Travel Writing and the Production of a Global Imagination in a South Asian Print culture

Today, the travelogue is one of the most popular genres of writing in Urdu and many other South Asian languages. Given this, it might come as a surprise that before the 1850s, travel writing was a marginal genre that played only a minimal role in Indian intellectual and literary life. How, and why, did travel writing become so popular in mid- to late-colonial India? In this talk, Daniel Majchrowicz reads the early history of the genre in Urdu to argue that its newfound salience was brought about by a confluence of material, social, and political factors that allowed Indian readers, listeners, and writers alike to fashion their own global imaginations. Their pens made the travelogue into a genre of aspiration, a role it continues to fulfill today.

Salt in Modern India: How a Commodity Made an Empire and a Nation

This talk investigates the long background to Mohandas Gandhi's choice of the Salt March as a symbol of protest against British colonial rule. The Salt March was one of the most significant acts of resistance to British imperial rule. But why did salt represent all that was wrong about British colonial rule in India? Whilst we know a lot about the Salt March of 1930, surprisingly less has been researched and written about how and why salt became so important to the British Raj. The talk is in three parts. I begin in Bengal in the late 18th century, with the massive fortunes made from salt by so-called English 'nabobs' and Indian merchants. Then I look at the operation of the British salt monopoly in the 19th and early 20th century. And finally, I return to Gandhi's campaign against salt, not just in 1930, but its revival in 1942 at the height of the Second World War, as the Indian National Congress called for Britain to 'quit India', and a terrible famine devastated Bengal.

New Histories:

Old Books and New Histories Leslie Howsam, 2006-09-16 Studies in the culture and history of the book are a burgeoning academic specialty Intriguing rigorous and vital they are nevertheless rooted within three major academic disciplines history literary studies and bibliography that focus respectively upon the book as a cultural transaction a literary text and a material artefact Old Books and New Histories serves as a guide to this rich but sometimes confusing territory explaining how different scholarly approaches to what may appear to be the same entity can lead to divergent questions and contradictory answers Rather than introduce the events and turning points in the history of book culture or debates among its theorists Leslie Howsam uses an array of books and articles to offer an orientation to the field in terms of disciplinary boundaries and interdisciplinary tensions Howsam s analysis maps studies of book and print culture onto the disciplinary structure of the North American and European academic world Old Books and New Histories is also an engaged statement of the historical perspective of the book In the final analysis the lesson of studies in book and print culture is that texts change books are mutable and readers ultimately make of books what they need Lepidopterorum Catalogus Poole, 1989-01-01 The noctuidae of the world a family with numerous important agricultural pests comprises about a third of the entire order Lepidoptera This new three volume set is the first complete catalog for the world About 38 000 named species including known synonyms are listed alphabetically under each genus name in over 1 000 pages of text Genera area also listed alphabetically but subfamily affiliations are noted for each of the valid names to enable users to segregate genera by subfamily Valid names are noted in boldface Synonyms are listed for each genus and species the species synonyms are also listed alphabetically among the valid names thus enabling users to make two kinds of searches in the text as well as in the index The catalog provides citation data on all described names other than infraspecific names with references cited in the compete bibliography at the end Reference is also made to more important papers on the biology larvae host plants and illustrations for each species again with full titles noted in the bibliography The main host plants for each species where known are listed under each Details of holotypes where known are also noted The bibliography has entries for approximately 4 400 papers Palestine Nur Masalha, 2018-08-15 This rich and magisterial work traces Palestine s millennia old heritage uncovering cultures and societies of astounding depth and complexity that stretch back to the very beginnings of recorded history Starting with the earliest references in Egyptian and Assyrian texts Nur Masalha explores how Palestine and its Palestinian identity have evolved over thousands of years from the Bronze Age to the present day Drawing on a rich body of sources and the latest archaeological evidence Masalha shows how Palestine s multicultural past has been distorted and mythologised by Biblical lore and the Israel Palestinian conflict In the process Masalha reveals that the concept of Palestine contrary to accepted belief is not a modern invention or one constructed in opposition to Israel but rooted firmly in ancient past Palestine represents the authoritative account of the country s history Undisciplining Knowledge Harvey J.

