Race And Reconciliation Essays From The New South Africa:

Race and Reconciliation Daniel Alan Herwitz, 2003      Sexual Diversity in Africa S.N. Nyeck, Marc Epprecht, 2013-10-01 How does one address homophobia without threatening majority rule democracy and freedoms of speech and faith How does one Africanize sexuality research empirically and theoretically in an environment that is not necessarily welcoming to African scholars In Sexual Diversity in Africa contributors critically engage with current debates about sexuality and gender identity as well as with contentious issues relating to methodology epistemology ethics and pedagogy They present a tapestry of issues that testify to the complex nature of sexuality sexual practices and gender performance in Africa Essays examine topics such as the well established same sex networks in Accra and Bamako African traditions defined by European observers and the bizarre mix of faith pharmaceuticals and pseudo science used to cure homosexual men Their evidence also demonstrates the indefensibility of over simplified constructions of homosexuality versus heterosexuality modern versus traditional Africa versus the West and progress from the African closet towards Western models of out politics all of which have tainted research on same sex practices and scientific studies of HIV AIDS Asserting that the study of sexuality is intellectually and politically sustainable in Africa Sexual Diversity in Africa contributes to the theorization of sexualities by presenting a more sensitive and knowledgeable study of African experiences and perspectives Contributors include Olajide Akanji Christophe Broqua Cheryl Cooky Serena Owusua Dankwa Shari L Dworkin Marc Epprecht Melissa Hackman Notisha Massaquoi Crystal Munthree Kathleen O Mara Stella Nyanzi S N Nyeck Vasu Reddy Amanda Lock Swarr and Lisa Wiebesiek      Prophetic Remembrance Erica Still, 2014-12-17 Using the term prophetic remembrance to articulate the expression of a constituent faith in the performative capacity of language Erica Still shows how black subjectivity is born of and interprets cultural trauma She brings together African American neo slave narratives and Black South African postapartheid narratives to reveal the processes by which black subjectivity accounts for its traumatic origins names the therapeutic work of the present and inscribes the possibility of the future The author draws on trauma studies black theology and literary criticism as she considers how writers such as Toni Morrison Charles Johnson John Edgar Wideman David Bradley Sindiwe Magona K Sello Duiker and Zakes Mda explore the possibilities for rehearsing a traumatic past without being overcome by it Although both African American and South African literary studies have addressed questions of memory narrative and trauma little comparative work has been done Prophetic Remembrance offers this comparative focus in reading these literatures together to address the question of what it means to remember and to recover from racial oppression      Leading for Change Jonathan Jansen, 2015-08-14 This book offers new theoretical ground for thinking about and transforming leadership and higher education worldwide Through an examination of the construct of intimacy and nearness including emotional spiritual psychic intellectual and physical closeness Jonathan Jansen demonstrates its power to influence positive leadership in young people He argues that sensory leadership which includes but extends beyond the power of touch represents a fresh and effective approach to progressive transformation of long divided institutions Considering richly textured narratives chapters explore complex intimacies among Black and White university students in South Africa post apartheid and in the aftermath of a major racial atrocity The stories reveal the students transformation in the process of leadership for change interweaving concepts of racism human relationships and intimacy and in turn expanding the knowledge base of social and institutional improvement This book explores how when different kinds of nearness come together in leadership change young people respond in ways that would not be possible through conventional instruments such as policy legislation and the appeal to moral sensibilities alone Leading for Change will be critical reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education educational justice higher education educational leadership and change social and or racial justice This book will also be of interest to those working in the fields of anthropology social psychology and South African contemporary politics policy and institutional practices

Philosophy and Rhetoric in Dialogue Gerard A. Hauser, 2010-11-01 Heritage, Culture, and Politics in the Postcolony Daniel Alan Herwitz, 2012 The postcolonial state like its European predecessor of the 18th and 19th centuries deploys heritage institutions and instruments museums courts of law and universities to empower itself with unity longevity exaltation of value origin and destiny This book reveals the febrile pitch at which heritage is staked by examining situations in South Africa India and the US to capture its perfect embodiment of the struggle to seize culture and society at moments of profound social change

CONSTITUTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE LAW While President Obama has repeatedly emphasized his Administration s commitment to transparency and the rule of law nowhere has this resolve been so quickly and severely tested than with the issue of the possible prosecution of Bush Administration officials Measured or partisan scholarly or journalistic clearly the debate about accountability for the alleged crimes of the Bush Administration will continue for some time Screening Torture Michael Flynn,Fabiola F. Salek,2012 Before 9 11 films addressing torture outside of the horror slasher genre depicted the practice in a variety of forms In most cases torture was cast as the act of a desperate and depraved individual and the viewer was more likely to identify with the victim rather than the torturer Since the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 scenes of brutality and torture in mainstream comedies dramatic narratives and action films appear for little other reason than to titillate and delight In these films torture is devoid of any redeeming qualities represented as an exercise in brutal senselessness carried out by authoritarian regimes and institutions This volume follows the shift in the representation of torture over the past decade specifically in documentary action and political films It traces and compares the development of this trend in films from the United States Europe China Latin America South Africa and the Middle East Featuring essays by sociologists psychologists historians journalists and specialists in film and cultural studies the collection approaches the representation of torture in film and television from multiple angles and disciplines connecting its aesthetics and practices to the dynamic of state terror and political domination Modernity, Islam, And Secularism In Turkey Alev Çinar, A fascinating look at the relation between Islam and modernity      The Magic of Truth Farah Dally,2014-11-10 Questions of truth have occupied philosophers scientists and theologians throughout human history What is truth Does it exist How do we define truth Who determines what is true and what is not The Magic of Truth defends the relativity of truth by examining its role in literature the arts and science as well as in our own lives and traditions The product of intensive research on the idea of truth and the secret meaning it holds Farah Dally argues that no field of study can progress without calling into question the traditional view of truth as a clear objective image      City of Extremes Martin J. Murray,2011-06-20 A powerful critique of urban development in greater Johannesburg since the end of apartheid in 1994      Knowledge in the Blood Jonathan D. Jansen,2009-04-07 This book tells the story of white South African students how they remember and enact an Apartheid past they were never part of How is it that young Afrikaners born at the time of Mandela s release from prison hold firm views about a past they never lived rigid ideas about black people and fatalistic thoughts about the future Jonathan Jansen the first black dean of education at the historically white University of Pretoria was dogged by this question during his tenure and Knowledge in the Blood seeks to answer it Jansen offers an intimate look at the effects of social and political change after Apartheid as white students first experience learning and living alongside black students He reveals the novel role pedagogical interventions played in confronting the past as well as critical theory s limits in dealing with conflict in a world where formerly clear cut notions of victims and perpetrators are blurred While Jansen originally set out simply to convey a story of how white students changed under the leadership of a diverse group of senior academics Knowledge in the Blood ultimately became an unexpected account of how these students in turn changed him The impact of this book s unique wide ranging insights in dealing with racial and ethnic divisions will be felt far beyond the borders of South Africa      Postscripts on Independence Vineet Thakur,2018-04-19 India and South Africa two states that bookended the process of twentieth century decolonization punched above their weight in global politics in their initial years of liberation Postscripts on Independence analyses and compares the making of foreign policy ideas identities and institutions of postcolonial India and South Africa It shows how both countries have responded to the contradictory demands of their freedom struggles against colonialism and pragmatic challenges of international politics Vineet Thakur argues that the countries geopolitical positioning in South Asia and southern Africa make them regional powers with similar sets of problems and prospects as both continue to grapple with the idea of maintaining regional and or continental hegemony By undertaking a comparative analysis Thakur explores a framework to understand the foreign policymaking fears aspirations and international behaviour of these two nation states      From the "Rainbow Nation" to the "new Apartheid" Sam N. Race And Reconciliation Essays From The New South Africa: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Race And Reconciliation Essays From The New South Africa : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
