Interdenominational Faith Missions in Africa Fiedler, Klaus, 2018-03-13 It was not the European and American churches which evangelised Africa but the mission societies The missions from the Great Awakening such as the London Missionary Society and Church Missionary Society or the Holy Ghost Fathers and the White Fathers which started the process of Sub Saharan Africa becoming a Christian continent are well known and documented Less known and less documented are the interdenominational faith missions which began in 1873 with the aim of visiting the still unreached areas of Africa North Africa the Sudan Belt and the Congo Basin Missions such as the Africa Inland Mission or Sudan Interior Mission gave birth to some of the big churches like ECWA in Nigeria and Africa Inland Church in Kenya It is the aim of this book to describe faith missions and their theology and to present an overview of the early development of faith missions insofar as they touched Africa Jeanne Guyon Madame Jeanne Guyon, 1997-03-01 Joy in the Lord Persecuted for her unwavering faith imprisoned because of her love for God Jeanne Guyon lived out the life Jesus Christ called her to live Her true story has been an inspiration to thousands She discusses Dealing with times of adversity Understanding true conversion Overcoming suffering Developing strong faith Hearing God's voice Guyon's life demonstrates how the love of God can overcome all the trials believers face This book is a living testimony of the undying faith she found as she experienced the joy of the Lord in the midst of suffering Discover how you too can live joyously regardless of your circumstances The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan's Notion of Self-appropriation to a Mystical-political Theology Ian B. Bell, 2008 In The Relevance of Bernard Lonergan's Notion of Self Appropriation to a Mystical Political Theology Ian Bell takes on the issue of the separation of the interior and exterior lives that has come to dominate mystical theology over the years The mystical life he claims is necessarily involved in the establishment of social structures and institutions that govern human living and the work of Bernard Lonergan on the human subject provides a means by which the connection between the interior and exterior lives may be established Because human persons operate in a consistent pattern regardless of a given moment's particularities mystical experience is no longer relegated to so called spiritual matters and the insights of mystics may be applied to the Christian call to live as agents of love With this connection in place mystical theology and political theology come together in a theology that is both mystical and political Letters of Jeanne Guyon Madame Jeanne Guyon, 2013-06-19 This is no time to be disheartened When the sinful lusts rebel leave them to their disorderly cravings Let them cry as a child from whom we take away a dangerous yet pleasing toy Strengthen yourself for crosses and humiliations You will soon be made alive in Jesus Christ Jeanne Guyon Madame Jeanne Guyon found the way to God through prayer in the midst of a darkened civilization Her books describing her methods of prayer were so radical in their day that Guyon was imprisoned for several years in the infamous Bastille Today her writings are considered classics of Christian literature This collection of Guyon's thoughts and experiences was gleaned from the many letters she wrote during her lifetime including her correspondence with her friend advocate and fellow theologian Francois Fnelon The Keswick Movement Charles Edwin Jones, 2007 This volume introduces researchers to the leaders ideas and institutions of the Keswick Movement a strand of holiness teaching that was embraced by many evangelicals who came from the more Calvinistic wing of Protestantism especially Anglicans Baptists Congregationalists and Presbyterians The Keswick Movement is the most difficult of the three main holiness traditions to delineate Unlike the Wesleyan Holiness and Holiness Pentecostal traditions the Keswick Movement has not gone through a definitive period of careful theological refining and institutional boundary setting Autobiography of Madame Guyon Jeanne Guyon, 2007-12-01 Experimental Theology in America Patricia A. Ward, 2009 In this study of Madame Guyon and her defender Francois de Fnelon the Archbishop of Cambray Patricia Ward demonstrates how the ideas of these seventeenth century Catholics were transmitted into an ongoing tradition of Protestant devotional literature one that continues to influence American evangelicals and charismatic Christians today Down a winding and fascinating historical path Ward traces how the lives and writings of these two somewhat obscure Catholic believers in Quietism came to such prominence in American spirituality offering in part a fascinating glance at the role of women in the history of devotional writing Lord, I Need Grace to Make It Kay Arthur,1996 Ever feel that God has washed His hands of you or that the Christian life is too hard This nine week devotional study will lead you to the truth of God s amazing grace
