Racist Culture Philosophy And The Politics Of Meaning:

Racist Culture David Theo Goldberg,1993 Racial Structure and Radical Politics in the African Diaspora Georgia A. Persons,2017-07-05 This is a must read book for anyone interested in the areas of racial theory and racial relations multicultural and polarized religions and the making of African personality and culture In keeping with earlier volumes in the series it emphasizes the cross fertilization of Africa and the world In Binga Bank Th e Development of the Black Metropolis Beth Johnson gives an historic look at the opening of the Binga Bank its founder and how the bank helped stimulate the black metropolis in Chicago Black on the Block takes a look at life in the community of North Kenwood Oakland California Mark Christian describes what it is like to be a member in the African diaspora in the United States and United Kingdom In the racial theory and racial relations area Clarence Tally s The aeRace Concept and Racial Structure argues that the study of race has become dominated by the idea that race is socially constructed Reiland Rabaka analyzes discourse on the process of awarding reparations to people of African origin Paula A Moore explains why people of African descent with mental health problems do not receive treatment Patriot Day focuses on the emergence and growth of Islam in America and its struggle to connect with America s cultural heritage Edward Wilmot Blyden and the African Personality by James Conyers reviews Blyden s ideas and beliefs challenging the European worldview Cultural Helix Th eory examines the most fundamental component of African culture language and how it aff ects the black community Black in the Saddle by Demetrius W Pearson chronicles the professional and personal experiences of Willie Thomas an African American cowboy African Literature and the Politics of Culture James Tar Tsaaio,2013-11-01 This book essentially negotiates African literature as a veritable site of artistic and cultural production and situates it within the dynamic of postcolonial cultural politics It critically evaluates African literature as a contour of cultural contestation with the imperial politics of knowledge production about others and as an ideological strategy for knowing them The book s main contribution to the critical discourse on African literature and culture inheres in the fact that politics constitutes the enduring concern of society as it re shapes and over determines discourses which have continued to remain crucial to societal engineering It however imagines the discursive existence as necessary for the evolving of a dynamic African literary tradition with an abiding fidelity to the verities of history The book is useful for literary scholars historians critics experts and students of postcolonial cultural studies as well as general readership interested in African studies Race, Nature, and the Politics of Difference Donald S. Moore,Jake Kosek,Anand Pandian,2003-05-20 A collection of essays that show the interdependence of concepts of race and nature The Politics of Multiracialism Heather M. Dalmage,2012-02-01 This is the first book to critically look at the political issues and interests surrounding the broadly defined Multiracial Movement and at what is being said about multiracialism Many of the multiracial family organizations that exist across the United States developed socially ideologically and politically during the conservative Reagan years While members of the Multiracial Movement differ widely in their political views the concept of multiracialism has been taken up by conservative politicians in ways that are often inimical to the interests of traditionally defined minorities Contributors look at the Multiracial Movement's voice and at the political controversies that attend the notion of multiracialism in academic and popular literature internet discourse census debates and discourse by and about pop culture celebrities The work discusses how multiracialism hybridity and racial mixing have occurred amidst existing academic discussions of authenticity community borders identity politics the social construction of race and postmodern fragmentation How the Multiracial Movement is shaping and transforming collective multiracial identities is also explored

The Mulatta and the Politics of Race Teresa C. Zackodnik, 2009-09-18 From abolition through the years just before the civil rights struggle began African American women recognized that a mixed race woman made for a powerful and at times very useful figure in the battle for racial justice The Mulatta and the Politics of Race traces many key instances in which black women have wielded the image of a racially mixed woman to assault the color line In the oratory and fiction of black women from the late 1840s through the 1950s Teresa C Zackodnik finds the mulatta to be a metaphor of increasing potency Before the Civil War white female abolitionists created the image of the tragic mulatta caught between races rejected by all African American women put the mulatta to diverse political use Black women used the mulatta figure to invoke and manage American and British abolitionist empathy and to contest racial stereotypes of womanhood in the postbellum United States The mulatta aided writers in critiquing the New Negro Renaissance and gave writers leverage to subvert the aims of mid twentieth century mainstream American culture The Mulatta and the Politics of Race focuses on the antislavery lectures and appearances of Ellen Craft and Sarah Parker Remond the domestic fiction of Pauline Hopkins and Frances Harper the Harlem Renaissance novels of Jessie Fauset and Nella Larsen and the little known 1950s texts of Dorothy Lee Dickens and Reba Lee Throughout the author discovers the especially valuable and as yet unexplored contributions of these black women and their uses of the mulatta in prose and speech Teresa C Zackodnik is a professor of English at the University of Alberta in Canada