History and Identity Stefan Berger,2022-01-20 This introduction to contemporary historical theory and practice shows how issues of identity have shaped how we write history Stefan Berger charts how a new self reflexivity about what is involved in the process of writing history entered the historical profession and the part that historians have played in debates about the past and its meaningfulness for the present He introduces key trends in the theory of history such as postmodernism poststructuralism constructivism narrativism and the linguistic turn and reveals in turn the ways in which they have transformed how historians have written history over the last four decades The book ranges widely from more traditional forms of history writing such as political social economic labour and cultural history to the emergence of more recent fields including gender history historical anthropology the history of memory visual history the history of material culture and comparative transnational and global history Beyond Texas Through Time Walter Louis Buenger,Arnoldo De León,2011 In 1991 Walter L Buenger and the late Robert A Calvert compiled a pioneering work in Texas historiography Texas Through Time a seminal survey and critique of the field of Texas history from its inception through the end of the 1980s Now Buenger and Arnoldo De Le n have assembled an important new collection that assesses the current state of Texas historiography building on the many changes in understanding and interpretation that have developed in the nearly twenty years since the publication of the original volume This new work Beyond Texas Through Time departs from the earlier volume s emphasis on the dichotomy between traditionalism and revisionism as they applied to various eras Instead the studies in this book consider the topical and thematic understandings of Texas historiography embraced by a new generation of Texas historians as they reflect analytically on the work of the past two decades The resulting approaches thus offer the potential of informing the study of themes and topics other than those specifically introduced in this volume extending its usefulness well beyond a review of the literature In addition the volume editors introduction proposes the application of cultural constructionism as an important third perspective on the thematic and topical analyses provided by the other contributors Beyond Texas Through Time offers both a vantage point and a benchmark serving as an important reference for scholars and advanced students of history and historiography even beyond the borders of Texas Power and Time Dan

The Kaiser and the Colonies Matthew P. The Descent of Ideas Donald R. Kelley,2017-09-29 The history of ideas better known these days as intellectual history is a flourishing field of study which has been the object of much controversy but hardly any historical exploration This major new work from Donald R Kelley is the first comprehensive history of intellectual history tracing the study of the history of thought from ancient medieval and early modern times its emergence as the history of ideas in the 18th century and its subsequent expansion The point of departure for this study is the perspective opened up by Victor Cousin in the early 19th century on Eclecticism and its association with the history of philosophy established by Renaissance scholars Kelley considers a broad range of topics including the rivalry between ideas and language the rise of cultural history the contributions of certain 19th and 20th century practitioners of the history of ideas in interdisciplinary areas of philosophy literature and the sciences and finally the current state of intellectual history The central theme of the book is the interplay between the canon of philosophical thought and the tradition of language and textual study the divergence of the latter marking the descent of ideas into the realm of cultural history

Families Werner Senn,1996 South African Horror Cinema Calum Waddell,2025-08-21 This is the first study to explore South Africa both in horror cinema and as a formidable producer of celluloid scares From framing the notorious apartheid system as a mental asylum in the ground breaking and criminally underseen Jannie Totsiens Jans Rautenbach 1970 to such seventies exploitation shockers as The Demon Percival Rubens 1979 through to the blockbuster hit District 9 Neill Blomkamp 2009 and beyond this book suggests that South Africa should finally obtain its rightful place in the canon of wider genre studies and horror cinema fandom Taking in the 80s nightmares of Darrell Roodt and concluding with an analysis of the recent boom period in South African fright films including discussion of such contemporary efforts as The Tokoloshe Jerome Pikwane 2018 and the Troma esque leanings of Fried Barry Ryan Kruger 2020 South African Horror Cinema focuses on ever changing identities and perspectives and embraces the frequently carnivalesque and grotesque elements of a most unique lineage in macabre motion pictures An East Asian Route of Industrialization? The Case of Japan, 1868-1937 Peer Vries,2022-08-01 In this book Peer Vries is the first scholar to provide an extensive test of the claim that industrialization in East Asia in particular in Japan between the Meiji Restoration and World War Two would have been much more labour intensive than industrialization in the West He does this by systematically comparing the role and importance of labour and capital in Japan and in a number of Western countries at a similar stage of their industrial development He uses macro economic data as well as specific observations by people at the time It turns out that there is no reason to distinguish a specific labour intensive Japanese route of industrialization His comparative analysis provides us with a better understanding of the logic of industrialization in both West and East History Peter Claus,John Marriott,2017-04-07 Demystifying the subject with clarity and verve History An Introduction to Theory Method and Practice familiarizes the reader with the varied spectrum of historical approaches in a balanced comprehensive and engaging manner Global in scope and covering a wide range of topics from the ancient and medieval worlds to the twenty first century it explores historical perspectives not only from historiography itself but from related areas such as literature sociology geography and anthropology Clearly written accessible and student friendly this second edition is fully updated throughout to include An increased spread of case studies from beyond Europe especially from American and imperial histories New chapters on important and growing areas of historical inquiry such as environmental history and digital history Expanded sections on political cultural and social history
