Bell, Cheryl I. Harris, Justin Hansford, Amna A. Akbar, Atiba Ellis, Audrey G. McFarlane, 2023-01-31 Intended for use with the authors forthcoming casebook Race Racism and American Law Seventh Edition forthcoming 2023 Race Racism and American Law Leading Cases and Materials includes significant historical and contemporary cases and materials edited with an aim to foreground the most relevant sections and passages to illustrate the crucial role of race in the formation of US law This new edition of Derrick Bell s groundbreaking textbook Race Racism and American Law like prior versions eschews a traditional casebook format The locus of analysis in this text is the struggle for racial justice and its underlying history and political context as reflected in the ongoing contestation over law legal reform and transformation As such the supplement includes but is not limited to

Supreme Court cases We follow Bell's model of locating all edited cases and materials in the supplement reserving the book's text to provide historical and political context for significant cases or legislative actions along with hypothetical questions, comments, and other tools of analysis. Professors and students will benefit from both legal and non-legal primary source material. Leading Cases and Materials includes selected historical and contemporary cases, legislation, and other legal materials that foreground the crucial role of race and racism and the struggle for racial justice within and through US law. A carefully selected compilation of United States Supreme Court Cases. Each case is chosen to guide readers through elements of US jurisprudence which reflect both reform and retrenchment of societal inequity as it relates to the question of race. Cases range from significant 18th century cases such as Johnson v McIntosh 1823 (indigenous people cannot transfer full title to land) to contemporary civil rights decisions such as Brnovich v Democratic National Committee 2021 (further limiting the reach of the Voting Rights Act) and Comcast v National Association of African American Owned Media 2020 (limiting protections against racial discrimination in contracting). Doctrinally and theoretically significant cases from lower federal courts and state courts. Cases from lower courts are selected to provide critical race insights into how judicial institutions outside the US Supreme Court shape doctrine and debates over race and racial inequality. Cases range from Acre v Douglass 9th Cir 2015 (ban on teaching of Mexican American studies found unconstitutional) to Lobato v Taylor Colo 2003 (speculator attempts to divest Mexican American landowners with defective title derived from Mexico). Significant legislative and executive legal documents. This supplement includes materials going beyond traditional edited cases, reflecting the insight that a critical race analysis necessitates a grasp of law beyond the courts. Additional materials range from the United States Department of Justice Investigation of the Ferguson Police Department 2015 to the George Floyd Justice in Policing Act of 2020. Benefits for instructors and students. Provokes discussion on contemporary and historical legal controversies, cases, and materials edited to address issues through the lens of critical race theory's conceptual framework.

Looseleaf Derrick Bell, 2013-06-17. Constitutional Law Cases in Context places primary emphasis on how constitutional law has developed its foundational principles and recurring debates rather than focusing simply on doctrinal details. Teachable, manageable, class-sized chunks of material are suited to one semester courses or reduced credit configurations. Generous case excerpts make the text flexible for most courses, no matter the ideology or interpretative method. Unique, concise coverage of the dormant commerce clause material helps clarify this often murky area. This allows the introduction of discriminatory intent and effects concepts in a less charged setting than race or gender material. Cases are judiciously
