Brainard's Biographies of American Musicians E. Douglas Bomberger,1999-11-30 The series of biographical sketches published by Brainard s Musical World between 1877 and 1889 is notable for the diversity of the musicians profiled and for the entertaining personal information provided This period witnessed the establishment of musical institutions and attitudes toward music that have shaped American music to the present day The biographies present a cross section of American musicians in the late 19th century including singers instrumentalists writers teachers and composers Among the musicians included are some of America s most prominent conductors such as Theodore Thomas and Leopold Damrosch composers such as John Knowles Paine and George F Root writers such as John S Dwight and Amy Fay teachers such as William Mason and Erminia Rudersdorff and performers such as Emma Abbott and Maud Powell Scores of less familiar musicians who were also instrumental in shaping America s music are included as well Originally intended for general readers the biographical sketches not only shed light on musical topics but also include personal information that is seldom found in a traditional dictionary and which speaks to the attitudes and concerns of the late 19th century society This work will be of value to scholars and researchers of 19th century American music and to those interested in the development of popular song Entries are alphabetically arranged and include select bibliographies A general bibliography and index are also included Musical Observer ,1923 Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce,1924 Reels for 1973 include Time index 1973 Servanthood of Song Stanley R. McDaniel,2024-05-23 Servanthood of Song is a history of American church music from the colonial era to the present Its focus is on the institutional and societal pressures that have shaped church song and have led us directly to where we are today The gulf which separates advocates of traditional and contemporary worship Black and White Protestant and Catholic is not new History repeatedly shows us that ministry to be effective must meet the needs of the entire worshipping community not just one segment age group or class Servanthood of Song provides a historical context for trends in contemporary worship in the United States and suggests that the current polemical divisions between advocates of contemporary and traditional classically oriented church music are both unnecessary and counterproductive It also draws from history to show that to be the powerful component of worship it can be music whatever the genre must be viewed as a ministry with training appropriate to that Servanthood of Song provides a critical resource for anyone considering a career in either musical or pastoral ministries in the American church as well as all who care passionately about vital and authentic worship for the church of today Making Friends in Music Land Lota May Harrigan Spell, 1925 A List of Books for High School Libraries of California School Library Association of California. Southern Section, 1928 The New Music Review and Church Music Review, 1913 A.L.A. Catalog, 1926 Isabella Mitchell Cooper, Marion Horton, 1926 The Musical Monitor, 1923 Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library, 1924 Teachers bulletin vol 4 issued as part of v 23 no 9 The German Symphony between Beethoven and Brahms Christopher Fifield, 2016-03-03 It was Carl Dahlhaus who coined the phrase dead time to describe the state of the symphony between Schumann and Brahms Christopher Fifield argues that many of the symphonies dismissed by Dahlhaus made worthy contributions to the genre He traces the root of the problem further back to Beethoven's ninth symphony a work which then proceeded to intimidate symphonists who followed in its composer's footsteps including Schubert Mendelssohn and Schumann In 1824 Beethoven set a standard that then had to rise in response to more demanding expectations from both audiences and the musical press Christopher Fifield who has a conductor's intimacy with the repertoire looks in turn at the five decades between the mid 1820s and mid 1870s He deals only with non programmatic works leaving the programme symphony to travel its own route to the symphonic poem Composers who lead to Brahms himself a reluctant symphonist until the age of 43 in 1876 are frequently dismissed as epigones of Beethoven Mendelssohn and Schumann but by investigating their symphonies Fifield reveals their respective brands of originality even their own possible influence upon Brahms himself and in so doing shines a light into a half century of neglected nineteenth century German symphonic music Music and Music-makers Constance Morse, 1926 The Nation and Athenæum, 1924
