racial contract from the time of the New World conquest and subsequent colonialism to the written slavery contract to the separate but equal system of segregation in the twentieth century United States According to Mills the contract has provided the theoretical architecture justifying an entire history of European atrocity against non whites from David Hume s and Immanuel Kant s claims that blacks had inferior cognitive power to the Holocaust to the kind of imperialism in Asia that was demonstrated by the Vietnam War Mills suggests that the ghettoization of philosophical work on race is no accident This work challenges the assumption that mainstream theory is itself raceless Just as feminist theory has revealed orthodox political philosophy s invisible white male bias Mills s explication of the racial contract exposes its racial underpinnings
