Mexican Americans Japanese Americans and Chinese Americans among others Focusing on a wide range of legal and legislative initiatives pursued by a diverse group of reformers Brilliant analyzes the cases that dismantled the state s multiracial system of legalized segregation in the 1940s and subsequent battles over fair employment practices old age pensions for long term resident non citizens fair housing agricultural labor school desegregation and bilingual education He concludes with the conundrum created by the multiracial affirmative action program at issue in the United States Supreme Court s 1978 Regents of the University of California v Bakke decision The Golden State s status as a civil rights vanguard for the nation owes in part to the numerous civil rights precedents set there and to the disparate challenges of civil rights reform in multiracial places While civil rights historians have long set their sights on the South and recently have turned their attention to the North advancing a long civil rights movement interpretation Mark Brilliant calls for a new understanding of civil rights history that more fully reflects the racial diversity of America The Manufacture of Consent Stephen M.

Underhill,2020-02-01 The second Red Scare was a charade orchestrated by a tyrant with the express goal of undermining the New Deal so argues Stephen M Underhill in this hard hitting analysis of J Edgar Hoover s rhetorical agency Drawing on Classification 94 a vast trove of recently declassified records that documents the longtime FBI director s domestic propaganda campaigns in the mid twentieth century Underhill shows that Hoover used the growing power of his office to subvert the presidencies of Franklin D Roosevelt and Harry S Truman and redirect the trajectory of U S culture away from social democracy toward a toxic brand of neoliberalism He did so with help from Republicans who opposed organized labor and Southern Democrats who supported Jim Crow in what is arguably the most culturally significant documented political conspiracy in U S history a wholesale domestic propaganda program that brainwashed Americans and remade their politics Hoover also forged ties with the powerful fascist leaders of the period to promote his own political ambitions All the while as a love letter to Clyde Tolson still preserved in Hoover s papers attests he strove to pass for straight while promoting a culture that demonized same sex love The erosion of democratic traditions Hoover fostered continues to haunt Americans today

Economies of Network Industries Hans Werner Gottinger,2003-03-20 This revealing book examines different types of network industries such as railways telecommunications and new media and investigates their economics with an accent on history makes it stand apart from others in the area Hans Gttinger s accessible writing style and knowledgeable research makes this book recommended reading for all those in WITS: The Early Years Bruce Murray,2022-09 WITS The Early Years is a history of the University up to 1939 First established in 1922 the University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg developed out of the South African School of Mines in Kimberley circa 1896 Examining the historical foundations the struggle to establish a university in Johannesburg and the progress of the University in the two decades prior to World War II historian Bruce Murray captures the quality and texture of life in the early years of Wits University and the personalities who enlivened it and contributed to its growth Particular attention is given to the wider issues and the challenges which faced

Wits in its formative years The book examines the role Wits came to occupy as a major centre of liberal thought and criticism in South Africa its contribution to the development of the professions of the country the relationship of its research to the wider society and its attempts to grapple with a range of peculiarly South African problems such as the admission of black students to the University and the relations of English and Afrikaans speaking white students within it This edition of WITS The Early Years is republished in the University's centenary year with a preface by Keith Breckenridge who writes In the republication of Murray's two volume history of Wits readers have an opportunity to explore the often dramatic and contested story of this university Murray produced an intimate almost scandalous intellectual history of the institution that served as his home for practically half a century

The Sociological Eye Everett Cherrington Hughes, In their introduction to this edition Riesman and Becker provide a biographical background to Hughes writing describing his pervading influence in the field of sociology and on younger sociologists through his teaching fieldwork work in professional associations and personality The essays are grouped into four sections the relationship of social institutions to changes in their surroundings and to the personalities and careers of persons problems of multi ethnic societies the development of occupations the monopoly license of professions the determination of public policy about a line of work and the relations between work and social role and social observation and analysis

Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman, James Joseph Scheurich, 2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children

