The Long Way Home: The Testimony is a first of its kind from the inner city streets of Baltimore, Maryland. This narrative non-fiction story is NOT a glorification of the despair that plagues many urban districts throughout our country, but it is an informative, intense, detailed urban centerpiece that goes against conventional wisdom of what society may believe about the inner city and many of its occupants. This story bridges a gap many believed could not be. It's a unique approach to the harsh realities of the streets and to life as a whole. It's a story about change, decisions, and consequences. This is one man's story. It's an urban story about God. This is certainly not a street tale lacking depth, one without significant meaning or positive goals. This story is about family, trials, perseverance, love, God, life, and its purpose. This read will erase any doubt and convince all that anything is possible for anyone. The author assures us all that this is a story told with two main goals in mind: to glorify God and to strive for a good future while loving every human being along the way.

The Long Way Home Lorraine Adamson, 2015-06-26. This is a true story. It had to be that way: an edict handed down by God, yes, that God, the Supreme Authority, the Creator of heaven and earth and everything else. The God of Thou shall not bear false witness. So let me tell you about the family God placed me in. First, Neil Diamond isn't really my father. No kidding, right? But knowing that Neil Diamond isn't my father also meant knowing that my mother lived with a significant mental illness. How are you supposed to go back to the beginning and find your way once you've realized the map you've been following is not only illusory, it isn't even your own illusion.
