Racing To Regionalize:

Racing to the Top William R. Thompson, Leila Zakhirova, 2019 In the international political economy of the last two millennia there tends to be one state leading the world as the foremost producer of energy and new technology In Racing to the Top William R Thompson and Leila Zakhirova argue that the US and China like previous leading countries rely on energy transition or the development of alternative energy in order to make new technology relatively inexpensive to develop and to fuel While the US has historically held the lead its edge in the global energy economy appears to be eroding and as energy leadership diminishes so does the country's position in world politics Thompson and Zakhirova take a long view in order to show what will be necessary for a new power to emerge as the system leader then map a path forward for energy policy Informed by a deep knowledge of world history political economy and environmental technology this book is the first complete overview of energy transitions over the past thousand years Laws of the State of New York New York (State), 1934

Mapping Strategic Knowledge Anne

Sigismund Huff, Mark Jenkins, 2002-01-31 This book outlines a number of different tools for mapping strategic knowledge and thus making knowledge more accessible. Anne Sigismund Huff and Mark Jenkins have brought leading academics together in this work to provide informed analysis and theory to illustrate the contribution of knowledge mapping to central issues in strategy and organization theory to consider the contribution of these studies to management practice to address practical theoretic and methodological limitations of these tools including several software tools now available to facilitate mapping. Each section of the book provides a table which charts the chapters main contents key findings and implications for knowledge management. An annotated bibliography is provided at the end of the book as a resource for readers who may wish to become more familiar with relevant and existing literature in this area. Mapping Strategic Knowledge is relevant to those interested in knowledge management primarily academics and consultants in the area of strategic management but also academics in the area of organization theory. The regional travel guide for Lonan (Isle of Man), 2025-09-24

Real NASCAR Daniel S. Pierce, 2010-04-01 In this history of the stock car racing circuit known as NASCAR Daniel S. Pierce offers a revealing new look at the sport from its postwar beginnings on Daytona Beach and Piedmont dirt tracks through the early 1970s when the sport spread beyond its southern roots and gained national recognition. Real NASCAR not only confirms the popular notion of NASCAR's origins in bootlegging but also establishes beyond a doubt the close ties between organized racing and the illegal liquor industry a story that readers will find both fascinating and controversial.

LA Sports Wayne Wilson, David K. Wiggins, 2018-02-15 LA Sports brings together sixteen essays covering various aspects of the development and changing nature of sport in one of America's most fascinating and famous cities. The writers cover a range of topics including the history of car racing and ice skating the development of sport venues the power of the Mexican fan base in American soccer leagues the intersecting life stories of Jackie and Mack Robinson the importance of the Showtime Lakers the origins of Muscle Beach and surfing sport in Hollywood films and more. Arms Races in International Politics Thomas G. Mahnken, Joseph Maiolo, David Stevenson, 2016 This volume provides the first comprehensive history of the arms racing phenomenon in modern international politics drawing both on theoretical approaches and on the latest historical research. Written by an international team of specialists it is divided into four sections before 1914 the inter war years the Cold War and extra European and post Cold War arms races. Twelve case studies examine land and naval armaments before the First World War air land and naval competition during the 1920s and 1930s and nuclear as well as conventional weapons since 1945. Armaments policies are placed within the context of technological development international politics and diplomacy and social politics and economics. An extended general introduction and conclusion and introductions to each section provide coherence between the specialized chapters and draw out wider implications for policymakers and for political scientists. Arms Races in International Politics addresses two key questions what causes arms races and what is the connection between arms races and the outbreak of wars. American Motorcyclist, 1997-06

Reconsidering the East Asian Peace William R. Thompson, Thomas J. Volgy, 2024-08-01

This volume re-examines the notion of the East Asian peace arguing that it requires updating for the current and near future context of US Chinese rivalry. The East Asian peace refers to the remarkable change in conflict levels in eastern Eurasia over the past 80 years or even the past 130 years or so. Prior to the late 1970s East Asia was regarded as the most conflictual region on the planet. Although insurgencies have continued in places such as Myanmar, Thailand and the Philippines after the 1980s East and Southeast Asia became one of the world's least conflictual regions. Geopolitics and economic development worked hand in hand to reduce conflict in the region and in this respect the East Asian peace has been a confluence of peace. The general problem with a confluence of peace is that the factors that shape it evolve over time and the specific circumstances in question seem to be evolving in a different direction with East Asia shaping up to be the most central locale of the contest between US and Chinese hegemony both regionally and perhaps globally. This book argues that the idea of the East Asian peace now requires adjustment to the current and near future context. The more general arguments presented here focus on alternative interpretations of how regional peace and order should be interpreted while the more specific arguments involve interpretations of Chinese and other countries' behavior in the context of the heightened rivalry between China and the United States. This book will be of much interest to students of East Asian politics, peace studies, foreign policy and international relations.

Sport Management Russell Hoyer, Aaron C.T. Smith, Matthew Nicholson, Bob Stewart, 2015-01-09

Now available in a fully revised and updated fourth edition Sport Management Principles and Applications introduces the sport industry and examines the role of the state, non-profit and professional sectors in sport. It focuses on core management principles and their application in a sporting context, highlighting the unique challenges faced in a career in sport management. Written in an engaging and accessible style, each chapter has a clear structure designed to make key information and concepts simple to find and to utilize. Chapters contain a conceptual overview, references, further reading, links to important websites, study questions and up-to-date case studies from around the world to show how theory works in the real world, and a companion website offers additional activities for students and guidance notes and slides for instructors. The book covers every core functional area of management including strategic planning, organizational culture, organizational structures, human resource management, leadership, governance, financial management, marketing, performance management. This fourth edition also includes expanded coverage of sport media, change management and other contemporary management issues, providing a comprehensive introduction to the practical application of management principles within sport organizations It is ideal for first and second year students on sport management related courses as well as those studying business focused or human movement courses seeking an overview of applied sport management principles
