Shifting Gears:

Shifting Gears Eddie Thramer, 2011-12-06 September 11 A day that in some way has either directly or indirectly changed everyone in America if not the world's way of life Whether it is a person's sense of security travel plans outlook on life or the way they view their family 9/11 as they call it changed us all including me But my 9/11 didn't happen in 2001 it happened exactly two years earlier in 1999 With September 11 being my birthday I received a unique present on that day that changed my life It was then that I first realized that life wasn't the fairytale world that I thought it was As I saw my world crumble down I had no choice but to turn a negative into a positive Remembering the advice from a person whom I had never met telling me to believe in myself never give up and to never take the easy way out I knew that I could battle through anything and win in the long run Little did I know that present was the opening to my future and to my life's goal that I was out to achieve

Regional Role of Two-Year Colleges L. Allen Phelps, 2012-04-10 In the midst of a challenging economic recovery, the nation's policy makers and education leaders are seeking new and potentially more effective strategies to align personal and public educational investments with job creation, increased levels of employment, small business development, and entrepreneurial activity. Reaching the 2020 national college completion goal will require powerful and fully implemented innovations in two-year colleges, particularly in states and regions where economic difficulties are more deeply entrenched. Grounded in the Midwest context, this special issue examines several promising policies and innovations that re-envision the role of two-year colleges in developing regional rather than local solutions to the emerging economic and educational challenges. This is the 157th volume of the Jossey-Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents, vice presidents, deans, and other leaders in today's open-door institutions. New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission.