Teaching Transformation A. Keating, 2007-06-11 Drawing on indigenous belief systems and recent work in critical race studies and multicultural feminist theory Keating provides detailed step by step suggestions based on her own teaching experiences designed to anticipate and change students resistance to social justice issues It offers a holistic approach to theory and practice

Knowing Otherwise Alexis Shotwell, 2015-09-10 Prejudice is often not a conscious attitude because of ingrained habits in relating to the world one may act in prejudiced ways toward others without explicitly understanding the meaning of one's actions Similarly one may know how to do certain things like ride a bicycle without being able to articulate in words what that knowledge is These are examples of what Alexis Shotwell discusses in Knowing Otherwise as phenomena of implicit understanding Presenting a systematic analysis of this concept she highlights how this kind of understanding may be used to ground positive political and social change such as combating racism in its less overt and more deep rooted forms Shotwell begins by distinguishing four basic types of implicit understanding nonpropositional skill based or practical knowledge embodied knowledge potentially propositional knowledge and affective knowledge She then develops the notion of a racialized and gendered common sense drawing on Gramsci and critical race theorists and clarifies the idea of embodied knowledge by showing how it operates in the realm of aesthetics She also examines the role that both negative affects like shame and positive affects like sympathy can play in moving us away from racism and toward political solidarity and social justice Finally Shotwell looks at the politicized experience of one's body in feminist and transgender theories of liberation in order to elucidate the role of situated sensuous knowledge in bringing about social change and political transformation

Looking White People in the Eye Sherene Razack, 1998-01-01
Examining the classroom discussion of equity issues and legal cases involving immigration and sexual violence Razack addresses how non white women are viewed and how they must respond in classrooms and courtrooms

The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Multicultural Education David Gillborn, Gloria Ladson-Billings, 2004 Bringing together scholarship from both sides of the Atlantic this book focuses on the questions that shape the field of multicultural education offering the reader an opportunity to achieve a real grasp of the subject

Routledge International Companion to Education Miriam Ben-Peretz, Sally Brown, Bob Moon, 2004-04-28 The Routledge International Companion to Education aims to address the key issues underpinning the rethinking and restructuring of education at the beginning of the new millennium

Culture and Difference Antonia Darder, 1995-12-30 The yearning to remember who we are is not easily detected in the qualitative dimensions of focus groups and ethnographic research methods nor is it easily measured in standard quantified scientific inquiry It is deeply rooted obscured by layer upon layer of human efforts to survive the impact of historical amnesia induced by the dominant policies and practices of advanced capitalism and postmodern culture Darder's introduction sets the tone by describing the formation of Warriors for Gringostroika and The New Mestizas In the words of Anzaldua those who cross over pass over the confines of the normal Critical essays follow by Mexicanas poets activists and educators of all colors and persuasions The collection coming out of the good work of the Southern California University system relates to all locales and spectrums of the human condition and will no doubt inspire excellent creativity of knowing and remembering among all who chance to read any part thereof

Imagined Histories Anthony Molho, Gordon S. Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book's first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book Contemporary Literary and Cultural Theory Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2012-10-05

Contemporary Literary and Cultural Theory The Johns Hopkins Guide is a clear accessible and detailed overview of the most important thinkers and topics in the field Written by specialists from across disciplines its entries cover contemporary theory from Adorno to i ek providing an informative and reliable introduction to a vast challenging area of inquiry Materials include newly commissioned articles along with essays drawn from The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism known as the definitive resource for students and scholars of literary theory and for philosophical reflection on literature and culture