Multiracial Experiences in Higher Education Marc P. Johnston-Guerrero, Charmaine L. Wijeyesinghe, 2023-07-03 Recipient of the 2021 Innovation Award of The Multiracial Network MRN In the last Census over 9 million people nearly 3% of the population identified themselves as of two or more races The proportion of college students who identify as Multiracial is somewhat higher and growing Although increasing at a slightly slower rate Multiracial faculty and staff are also teaching and working on campuses in greater numbers Together Multiracial people from diverse backgrounds and in various roles are influencing college and university culture practices and climate This book centers the experiences of Multiracial people those individuals claiming heritage and membership in two or more mono racial groups and or identifies with a Multiracial term These terms include the broader biracial multiethnic and mixed or more specific terms like Blasian and Mexipino In addressing the recurring experiences of inclusion exclusion affirmation and challenges that they encounter the contributors identify the multiple sites in higher education that affect personal perceptions of self belonging rejection and resilience describe strategies they utilized to support themselves or other Multiracial people at their institutions and to advocate for greater awareness of Multiracial issues and a commitment to institutional change In covering an array of Multiracial experiences the book brings together a range of voices social identities including race ages perspectives and approaches The chapter authors present a multiplicity of views because as the book exemplifies multiracial people are not a monolithic group nor are their issues and needs universal to all The book opens by outlining the literature and theoretical frameworks that provide context and foundations for the chapters that follow It then presents a range of first person narratives reflecting the experiences of students faculty and staff that highlight navigating to and through higher education from diverse standpoints and positionalities The final section offers multiple strategies and applied methods that can be used to enhance Multiracial inclusion through research curriculum and practice The editors conclude with recommendations for future scholarship and practice This book invites Multiracial readers their allies and those people who interact with and influence the daily lives of Multiracial people to explore issues of identity and self care build coalitions on campus and advocate for change For administrators student affairs personnel and anyone concerned with diversity on campus it opens a window on a growing population with whom they may be unfamiliar mis categorize or overlook and on the need to change systems and structures to address their full inclusion and unveil their full impact Contributors e alexander Rebecca Cepeda Lisa Combs Wei Ming Dariotis Nick Davis Kira Donnell Chelsea Guillermo Wann Jessica C Harris Andrew Jolivet Naliyah Kaya Nicole Leopardo Heather C Lou Victoria K Malaney Brown Charlene C Martinez Orkideh Mohajeri Maxwell Pereyra Kristen A Renn and Stephanie N Shippen

Benjamin "Bugsy" Siegel Larry D. Gragg, 2015-01-16 This intriguing biography recounts the life of the legendary Benjamin Bugsy Siegel revealing his true role in the development of Las Vegas and debunking some of the common myths about his notoriety This account of the life of Benjamin Bugsy Siegel follows his beginnings in the Lower East Side of New York to his role in the development of the famous Flamingo Hotel and Casino Larry D Gragg examines Siegel s image as portrayed in popular culture dispels the myths about Siegel s contribution to the founding of Las Vegas and reveals some of the more lurid details about his life Unlike previous biographies this book is the first to make use of more than 2 400 pages of FBI files on Siegel referencing documents about the reputed gangster in the New York City Municipal Archives and reviewing the 1950 51 testimony before the Senate Committee on organized crime

Chapters cover his early involvement with gangs in New York his emergence as a favorite among the Hollywood elite in the late 1930s his lucrative exploits in illegal gambling and horse racing and his opening of the fabulous Flamingo in 1946 The author also draws upon the recollections of Siegel's eldest daughter to reveal a side of the mobster never before studied the nature of his family life American Pigeon Journal ,1924 Manliness & Civilization Gail Bederman,2024-05-31 When former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries came out of retirement on the fourth of July 1910 to fight current black heavyweight champion Jack Johnson in Reno Nevada he boasted that he was doing it for the sole purpose of proving that a white man is better than a negro Jeffries though was trounced Whites everywhere rioted The furor Gail Bederman demonstrates was part of two fundamental and volatile national obsessions manhood and racial dominance In turn of the century America cultural ideals of manhood changed profoundly as Victorian notions of self restrained moral manliness were challenged by ideals of an aggressive overtly sexualized masculinity Bederman traces this shift in values and shows how it brought together two seemingly contradictory ideals the unfettered virility of racially primitive men and the refined superiority of civilized white men Focusing on the lives and works of four very different Americans Theodore Roosevelt educator G Stanley Hall Ida B Wells and Charlotte Perkins Gilman she illuminates the ideological cultural and social interests these ideals came to serve Library of Universal Knowledge ,1880
