Race Ethnicity And The Nation International Perspectives On Social Conflict:

Race Ethnicity and Nation Peter Ratcliffe, 1993-12-01 Race, Ethnicity And Nation Peter Ratcliffe, 2005-08-17 This text offers an international and comparative analysis of social division rooted in race ethnicity and national identity It provides an overview of the key issues underlying ethnic conflict which has now risen to the top of the international political agenda This book is intended for academics postgraduates and senior undergraduates within sociology race and ethnicity social anthropology as well as those involved in other areas such as politics geography development studies and international relations with an interest in ethnicity The International Handbook of Sociology Stella R Quah, Arnaud Sales, 2000-09-19 The most up to date survey of the range of research in contemporary sociology extremely useful to students teachers and researchers alike Indispensable for collective and personal libraries Immanuel Wallerstein Maison des Sciences de l Homme Paris This unique Handbook provides state of the art reviews of sociology conducted by prominent scholars Drawing on dedicated knowledge and expertise the book constitutes an unrivalled guide to the central theoretical and methodological perspectives in the discipline as a whole The book is organized into six parts o conceptual perspectives o social and cultural differentiation o changing institutions and collective action o demography cities and housing o art and leisure o social problems Each chapter includes a comprehensive review of the literature covering the full range of work from contrasting traditions of thought and approaches No existing work matches this Handbook for scholarly coverage and relevance It is a primary resource for understanding the discipline As such it will appeal to lecturers researchers and advanced graduate and undergraduate students in Sociology Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective Georgia A. Persons, 2018-04-24 Contradictory forces are at play at the close of the twentieth century There is a growing closeness of peoples fueled by old and new technologies of modern aviation digital based communications new patterns of trade and commerce and growing affluence of significant portions of the world s population Television permits individuals around the world to learn about the cultures and lifestyles of peoples of physically distant lands These developments give real meaning to the notion of a global village Peoples of the world are growing closer in new and increasingly important ways Nonetheless there are disturbing signs of a growing awareness of ethnic differences in all parts of the world the United States included and a concomitant rise in ethnic based conflicts many of them extraordinarily violent in nature Fear resentment intolerance and mistreatment of the other abound in world news accounts Not only does this phenomenon pose an interesting juxtaposition to the concept of the emergent global village but its emergence in the post cold war era internationally and the post civil rights era in the United States raises significant and compelling questions Why are such conflicts occurring now How do analysts explain these developments The essays in Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective lucidly explore some of the complexities of the persistence and re emergence of race and ethnicity as major lines of divisiveness around the world Contributors analyze manifestations of race based movements for political empowerment in Europe and Latin America as well as racial intolerance in these same settings Attention is also given to the conceptual complexities of multidimensional and shared cultural roots of the overlapping phenomena of ethnicity nationalism identity and ideology The book greatly informs discussions of race and ethnicity in the international context and provides an interesting perspective against which to view America's changing problem of race Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective is a timely thought provoking volume that will be of immense value to ethnic studies specialists African American studies scholars political scientists historians and sociologists

Race Ethnicity and Difference: Imagining the Inclusive Society Peter Ratcliffe, 2004-06-16 This excellent book provides an extremely readable account which deserves to be widely read by a more general audience In short the author in making sense of current imaginings presents a mix of theoretical and empirical debates as he challenges exclusionary forces The book's principal aim is to take a critical look at the nature and sources of inequalities in contemporary societies and examine the prospects for an inclusive society This aim captures an important strength of the text as the analysis attempts to move beyond simple description and provide explanations and possible solutions to enable policy and practice to tackle disadvantage and discrimination Social Policy This book addresses many of the key problems facing contemporary societies The social significance attached to various forms of difference most notably race and ethnicity has been seen as resulting in the exclusion of some groups from their full rights as citizens This in turn is viewed as presenting a series of barriers to the creation of more inclusive societies Peter Ratcliffe explores these arguments in a variety of substantive contexts for example immigration and the treatment of refugees and asylum seekers housing and segregation education labour markets and policing and urban conflict Particular emphasis is placed on the role of social agency on the part of minorities in confronting exclusionary forces This lively and highly readable account deals with difficult theoretical ethical and policy issues without resort to unnecessary jargon It is essential reading for undergraduate students in sociology social policy urban geography law and political science and is also of value to the general reader and researcher

The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia Ian McAllister, Steve Dowrick, Riaz Hassan, 2003-08-07 First published in 2003 The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia is a high quality reference on significant research in Australian social sciences The book is divided into three main sections covering the central areas of the social sciences economics political science and sociology Each section examines the significant research in the field placing it within the context of broader debates about the nature of the social sciences and the ways in which institutional changes have shaped how they are defined taught and researched

Prison\(Er\) Education David Wilson, Anne Reuss, 2000-12-01 Prison er Education comprises key essays by leading prison education practitioners academics and prisoners including new work on how to evaluate the success of education within prison by Dr Ray Pawson of Leeds University and Stephen Duguid of Simon Fraser University Canada A major challenge to penal policy makers to accept the value of education beyond basic skills and at a time when prison regimes have come to be dominated by cognitive thinking skills courses

Racism and Education David Gillborn, 2008-03-11

This book challenges the dominant assumptions and attitudes that shape education and is the first major study in the UK to adopt Critical Race Theory a radical new perspective on the nature of racism and public policy Debating Diversity Jan Blommaert, Jef Verschueren, 2002-03-11 Immigration racism and nationalism have become hotly debated issues in the Western world This highly original and controversial work focuses on the language used by the vast majority who regard themselves as being open to a multi cultural society Using Belgium as a case study and drawing parallels with the UK US Europe and the former Yugoslavia the authors analyse this language and reveal a remarkable consistency between these liberal voices such as in news reporting and the language used by radical racist and nationalist groups Rational Choice Theory Margaret S. Archer, Jonathan Q. Tritter, 2013-04-03 Rational Choice Theory is flourishing in sociology and is increasingly influential in other disciplines Contributors to this volume are convinced that it provides an inadequate conceptualization of all aspects of decision making of the individuals who make the decisions of the process by which decisions get made and of the context within which decisions get made The critique focuses on the four assumptions which are the bedrock of rational choice rationality the theory's definition of rationality is incomplete and cannot satisfactorily incorporate norms and emotions individualism rational choice is based upon atomistic individual decision makers and cannot account for decisions made by couples groups or other forms of collective action process the assumption of fixed well ordered preferences and perfect information makes the theory inadequate for situations of change and uncertainty aggregation as methodological individualists rational choice theorists can only view structure and culture as aggregates and cannot incorporate structural or cultural influences as emergent properties which have an effect upon decision making The critique is grounded in discussion of a wide range of social issues including race marriage health and education Eelam Online Maya Ranganathan, 2011-01-18 This book details the potential of computer mediated technologies particularly the internet in creating and nurturing political and cultural identities among the widely dispersed conflict generated Sri Lankan Tamil diaspora and traces the engagement of the diaspora in Australia with the online media in the struggle for a homeland Taking the ethnic issue in Sri Lanka as a given the book explores the way in which new media has added dimensions to the issue Although the theoretical framework of the book overflows into the areas of political communication journalism media theories and studies nationalism and social psychology it draws heavily from the theories of Ellul's social propaganda and Anderson's concept of nation as an imagined community Divided into three parts the first part explores the potential of the internet to lead to the imagination of the nation by the Sri Lankan Tamil diaspora the second part traces the online engagement of the diaspora in the making of the homeland and the third part contrasts it with the experiences and expectations of the homeland of the second generation of migrants in Australia and the Sri Lankan refugees in India With the focus shifting to the diaspora after the announcement of the decimation of the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam in Sri Lanka in May 2009 the book aims to contribute to an understanding of the dynamics to underscore the increasingly significant role that communication technologies play in deciding the weave and warp of the fabric of a nation Resource Politics in Sub-Saharan Africa Matthias Basedau,2005 Transforming Cities Nick Jewson,Susanne Macgregor,2018-05-11

Transforming Cities examines the profound changes that have characterised cities of the advanced capitalist societies in the final decades of the twentieth century It analyses ways in which relationships of contest conflict and co operation are realised in and through the social and spatial forms of contemporary urban life This book focuses on the impact of economic restructuring and changing forms of urban deprivation and social exclusion It contends that these processes are creating new patterns of social division and new forms of regulation and control Poland in a Colonial World Order Piotr

Puchalski,2021-11-18 Poland in a Colonial World Order is a study of the interwar Polish state and empire building project in a changing world of empires nation states dominions protectorates mandates and colonies Drawing from a wide range of sources spanning two continents and five countries Piotr Puchalski examines how Polish elites looked to expansion in South America and Africa as a solution to both real problems such as industrial backwardness and perceived issues such as the supposed overrepresentation of Jews in liberal professions He charts how in partnership with other European powers and international institutions such as the League of Nations Polish leaders made attempts to channel emigration to South America to establish direct trade with Africa to expedite national minorities to far away places and to tap into colonial resources around the globe Puchalski demonstrates the intersection between such national policies and larger processes taking place at the time including the internationalist turn of colonialism and the global fascination with technocratic solutions Carefully researched the volume is key reading for scholars and advanced students of twentieth century European history New Approaches to Migration? Nadjé Al-Ali,Khalid Koser,2003-09-02 This book critically evaluates the transnational communities approach to contemporary international migration It does so through a specific focus on the relationship between transnational communities and home The meaning of home for international migrants is changing and evolving as new globally oriented identities are developed These issues are explored through a number of central themes the meaning of home to transnational peoples the implications of transforming these social spaces and how these have been transformed The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian History Toyin Falola,Matthew M. Heaton,2022 Thirty six chapters covering the history of Nigeria from prehistoric times to the twenty first century Accessible overviews of both the political narrative as well as the deeper histories of social organization identity formation and inter group relationships cutting edge analysis of key themes from highly respected scholars in a single forward facing volume Book jacket Toni Morrison Lucille P. Fultz,2012-11-22 Toni Morrison features a collection of ten new essays by noted Morrison scholars including recipients of the Toni Morrison Society Book Award Focusing upon Morrison s most recently published novels Paradise Love A Mercy the contributors to this volume revisit issues that continue to engage Morrison and are part of the currency of contemporary American literary and cultural history These selections examine Morrison s ongoing romance with African Americans as they continue to battle the demons of race gender class and poverty to name a few Together these essays offer comprehensive and nuanced discussions of Morrison s latest novels and provide new directions for Morrison scholarship in the 21st century This volume provides students of literature cultural studies and history with an overview of Morrison s examination of African American progress and leadership at key moments in American history and culture from the Colonial Period to the present Through their thematic interconnectedness the essays reveal Morrison at her most brilliant in her ability to reach into the past to comment on contemporary issues

Non-racialism in South Africa

David Everatt,2017-07-05 When Nelson Mandela was elected President of South Africa in 1994 the world looked on at the miracle of racial reconciliation that unfolded in South Africa However the dream of a Rainbow Nation in Archbishop Desmond Tutu s phrase seems to be fading and racial identities seem to be more entrenched than ever What prospects then for the non racial democracy envisioned by Mandela and the South African Constitution This book examines the status and future prospects of non racialism It discusses the nature of non racialism and applies the concept to wider national issues and to questions of identity The book looks out into South Africa s future and assesses generational changes to the country s handling of non racialism This latter point is the main theme in the opening preface by Ahmed Kathrada jailed with Nelson Mandela who reminds the reader that there is no easy answer non racialism is built every day every minute by people who seek to transform social relations and allow the Rainbow Nation to flourish This book was published as a special issue of Politikon

Socio-Cultural and Religious Conflicts and the Future of Nigeria Lotanna Olisaemeka,2022 With the prevailing violent conflict situation of our world perpetuated sometimes even in the name of religion humanity today faces extinction To reverse this ugly trend humanity has no choice than to build a society where every tribe and tongue can coexist in peace This work analyzed the violent conflicts from anthropological behavioral politico philosophical and theological perspectives and makes a demand on humanity to save herself through proper education and dialogue with all men and religions
