governments are calling for more access to Australia s labour market Fiji has joined Samoa Tonga Tuvalu and Kiribati as a remittance economy with thousands of its citizens working overseas Meantime Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands grapple with an older kind of globalisation in which overseas companies exploit mineral and forest resources The Pacific Islands confront unique problems of governance in this era of globalisation The modern democratic state often fits awkwardly with traditional ways of doing politics in that part of the world Just as often politicians in the Pacific exploit tradition or invent it to serve modern political purposes The contributors to this volume examine Pacific globalisation and governance from a wide range of perspectives They come from Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Hawai i the Federated States of Micronesia Samoa Fiji New Zealand and Jamaica as well as Australia Publisher s description Moon Handbooks Fiji David Stanley,2004-08-18 Widely traveled author David Stanley knows the best ways to explore this 322 island archipelago His firsthand experience and honest insight will show you the difference between visiting Fiji and knowing it Moon delivers the right mix of in depth information and strategic advice With accommodation and dining options for any budget activities for a range of interests and our intuitive organization it s easy to find exactly what you re looking for Moon gives you the tools to make your own choices The result An entirely uncommon experience and a few new stories to tell Book jacket The People Have Spoken Steven Ratuva,Stephanie Lawson,2016-03-23 The September 2014 elections in Fiji was one of the most anticipated in the history of the country coming after eight years of military rule and under a radically new constitution that introduced a system of proportional representative PR and without any reserved communal seats The election was won overwhelmingly by FijiFirst a party formed by 2006 coup leader Frank Bainimarama

He subsequently embarked on a process of shifting the political configuration of Fijian politics from inter ethnic to trans ethnic mobilisation The shift has not been easy in terms of changing people s perceptions and may face some challenges in the longer term despite Bainimarama s clear victory in the polls Ethnic consciousness has the capacity to become re articulated in different forms and to seek new opportunities for expression This book explores these and other issues surrounding the 2014 Fiji elections in a collection of articles written from varied political intellectual and ideological positions

In God's Image Matthew Akim Tomlinson,2009-03-10 Today most indigenous Fijians are Christians and the Methodist Church is the foundation of their social and political lives Yet as this thought provoking study of life on rural Kadavu Island finds Fijians also believe that their ancestors possessed an inherent strength that is lacking in the present day Looking in particular at the interaction between the church and the traditional chiefly system Matt Tomlinson finds that this belief about the superiority of the past provokes great anxiety and that Fijians seek ways of recovering this strength through ritual and political action Christianity itself simultaneously generates a sense of loss and the means of recuperation To unravel the cultural dynamics of Christianity in Fiji Tomlinson explores how this loss is expressed through everyday language and practices

The Turtle and the Caduceus Professor David Brewster AM,2010-01-11 The Turtle and the Caduceus are metaphors for the impact of Western medicine the Caduceus upon a traditional Pacific island culture the Turtle through the history of a school which started training native medical practitioners 125 years ago David Brewster the former Dean of Fiji School of Medicine tells the fascinating tale of how a devastating measles epidemic and pro indigenous benign colonialism led the foundation of this unique school Then Rockefeller philanthropy helped to transform it into a regional institution with an excellent reputation However its evolution into a modern university medical school was hampered by local politics and internal dissensions related to ethnic strife between the indigenous and Indian populations of Fiji which also resulted in four military coups with economic stagnation and migration of medical graduates This cautionary tale has important lessons for the relatively neglected disciplines of Pacific island history and medicine

In the Eye of the Storm Brij V. Lal,2010-11-01 To read this evocative book is to be thrust into a Fiji that has for the moment been snuffed out by military might a Fiji of political parties parliamentary politics elections manifestoes campaigns democratic defence of interests party manoeuvres and constitutional protection of rights and freedoms It is a comprehensive and eloquent re telling of the story of Fiji politics from independence in 1970 to 1999 through the perspective of Fiji s greatest living statesman Jai Ram Reddy by one of the world s most distinguished scholars of its history and politics