The SAGE Handbook of Race and Ethnic Studies John Solomos, Patricia Hill Collins, 2010-06-15 What is the state of Race and Ethnic Studies today How has the field emerged What are the core concepts debates and issues The SAGE Handbook of Race and Ethnic Studies is a vital resource for researchers and students with a panoramic critical survey of the field A rigorous focused examination of the central questions in the field today the text examines The roots of the field of race and ethnic studies The distinction between race and ethnicity Methodological issues facing researchers The relationship between the field and more established disciplines Intersections between race and ethnicity and questions sexuality gender nation and social transformation The challenge of multiculturalism Race ethnicity and globalization Race and the family Race and education Race and religion Issues for the 21st Century Black Skins, Black Masks Shirley Anne Tate, 2017-07-05 Black Skin Black Masks Hybridity Dialogism Performativity offers a timely exploration of Black identity and its negotiation The book draws on empirical work recording everyday conversations between Black women friends peers and family members These conversations are discussed in the light of the work of Homi Bhabha Stuart Hall Gerd Baumann Claire Alexander and others on questions of hybridity identity otherness and the development of new ethnicities Tate aims to address what she sees as significant omissions in contemporary Black Cultural Studies She argues that theorists have rarely looked at the process of identity construction in terms of lived experience and that they have tended to concentrate on the demise of the essential Black subject paying little attention to gender The book points to a continuation of a politics of the skin in Black identities As such it argues against Bhabha s claim that essence is not central to hybrid identities The conversations recorded in the book reveal the ways in which women negotiate the category of Blackness in what Tate calls a hybridity of the everyday The book introduces a new interpretative vocabulary to look at the ways in which hybridity is orchestrated and fashioned showing it to be performative dialogical and dependent on essentialism Colonized by Humanity Rob Waters, 2023 Colonized by Humanity is a study of racial liberalism at the end of empire It uncovers the projects to cultivate racial integration developed in the two decades between the arrival of the Empire Windrush and the passage of the first Race Relations Act Globalization of Racism Donaldo Macedo, Panayota Gounari, 2015-11-17 Addressing ethnic cleansing culture wars human sufferings terrorism immigration and intensified xenophobia The Globalization of Racism explains why it is vital that we gain a nuanced understanding of how ideology underlies all social cultural and political discourse and racist actions The book looks at recent developments in France Germany Greece Ireland Israel Italy Portugal Spain and the United States and uses examples from the mass media popular culture and politics to address the challenges these and other countries face in their democratic institutions The eminent authors of this important book show how we can educate for critical citizenry in the ever increasing multicultural and multiracial world of the twenty first century Contributors are David Theo Goldberg Loic Wacquant Edward W Said Zygmunt Bauman Peter Mayo and Carmel Borg Anna Aluffi Pentini and Walter Lorenz Peter Gstettner Georgios Tsiakalos Franz Hamburger Julio Vargas Lena de Botton and Ramon Flecha Concetta Sirna Jan Fiola Joao Paraskeva Henry A Giroux It explores new forms of racism in the era of globalization Negras in Brazil Kia Caldwell, 2007-01-05 For most of the twentieth century Brazil was widely regarded as a racial democracy a country untainted by the scourge of racism and prejudice In recent decades however this image has been severely critiqued with a growing number of studies highlighting persistent and deep seated patterns of racial discrimination and inequality Yet recent work on race and racism has rarely considered gender as part of its analysis In Negras in Brazil Kia Lilly Caldwell examines the life experiences of Afro Brazilian women whose stories have until now been largely untold This pathbreaking study analyzes the links between race and gender and broader processes of social economic and political exclusion Drawing on ethnographic research with social movement organizations and thirty five life history interviews Caldwell explores the everyday struggles Afro Brazilian women face in their efforts to achieve equal rights and full citizenship She also shows how the black women s movement which has emerged in recent decades has sought to challenge racial and gender discrimination in Brazil While proposing a broader view of citizenship that includes domains such as popular culture and the body Negras in Brazil highlights the continuing relevance of identity politics for members of racially marginalized communities Providing new insights into black women s social activism and a gendered perspective on Brazilian racial dynamics this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Latin American Studies African diaspora studies women s studies politics and cultural anthropology Colonial Proximities Renisa Mawani, 2010-01-01 Real and imagined encounters among Aboriginal peoples European colonists Chinese migrants and mixed race populations produced racial anxieties that underwrote crossracial contacts in the salmon canneries the illicit liquor trade and the white slavery scare in late nineteenth and early twentieth century British Columbia Colonial Proximities explores the legal and spatial strategies of rule deployed by Indian agents missionaries and legal authorities who aspired to restrict crossracial encounters By connecting genealogies of aboriginal European contact with those of Chinese migration this book reveals that territorial dispossession and Chinese exclusion were never distinct projects but two conjunctive processes in the making of the settler regime Drawing on archival documents and historical records Colonial Proximities historicizes current discussions of multiculturalism and pluralism in modern settler societies by revealing how crossracial interactions in one colonial contact zone inspired juridical racial truths and forms of governance that continue to linger in contemporary racial politics It is essential reading for students and practitioners of history anthropology sociology colonial postcolonial studies and critical race and legal studies
