Ritter, Jon L. Wakelyn, 1989-09-26 It was a time of civil war and economic shift from an agrarian to an industrial society for the 1 390 speakers of state houses of representatives profiled in this unique biographical dictionary The political climate and characteristics of the politicians as a group are surveyed in introductory material This is followed by biographical entries which include a list of sources The cumulated bibliography arranged by state is valuable There is no other such directory Library Journal On the whole it is a useful compilation providing a starting point for research into the lives of a cross section of legislators in this period A necessary purchase for research libraries recommended to all academic libraries with strong collections in state history Choice During the years 1850 1910 the United States evolved from an agrarian to an industrial political economy By the end of the century industrialization has shifted the entire political system toward national government power beginning a trend that continues today An understanding of the importance of state government and in particular of the lower houses of the legislatures at this time is crucial to an understanding of how American politics was transformed in the second half of the nineteenth century This study compares the speakers of these influential nineteenth century American political bodies and focuses on the legislative issues of the period The largest collection of biographical data of its kind to date the book profiles the 1 390 speakers in the period from 1850 to 1910 The collective career analysis of the individuals covered provides an unprecedented exploration of the socioeconomic issues the governmental processes and the political behavior of the times to allow a more thorough understanding of the transition from an agrarian to an industrial state This comprehensive study of state political power will provide fresh insight into the American legislative system of the latter half of the nineteenth century and will be of special value to scholars of American political history and political science United States Investor, 1910 Biography of a Book: Henry Lawson's While the Billy Boils Paul Eggert, 2013 Biography of a Book traces the life of an iconic Australian literary work in the lead up to and for a century after its initial publication Henry Lawson s 1896 collection While the Billy Boils Paul Eggert follows Lawson s gradual development of a pared back bush realism in the early 1890s as he struggled to forge a career writing short stories and sketches for the newspapers Lawson s famous collection came out at a decisive moment for the development of a fully professional Australian literary publishing industry then in its infancy in Sydney The volume s editing design and production were collaborative events that changed the feel and nature of Lawson's writing. He had to give ground on his texts and their sequencing. The collection went on to be reprinted and repackaged countless times. Its production and reception histories act like a geological cross section revealing the contours of successive cultural formations in Australia. In unravelling the life of Lawson's classic work, Eggert's book historical approach challenges and clarifies established understandings of crucial moments in Australian literary history and of Lawson himself.

The Stage Lives of Animals Una Chaudhuri, 2016-10-04

The Stage Lives of Animals examines what it might mean to make theatre beyond the human. In this stunning collection of essays, Una Chaudhuri engages with the alternative modes of thinking, feeling, and making art offered by animals and animality, bringing insights from theatre practice and theory to animal studies as well as exploring what animal studies can bring to the study of theatre and performance. As our planet lives through what scientists call the sixth extinction and we become ever more aware of our relationships to other species, Chaudhuri takes a highly original look at the animal imagination of well-known plays, performances, and creative projects, including works by Caryl Churchill, Rachel Rosenthal, Marina Zurkow, Edward Albee, Tennessee Williams, Eugene Ionesco. Covering over a decade of explorations, a wide range of writers, and many urgent topics, this volume demonstrates that an interspecies imagination deeply structures modern western drama.
