New Creatures:

The Practical Works of David Clarkson David Clarkson (B.D.),1865 The Banner of Truth ,1869 Twenty six sermons on various subjects, selected from the works of W. Beveridge William Beveridge (bp. of st. Asaph.),1850 The great Christian Doctrine of Original Sin defended: evidences of it's truth produced, and arguments to the contrary answered. Containing, in particular, a reply to the objections ... of Dr. J. Taylor, in his book, intituled, "The Scripture Doctrine of Original Sin proposed to free ... examination, etc Jonathan Edwards,1760 Returning to the Lakota Way Joseph M. Marshall, III,2014-11-03 In Returning to the Lakota Way prolific author Joseph Marshall presents the follow up to his highly regarded book The Lakota Way Using beautiful storytelling to relay traditional tales passed down through the generations Marshall once again takes the reader on a journey of growth and inspiration Each chapter presents one story that exemplifies a quality or way of life that will encourage in readers a sense of inner peace amidst the busyness of modern life From the hunting adventures of the raven and the wolf we see the importance of tolerance the lessons of the grasshopper impart the wisdom of patience and the experiences of a young man named Walks Alone teach us about silence and turning within Speaking to these and other universal qualities such as faith and selflessness Marshall gives readers insight into their own lives using tales from the past interspersed with stories from his own life growing up on the Rosebud Sioux Indian Reservation in South Dakota In him we see a clear example of the wisdom of history enhancing the state of the current world This magnificent work will give readers an insider s view of the Lakota people while providing universal lessons to enrich life Twenty-six Sermons on Various Subjects William Beveridge,1850 The Christian Looks at Himself Anthony A. Hoekema,1975 What kind of self image should Chritians have Should they see themselves primarily as unworthy sinners before a holy God The biblical view Anthony A Hoekema argues in this readable study is that humanity having been made in God s own image was the capstone of God s creation Even when we fell God considered us of such worth that he gave up his only Son to redeem humanity And in Christ as Paul makes plain we are made into new creatures This does not mean that the redeemed live a life of sinless perfection it does mean that what is most distinctive about them is the new life they have in Christ And this new life entitles Christians to a self image that is essentially positive Accepting the biblical view of our worth can be difficult for Christians burdened with feelings of guilt How can such Christians learn to see themselves in better light And how can others in the Christian community preachers counselors teachers and parents help fellow members to attain the positive self image that is essential to the Christian faith Part Two of The Christian Looks at Himself offers concrete answers to these questions and in doing so points up the social dimension of being in Christ As Christians accepts themselves as creatures made new in Christ so in love they must also fully accept fellow Christians as recreated in that same Christ ANTHONY A HOEKEMA 1913 1988 was former professor emeritus of systematic theology at Calvin Theological Seminary in Grand Rapids Michigan His other books include Created in God s Image Saved by Grace and The Bible and the Future The Complete

Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 15 Spurgeon, Charles H., 2015-02-25 Volume 15 Sermons 848 907 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers. Called the Prince of Preachers, he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today. His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades. In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people, often up to ten times each week. He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel, later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London, for 38 years. He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works, including sermons, commentaries, an autobiography, as well as books on prayer, devotionals, magazines, poetry, hymns, and more. Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration, and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound. Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature. Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London, Volume 6, 1878, quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy: a congregation consisting of 10,000 souls streaming into the hall, mounting the galleries, humming, buzzing, and swarming, a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all. After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat, you must be there at least that space of time in advance. Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune. To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low, concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present, and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours. It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse. It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high-flown nor homely, of his style that it is at times familiar, at times declamatory, but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion, cant, hypocrisy, pride, and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life, and to sum up all in a word, it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity. More than a hundred years after his death, Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world. For this reason, Delmarva Publications has chosen to republish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon.
