New Electronic Media Innovations In Video Technologies:

The New Electronic Media Hoyt Hilsman, 1989 Hilsman's The New Electronic Media offers a comprehensive overview of the startling advances in the telecommunications industry within the last decade. He places current trends within their historical context and predicts future trends that will have a considerable impact on the life of the individual consumer.

Electronic Media Management Peter K. Pringle, Michael F. Starr, William E. McCavitt, 1995 This new edition reflects the changing practices and priorities including new regulations and guidelines, updates of broadcast programming and a vision of what is to come in electronics media management in the future.

Digital Media and Innovation Richard A. Gershon, 2024-03-26 This fully updated second edition explores the importance of innovation and innovative thinking for the long-term success of today's leading media telecommunications and information technology companies. The book takes an in-depth look at how smart creative companies have transformed today's digital economy by introducing unique and highly differentiated products and services. This edition provides a detailed overview of intelligent networks and analyzes disruptive business models and processes from companies involved in social media, artificial intelligence, the metaverse, smart cities, and robotics among other emerging areas. From Apple to Zoom, this book considers some of the key people, companies, and strategies that have transformed the communication industries. Exploring the power of good ideas, this book goes inside the creative edge and looks at what makes such companies successful over time. Digital Media and Innovation is suited to advanced undergraduate and graduate courses in media management, media industries, communication technology, and business management and innovation and provides up-to-date research for media and business professionals.

Television Production Ron Whittaker, 1993

Electronic Media Norman J. Medoff, Barbara Kaye, 2013-03-20 Electronic Media connects the traditional world of broadcasting with the contemporary universe of digital electronic media. It provides a synopsis of the beginnings of electronic media in broadcasting and the subsequent advancements into digital media.

Underlying the structure of the book is a See It Then See It Now See It Later approach that focuses on how past innovations lay the groundwork for changing trends in technology, providing the opportunity and demand for change in both broadcasting and digital media. FYI and Zoom In boxes point to further information, tying together the immediate and long-ranging issues surrounding electronic media. Career Tracks feature the experiences of industry experts and share tips in how to approach this challenging industry. Journalism, Digital Media and the Fourth Industrial Revolution José Sixto-García, Alberto Quián, Ana-Isabel Rodríguez-Vázquez, Alba Silva-Rodríguez, Xosé Soengas-Pérez, 2024-09-03 The Fourth Industrial Revolution, also known as Industry 4.0, is the fourth most important industrial stage that has occurred since the beginning of the Industrial Revolution in the 18th century. This new revolution is characterized by combining cutting-edge production techniques with intelligent systems that integrate with organizations and people. Communication and journalism, especially digital media, face the challenge of integrating emerging technologies and practices or in testing or developing technologies into companies and communicative products that are breaking down the boundaries between physical, digital, and biological. This collection analyzes and reflects on the impact of Industry 4.0 on journalism and digital media. The collection is split into three parts. The first part analyzes the emergence of centralized and decentralized networks and their impact on digital media Specifically it delves into the role of cryptographic journalism and the impact of free and collaborative networks in the fediverse to fight against disinformation and censorship as well as to promote data and metadata journalism In a second part the innovation of innovation is explored with the aim of continuing to create products that satisfy the needs of 4 0 audiences This is where the challenges and opportunities offered by the metaverse content automation technologies the impact of the Internet of Things on journalism labs the application of R D I to journalism and collaborative encounters between journalists to develop highly innovative proposals are explored Finally in the third part of the book the emergence of new communicative and journalistic actors in the 4 0 context is reviewed Examples include start ups spin offs or other entrepreneurial initiatives communication of knowledge transfer new financing models and outsourcing of tasks new proposals for newsgames or the impact of artificial intelligence in journalism practices In addition a final chapter is dedicated to exploring the new professional skills needed for journalists in this Fourth Industrial Revolution
