Mapping Diversity in Latin America Mabel Moraña,Miguel A. Valerio,2025-02-28 Mapping Diversity in Latin America offers ample critical coverage of recent approaches to the historical study of race and ethnicity in Latin America since the arrival of Spanish and Portuguese colonizers to the present Bringing together the work of leading scholars this volume presents readers with a thorough and updated examination of the formation and evolution of ideas surrounding race and ethnicity social movements and political processes in Latin America that provides multiple routes for future research on the topic The book s nineteen chapters establish the basis for a productive comparative analysis of racial developments in the whole continent to allow for a combination of diachronic and synchronic study of regional processes Both the scope of the book and the historical and geocultural coverage on these topics are unique in the field of Latin American Studies Taking an interdisciplinary approach to understanding issues of collective identity otherness alterity and the like Mapping Diversity in Latin America sheds light on histories that have been traditionally overlooked in texts on race in Latin America such as the rich history of diasporic Asian Syrian Lebanese and Jewish communities and the more recent emergence of Latinx populations in the United States The book includes a critical examination of fundamental concepts such as mestizaje mulataje creolization negritud and blanquitud as well as critical and theoretical approaches to the study of these issues in postcolonial societies

National Colors Mara Loveman, 2014 National Colors analyzes the politics and practices of official ethnoracial classification in the censuses of nineteen Latin American countries over nearly two centuries It shows that in addition to domestic politics the ways that states classify their citizens are strongly influenced by shifting international criteria for how to construct modern nations and promote national development

Inequality in Latin America David M. De Ferranti, 2004-01-01 Latin America and the Caribbean has been one of the regions of the world with the greatest inequality This book explores why the region suffers from such persistent inequality identifies how it hampers development and suggests ways to achieve greater equity in the distribution of wealth incomes and opportunities The study draws on data from 20 countries based on household surveys covering 36 million people and reviews extensive economic sociological and political science studies on inequality in Latin America Four broad areas for action by governments and civil society groups to break the destructive pattern are outlined 1 build more open political and social institutions that allow the poor and historically subordinate groups to gain a greater share of agency voice and power in society 2 ensure that economic institutions and policies seek greater equity through sound macroeconomic management and equitable efficient crisis resolution institutions that avoid the large regressive redistributions that occur during crises and that allow for saving in good times to enhance access by the poor to social safety nets in bad times 3 increase access by the poor to high quality public services especially education health water and electricity as well as access to farmland and the rural services and protect and enforce the property rights of the urban poor 4 reform income transfer programmes so that they reach the poorest families

The New Ethnic Studies in Latin America Raanan Rein, Stefan Rinke, Nadia Zysman, 2017-03-06 The New Ethnic Studies in Latin America aims at going beyond and against much of Jewish Latin American historiography situating Jewish Latin Americans in the larger multi ethnic context of their countries Senior and junior scholars from various countries joined together to challenge commonly held assumptions accepted ideas and stable categories about ethnicity in Latin America in general and Jewish experiences on this continent in particular This volume brings to the discussions on Jewish life in Latin America less heard voices of women non affiliated Jews and intellectuals Community institutions are not at center stage conflicts and tensions are brought to the fore and a multitude of voices pushes aside images of homogeneity Authors in this tome look at Jews multiple homelands their country of birth their country of residence and their imagined homeland of Zion This volume brings together an important series of chapters that pushes ethnic studies to greater complexity therefore this work is critical in laying the foundation for what Jeffrey Lesser has called the new architecture of ethnic studies in Latin America Joel Horowitz St Bonaventure University in E I A L 28 2 2017 Overall this collection serves as a stimulating invitation to scholars of Latin American ethnic studies It offers multiple models of scholarship that go beyond and against traditional narratives of Jewish Latin America Lily Pearl Balloffet University of California Santa Cruz in J Lat Amer Stud 50 2018 These essays manage to bring to the fore stories of Jews whose journeys have been sidelined until now Their stories demonstrate that identities are always a work in progress a continuous dance between ancestry history and culture Ariana Huberman Haverford College in American Jewish History 103 2 2019      Race and Sex in Latin America Peter Wade, 2009-09-07 Interracial sexual relations are often a key mythic basis for Latin American national identities but the importance of this has been under explored Peter Wade provides a pioneering overview of the growing literature on race and sex in the region covering historical aspects and contemporary debates He includes both black and indigenous people in the frame as well as mixed and white people avoiding the implication that race means black white relations      Race, Ethnicity, and Class Franklin W. Knight, 1996 Professor Knight addresses race ethnicity and class in Latin America and the Caribbean and his conclusions are important for revaluing the history and place of these regions in the evolution of political systems
