Race Elements In Bengal A Quantitative S:

Race Elements in Bengal Dharendra Nath Majumdar, Calyampudi Radhakrishna Rao, 1960 Islamist Militancy in Bangladesh Shafi Md Mostofa, 2021-09-01 This book seeks to investigate not only the causes of radicalization but also how radicalization has unfolded since 2009 based on an exhaustive review of the relevant literature and two stints of fieldwork in Bangladesh involving 71 in depth interviews of highly credentialed individuals This book looks at both local and global factors that have served to provoke young Bangladeshis many of whom are from relatively well educated backgrounds to become religiously belligerent and eventually to turn into terrorists Ideology it is argued plays a pivotal role in the radicalization process and justifies violence Most importantly ideology proffers solutions to the micro and macrocauses of commonly identifiable youth disaffection This book mainly focuses on the Islamic State and Al Qaeda s exploitation of religious beliefs and their construction of a mobilizing apocalyptic narrative that strikes a chord with the young middle class Muslims Both organizations target them for recruitment The book ends by proffering what is called a Pyramid Root Cause model which attempts to tie all the causative variables of radicalization into a connected explanation of what has been happening in Bangladesh over the last decade This book is of interest to scholars of political Islam international politics and security studies including terrorism and the politics of South Asia Racism in Metropolitan Areas Rik Pinxten, Ellen

Preckler, 2006 For several decades a political discourse which incites exclusion and hatred against those who are perceived as different has been gaining ground most notably in affluent and developed countries Focusing on the growth of racism in large cities and urban areas this volume presents the views of international scholars who work in the social sciences and statements by non practicing academics such as journalists and policy makers The contributions of the scientists and the non academic specialists are grouped around common themes highlighting existing debates and bringing together widely scattered information The book explores the ways in which old forms of racism persist in the urban context and how traditional exclusion systems like casteism can be likened to contemporary forms like racism directed at refugees

Genome-Wide Association Studies Krishnarao Appasani, 2016-01-14 Over the last twenty years genome wide association studies GWAS have revealed a great deal about the genetic basis of a wide range of complex diseases and they will undoubtedly continue to have a broad impact as we move to an era of personalised medicine This authoritative text written by leaders and innovators from both academia and industry covers the basic science as well as the clinical biotechnological and pharmaceutical potential of these methods With special emphasis given to highlighting pharmacogenomics and population genomics studies using next generation technology approaches this is the first book devoted to combining association studies with single nucleotide polymorphisms copy number variants haplotypes and expressed quantitative trait loci A reliable guide for newcomers to the field as well as for experienced scientists this is a unique resource for anyone interested in how the revolutionary power of genomics can be applied to solve problems in complex disease Models for Social Networks With Statistical Applications Suraj Bandyopadhyay, A. R. Rao, Bikas K. Sinha, 2011 The study of social networks is a new but fast widening multidisciplinary area involving social mathematical statistical and computer sciences for application in diverse social environments in the latter sciences and specially for the field of Economics It has its own parameters and methodological tools In Models for Social Networks with Statistical Applications the authors show how graph theoretic and statistical techniques can be used to study some important parameters of global social networks and illustrate their use in social science studies with some examples in real life survey data The Indian Human Heritage D.