Islands of Turmoil Brij V. Lal,2006-08-01 By rights the island nation of Fiji should be thriving It is easily the most developed country in the South Pacific it is a hub for regional transportation and communication links the home of international diplomatic educational and aid organisations with a talented multiethnic population Yet since its independence it has suffered two military coups in 1987 and an attempted putsch in 2000 resulting in strained institutions and disrupted improvements to essential infrastructure and to educational social and medical services Intersections Brij V. Lal,2012-11-01 A wonderfully rich insightful and personally touching collection of essays by the Pacific region s most prolific and engaging historian Brij Lal writes eloquently and poetically about his professional and political journeys and the many different people and worlds he has encountered on the way Readers will be inspired by this collective account of a courageous life committed to the achievement of democratic freedom and social justice What shines through these pages is Lal s love of and commitment to Fiji from which he has been painfully exiled David Hanlon Professor of History Former Director of the Center for Pacific Islands Studies University of Hawaii at Manoa The Pacific Basin since 1945 Roger C. Thompson,2014-09-25 The nations of the Pacific Basin in East and Southeast Asia Australasia the Pacific islands and the Americas make up the world s largest economic zone and its most culturally diverse region In recent years its Asian Tiger Economies have suffered economic collapse and unfinished business from the Cold War has produced continuing conflict and instability The new edition of this pioneering book traces the postwar inter relationships of all the rim and island nations It gives a unique impression of the make up of the region and the tensions within it The book integrates a wide range of information from books and articles from published and unpublished sources including recently opened Russian and American archives and from the first hand experiences of participants including those of the author in Pacific Basin affairs Vigorously written and strongly argued no other account brings together all the threads of the development of international relations in this complex and fascinating region Levelling Wind Brij V. Lal,2019-10-15 What I have sought to do in my work is to give voiceless people a voice place and purpose the sense of dignity and inner strength that comes from never giving up no matter how difficult the circumstances History belongs as much to the vanquished as to the victors Brij V Lal Professor Brij Lal is the finest historian of the Indian indentured experience and the Indian diaspora His Girmitiyas is a classic Emeritus Professor Clem Secharan London Metropolitan University Brij Lal is a highly respected versatile and imaginative scholar who has made a lasting contribution to the historiography of the Pacific Dr Rod Alley Victoria University of Wellington Professor Brij Lal s life is a remarkable journey of a scholar and an intellectual whose writings are truly transformative a man of moral clarity and courage who also has deep pain at being cut off from his homeland Professor Michael Wesley Dean of the College of Asia and the Pacific The Australian National University Brij Lal is a singular scholar whose work has spanned disciplines from history political commentary encyclopedia biography and fiction Brij is without doubt the most eminent scholar in the humanities and social sciences Fiji has ever produced He also remains one of the most significant public intellectuals of his country despite having been banned from entering it in 2009 Emeritus Professor Clive Moore University of Queensland Brij Lal is an accomplished and versatile historian and true son of Fiji Above all there is affirmation here of the enduring worth of good literature and the value of good education that Lal received and wants others to experience The world needs more Lals who speak out against ruling opinions and dare to stray into the pastures of independent thought Professor Doug Munro historian and biographer Wellington and Adjunct Professor at the University of Queensland Fiji David Stanley,2001 This Fiji handbook provides a thought provoking introduction to Fiji s turbulent history diverse population and cultural riches Travelers gain from seasoned traveler Stanley s extensive descriptions and evaluations of Fiji s lodgings from luxury resorts to simple hotels on the beach His comprehensive reporting of outdoor recreation makes it simple to locate the perfect activities such as scuba diving snorkeling surfing sailing kayaking hiking camping and golf

State of Suffering Susanna Trnka,2011-05-02 How do ordinary people respond when their lives are irrevocably altered by terror and violence Susanna Trnka was residing in an Indo Fijian village in the year 2000 during the Fijian nationalist coup The overthrow of the elected multiethnic party led to six months of nationalist aggression much of which was directed toward Indo Fijians In State of Suffering Trnka shows how Indo Fijians lives were overturned as waves of turmoil and destruction swept across Fiji Describing the myriad social processes through which violence is articulated and ascribed meaning including expressions of incredulity circulation of rumors narratives and exchanges of laughter and jokes Trnka reveals the ways in which the community engages in these practices as individuals experience and try to understand the consequences of the coup She then considers different kinds of pain caused by political chaos and social turbulence including pain resulting from bodily harm shared terror and the distress precipitated by economic crisis and social dislocation Throughout this book Trnka focuses on the collective social process through which violence is embodied articulated and silenced by those it targets Her sensitive ethnography is a valuable addition to the global conversation about the impact of political violence on community life

Asia in the Pacific Islands R. G. Crocombe,2007 A spectacular transition is under way in the Pacific Islands as a result of which all our lives will be radically different In the last fifty years or so Asia has begun to play a bigger and bigger role in all aspects of Islands life migration trade and investment aid and development information and media religion culture and sport It is replacing the West The process is irreversible With his trademark breadth and depth of knowledge and understanding of the region based on over half a century of experience study and deliberation Ron Crocombe documents the early connections between Asia and the Pacific details recent and continuing changes and poses challenging theories about the future Publisher Journal of Pacific Studies ,1999 The Social and Political Construction of Fijian Identity and Knowledge Samuela Bogitini Dabea,2001 Security Disarmed Sandra Morgen,Barbara Sutton,Julie Novkov,2008-08-13 From the history of state terrorism in Latin America to state and group perpetrated plunder and genocide in Africa to war and armed conflicts in the Middle East militarization the heightened role of organized aggression in society continues to painfully shape the lives of millions of people around the world In Security Disarmed scholars policy planners and activists come together to think critically about the human cost of violence and viable alternatives to armed conflict Arranged in four parts alternative paradigms of security cross national militarization militarism in the United States and pedagogical and cultural concerns the book critically challenges militarization and voices an alternative encompassing vision of human security by analyzing the relationships among gender race and militarization

This collection of essays evaluates and resists the worldwide crisis of militarization including but going beyond American military engagements in the twenty first century Fijian Studies ,2007-05 The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume
