No Road Leading Back Chris Heath, 2024-09-03 This by turns shattering and hope giving account of prisoners who dug their way to freedom from the Nazis is both a stunning escape narrative and an object lesson in the ways we remember and continually forget the particulars of the Holocaust No Road Leading Back is the remarkable story of a dozen prisoners who escaped from the site where more than 70 000 Jews were shot in the Lithuanian forest of Ponar after the Nazi invasion of Eastern Europe in 1941 Anxious to hide the incriminating evidence of the murders the S S later in the war enslaved a group of Jews to exhume every one of the bodies and incinerate them all in a months long labor an episode whose specifics are staggering and disturbing even within the context of the Holocaust From within that dire circumstance emerges the improbable escape made by some of the men who dug a tunnel with bare hands and spoons while they were trapped and guarded day and night an act not just of bravery and desperation but of awesome imagination Based on first person accounts of the escapees and on each scrap of evidence that has been documented repressed or amplified since this book resurrects their lives while also providing a complex urgent analysis of why their story has rarely been told and never accurately Heath explores the cultural use and misuse of Holocaust testimony and the need for us to face it and all uncomfortable historical truths with honesty and accuracy
