Race And Ethnic Relations 1999 2000 Edition:

Race and Ethnic Relations John A. Kromkowski, Kromkowski, 1999-02 Handbook of the Sociology of Racial and Ethnic Relations Hernan Vera, Joe R Feagin, 2007-08-03 The study of racial and ethnic relations has become one of the most studied aspects in sociology and sociological research In both North America and Europe many traditional cultures are feeling threatened by immigrants from Latin America Africa and Asia Sociology is at the hub of the human sciences concerned with racial and ethnic relations Since this discipline is made of multiple paradigms and methodological orientations it has been able to make relevant contributions to disciplines ranging from individual psychology social psychology and psychiatry to economics anthropology linguistics cultural studies health care delivery and education

Serials in the British Library, 2001 Race and the City Shanti Fernando, 2011-11-01 In Race and the City Shanti Fernando presents an elegant analysis of the mechanisms of political mobilization under systemic racism that draws on case studies interviews and a detailed understanding of the racialized legal and sociocultural histories of both the United States and Canada She argues that while increasing diversity may be a challenge for systemic inclusiveness it is one that must be met if Canada is to uphold its vision of a truly democratic society Being White Karyn D. McKinney, 2013-04-15 Karyn McKinney uses written autobiographies solicited from young white people to empirically analyze the contours of the white experience in U S society This text offers a unique view of whiteness based on the rich data provided by whites themselves writing about what it means to be white Ethnicity, Class, and Nationalism Anton L. Allahar, 2005-06-28 Celebrants of an ever emerging globalization fly the banner of free trade the mass marketization of once faltering economies and rising economic and social standards for all Many opponents to globalization rightfully point out that borders still exist largely for the purposes of keeping one commodity in its place the labor commodity or the more familiar immigrant Arguments of this type are often steeped in economic and social discourse Race and ethnicity are seen as either being subsumed by this discourse or are entirely ignored as incidental to this type of political thought In Ethnicity Class and Nationalism Caribbean and Extra Caribbean Dimensions specialists writing on the Caribbean form of the nation state place race and ethnicity along with class in its proper context at the very foundations of the modern nation Editor Anton L Allahar has handpicked scholarship that is both contemporary and expert in its consideration of Caribbean geo politics Furthermore essays in this volume include comparative cases from around the globe In the interest of locating race and ethnicity as sociological and political categories that are inimical to contemporary conceptions of the nation state Allahar explores spaces other than the Caribbean The result is a comparative study that is unique in scope and also in its level of scholarly reflection This book is the first of its kind It is essential reading for anyone interested in advancing their analysis of political economic social and cultural thought in the Caribbean Ethnicity, Class, and Nationalism Anton Allahar, 2005-01-01 Celebrants of an ever emerging globalization fly the banner of free trade the mass marketization of once faltering economies and rising economic and social standards for all. Many opponents to globalization rightfully point out that borders still exist largely for the purposes of keeping one commodity in its place: the labor commodity or the more familiar immigrant. Arguments of this type are often steeped in economic and social discourse. Race and ethnicity are seen as either being subsumed by this discourse or are entirely ignored as incidental to this type of political thought. In Ethnicity, Class, and Nationalism: Caribbean and Extra-Caribbean Dimensions, specialists writing on the Caribbean form of the nation-state place race and ethnicity along with class in its proper context at the very foundations of the modern nation. Editor Anton L. Allahaar has handpicked scholarship that is both contemporary and expert in its consideration of Caribbean geo-politics. Furthermore, essays in this volume include comparative cases from around the globe in the interest of locating race and ethnicity as sociological and political categories that are inimical to contemporary conceptions of the nation-state. Allahaar explores spaces other than the Caribbean. The result is a comparative study that is unique in scope and also in its level of scholarly reflection. This book is the first of its kind. It is essential reading for anyone interested in advancing their analysis of political, economic, social, and cultural thought in the Caribbean.

Communicative Competence, Classroom Interaction, and Educational Equity Courtney B. Cazden, 2017-11-28

In the World Library of Educationalists series, international scholars themselves compile career-long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces: extracts from books, key articles, salient research findings, major theoretical and/or practical contributions, so the world can read them in a single, manageable volume. Readers thus are able to follow the themes and strands of their work and see their contribution to the development of a field as well as the development of the field itself. Contributors to the series include Michael Apple, James A. Banks, Joel Spring, William F. Pinar, Stephen J. Ball, Elliot Eisner, Howard Gardner, John Gilbert, Ivor F. Goodson, and Peter Jarvis. In this volume, Courtney B. Cazden, renowned educational sociolinguist, brings together a selection of her seminal work organized around three themes: development of individual communicative competence in both oral and written language and discourse; classroom interaction in learning and teaching; and social justice/educational equity issues in wider contexts beyond the classroom. Since the 1970s, Cazden has been a key figure in the ethnography of schooling, focusing on children's linguistic development, both oral and written, and the functions of language in formal education, primarily but not exclusively in the United States. Combining her experiences as a former primary schoolteacher with the insight and methodological rigor of a trained ethnographer and linguist, Cazden helped to establish ethnography and discourse analysis as central methodologies for analyzing classroom interaction. This capstone volume highlights her major contributions to the field.

