Goldsmith,Mark Reiter,2015-05-19 Bestselling author and world renowned executive coach Marshall Goldsmith examines the environmental and psychological triggers that can derail us at work and in life Do you ever find that you are not the patient compassionate problem solver you believe yourself to be Are you surprised at how irritated or flustered the normally unflappable you becomes in the presence of a specific colleague at work Have you ever felt your temper accelerate from zero to sixty when another driver cuts you off in traffic Our reactions don t occur in a vacuum They are usually the result of unappreciated triggers in our environment the people and situations that lure us into behaving in a manner diametrically opposed to the colleague partner parent or friend we imagine ourselves to be These triggers are constant and relentless and omnipresent So often the environment seems to be outside our control Even if that is true as Goldsmith points out we have a choice in how we respond In Triggers his most powerful and insightful book yet Goldsmith shows how we can overcome the trigger points in our lives and enact meaningful and lasting change Goldsmith offers a simple magic bullet solution in the form of daily self monitoring hinging around what he calls active questions These are questions that measure our effort not our results There s a difference between achieving and trying we can t always achieve a desired result but anyone can try In the course of Triggers Goldsmith details the six engaging questions that can help us take responsibility for our efforts to improve and help us recognize when we fall short Filled with revealing and illuminating stories from his work with some of the most successful chief executives and power brokers in the business world Goldsmith offers a personal playbook on how to achieve change in our lives make it stick and become the person we want to be Presidential Profiles Philip Secor, 2008-09 Presidential Profiles is a book that displays bright and colorful verbal pictures of the forty two men who have led our country from George Washington to George W Bush Unlike many works about the presidents this one is neither a large tome nor a complex study of presidential policies or historical themes arranged by more or less useful analytical categories Philip Secor and acclaimed author and historian has provided here a useful comparative reference for the beginning student and at the same time a good read for the history buff Although there are few footnotes and no extensive bibliography there are a few books suggested for further reading on each president Each profile seeks to answer four general questions 1 What kind of person was he in terms of appearance temperament personal habits and idiosyncracies 2 What was his childhood and early life like and what did he do before becoming president 3 What did he accomplish as president 4 What did he do after leaving office and what was the manner of his death Throughout special emphasis is placed on personal and social relationships History of Merrimack and Belknap Counties, New Hampshire ,1885