Unequal Treatment Institute of Medicine, Board on Health Sciences Policy, Committee on Understanding and Eliminating Racial and Ethnic Disparities in Health Care, 2009-02-06

Racial and ethnic disparities in health care are known to reflect access to care and other issues that arise from differing socioeconomic conditions. There is, however, increasing evidence that even after such differences are accounted for, race and ethnicity remain significant predictors of the quality of health care received. In Unequal Treatment, a panel of experts documents this evidence and explores how persons of color experience the health care environment The book examines how disparities in treatment may arise in health care systems and looks at aspects of the clinical encounter that may contribute to such disparities Patients and providers attitudes expectations and behavior are analyzed How to intervene Unequal Treatment offers recommendations for improvements in medical care financing allocation of care availability of language translation community based care and other arenas The committee highlights the potential of cross cultural education to improve provider patient communication and offers a detailed look at how to integrate cross cultural learning within the health professions The book concludes with recommendations for data collection and research initiatives Unequal Treatment will be vitally important to health care policymakers administrators providers educators and students as well as advocates for people of color

Globalization and America Angela J. Hattery, David G. Embrick, Earl Smith, 2008-05-21 Hattery Embrick and Smith present a collection of essays that explore the ways in which issues of human rights and social inequality are shared globally The editors focus on the United States role in contributing to human rights violations both inside and outside its borders Essays on contemporary issues such as immigration colonialism and reparations are used to illustrate how the U S and the rest of the world are inextricably linked in their relationships to human rights violations and social inequality

Unequal Motherhoods and the Adoption of Asian Children Jungyun Gill, 2016-12-13 This book explores a deeply personal aspect of globalization the adoption of Asian children by white Americans It is based on dozens of interviews with adoptive mothers and adoption social workers nearly two hundred letters and essays written by Korean birth mothers who put their children up for adoption and field work at an adoption agency in South Korea It also includes analyses and explanations of U S and South Korean governments social characteristics and policies regarding adoptions and how relations between nations have affected international adoption The book focuses on whether the commonly held notion that adoptions are to serve children s welfare and their best interests has tended to render gendered aspects of international adoptions invisible Factors such as gender inequality social control of women s reproductive power patriarchic family structure and social beliefs concerning womanhood and motherhood that affect international adoptions are revealed in this book The multiple ways in which adoptive birth and foster mothers experience gender oppression from their different social positions of class race and nationality are explored and the interdependencies and inequalities of the motherhoods of these three groups of women are brought to light

Spaces of Hate Colin Flint, 2013-10-18 While much has been written about hate groups and extreme right political movements this book will be the first that addresses the crucial role that place and context play in generating and shaping them Ranging across geographical scales the essays start with the home and then move from the local to the regional to the national to finally the global In this collection much of the focus is on the U S as the contributors consider a variety of hate activity and hate groups across the country including rural white supremacist and neo Nazi movements anti black sentiment directed towards cities anti gay activity in cities and rural areas and the resurgent

Southern nationalist movement Closing with pieces from those who combat hate activity the intention of Spaces of Hate is to recognize specific geographic settings likely to foster hate activity California's Social Problems Charles F Hohm,James A Glynn,2002 PLEASE UPDATE SAGE INDIA AND SAGE U K ADDRESSES ON IMPRINT PAGE Racial and Ethnic Relations Joe R. Diversity and Aging Among Immigrant Seniors in Canada Douglas Durst,Michael MacLean,2010-01-01 Historically Canada has been a nation of immigrants with 16 20% of its citizens being foreign born Most immigrant research addresses the issues of integration and adjustment of young and adult immigrants with little work on aging There are numerous books on immigrants and books on aging but there are few that have considered the topics of both diversity and aging Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada breaks from that tradition and offers an eclectic collection of original research from among Canada s leading researchers on aging and immigrants Some researchers refer to this emerging field as Ethno gerontology There are two interesting groups of immigrant seniors those who entered Canada at over 65 years of age and those who aged in Canada Most Canadians are surprised to learn that the senior population of seniors has a higher percentage of immigrants 19 6% than the general population 13 7% As Canadians age the country s composition of immigrant seniors has also changed from mainly European to greater cultural and ethnic diversity from Africa and Asia This cultural and ethnic diversity has social health economic policy implications and impacts on programs and services delivered to seniors Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada is divided into two main sections In Part 1 the chapters explore general and universal issues such as national trends and demographics theoretical orientations issues of culture and legal dimensions poverty and income and end of life care In Part 2 the chapters examine issues pertaining to specific ethnic groups For example there are chapters on the social well being of Chinese immigrants determinants of mental health for Iranian seniors family dynamics for aging Haitian elders and emerging issues for Punjabi families Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada offers both breadth and depth to the topic of aging among immigrants and is a must read for social work and health care professionals students in health and social services policy and program planners and families of aging immigrants It is written in a language that crosses disciplines shedding professional jargon making it an informative and engaging read for professionals researchers and the general public

White Out Ashley W. Doane, Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2013-01-11 What does it mean to be white This remains the question at large in the continued effort to examine how white racial identity is constructed and how systems of white privilege operate in everyday life White Out brings together the original work of leading scholars across the disciplines of sociology philosophy history and anthropology to give readers an important and cutting edge study of whiteness

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature Race and Society Tina Patel, 2016-11-26 Race and Society is a thoughtful and critically engaging exploration of some of the key issues around race and racialisation which have arisen in what is considered to be a highly diverse and complex society. With a progressive approach emphasising the social construction of race issues within a post-racial era moving away from essentialist and polarized explanations of racial interaction, Tina Patel introduces the main concepts and key theories including their post-developments. Focuses on the processes and impact of racial categorisation in contemporary society. Highlights the intersectional and multifaceted nature of race and related conceptualizations. Illustrates how race has morphed into newer forms of categorizations. Race and Society is packed with topical examples and international case studies to engage students along with chapter summaries, study questions and further reading. It is a highly readable and thought-provoking guide to the study of race and racialisation processes for students of sociology, criminology and related disciplines.
